(By Cable to The Times) Rome, October 12 .- The story is current in high society circles here that Miss Katherine Elkins, the American heiress whose engagement to the Duke of the Abruzzi, cousin of King Victor Emmanuel, had been reported here and abroad, has jilted her royal saiter.

One rumor is that Miss Elkins has refused to change her religion, which would be necessary in case she became the bride of the duke.

No official confirmation of the reported broken enagement is obtainable but it is hinted there will be an "certent of some sort shortly.

At her home in Elkins, W. Va., on Saturday, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, mother of Miss Katherine Elkins, denied that her daughter and the Duke the great midway or "pike." of the Abruzzi has ever been engaged.

grounds yesterday with the exception of the large crowd. All yesterday afternoon the cars were crowded to overflow, buggles and carriages were brought out and many automobiles were seen running to and from-it seemed as if they were all there.

A visit to the grounds today finds everyone busy. In the office, where a large force is at work under Treasurer Denson, all are busy registering the booking and assigning spaces for the many different attractions and displays. In the floral hall, where many pooths are being put in shape, all are hard and earnestly at work.

As usual there will be a number of restaurants, occupying the spaces directly opposite the floral hall, and, running from the end thereof, will be

The parade will be formed tomorrow Yarborough hotel, and in charge of Chief Marshall O'Berry, will proceed up Fayetteville street, thence Morgan to Salisbury, up Salisbury to Hillsboro and thence to the grounds.

Perfect order will be asured at at the fair grounds all the week. Under Mr. C. A. Separk, who will act in the capacity of chief of police, a number of officers will be assigned to the different parts of the grounds for the protection of the visitors. The Evening Times will have a booth, located in the floral hall, where they extend an invitation to all the visitors, and rest themselves when tired out. The booth will be equipped as a reading and lounging room, and arranged especially for the convenience of those who tire themselves out, as a place of rest. The races this year will be of unusual interest, as a large number of well-bred horses have been entered. No running races will be held this year at all, nothing but trotting and pacing, The following races will take place tomorrow, beginning promptly at 1 2:27 Trot Stage. Purse, $500.
