

DEADLOCK THREATENED
European Capitals in Consternation Over Situation

Action of Kaiser's Government Threatens to Block the Program of Peaceable Settlement by Balkan Troubles—Germany Has Weapons to Make Herself Effective.

(By Cable to The Times) Paris, Oct. 16—The European capitals are in consternation today over the action of the Kaiser's government, which, the "program of settlement", threatens to cause a Balkan deadlock. The serious nature of the difficulty may be gathered from a remarkable declaration published in the Temps, which may be simply taken as representing official opinion in this country. The statements follow: "The Berlin ministry has interests of the first order in eastern Europe. Bismarck presided at the congress held in 1878, and Germany has the right in the elaboration of a European program to the part that he played. We regret that France's example in exchanging views at the Berlin foreign office has not been followed by the London and St. Petersburg cabinets. "We hope that M. Ivolosky will be take himself to Berlin at the earliest possible moment. Such a journey is in the highest degree desirable after the indiscretions committed over the pourparlers in London."

This unmeasured admission that Germany can mark the time and tune for the European concert is evidently made as an outlet for France's temporary disgust with her British and Russian friends. She recognizes that Germany has weapons to make herself as effective as she did on the eve of the Algeiras conference.

MARRIAGE NO JOKE.

Two Young People Find Themselves Tied But Didn't Mean It. (By Leased Wire to The Times.) Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 16—As a result of a "make believe" wedding, celebrated here as a joke, two young people find themselves man and wife, while both are yet engaged to be married to others.

At the marriage of Miss Sarah Masser and Mr. Joseph Crawford, solemnized here on Wednesday evening were Miss Maude Eichelberger, daughter of a prominent Lewisburg hotel proprietor, and Mr. Arthur B. Orr, son of a Pennsylvania Railroad official, at Pittsburg. During the pranks played by members of the bridal party Mr. Orr and Miss Janet Houtz, of Phillipsburg, were jesting about marriage and planned what was thought to be a big joke. The couple went to the court house and took out a marriage license in the regular form. Orr giving his right name, while Miss Houtz gave her name as Matilda Smith.

Later the sensation came when Miss Eichelberger took the place of Miss Houtz and agreed to go through the wedding ceremony with Orr, both firmly believing that as an assumed name had been given for the prospective bride the joke would then be complete. The ceremony was accordingly performed by Justice of the Peace Shipman, and now the couple have found that they are legally married.

BALLOONS STILL MISSING.

Were Lost in Endurance Race—Boats Searching For Them. (By Cable to The Times) Berlin, Oct. 16—No word has been received from the missing balloons Hergesell and Plauen, which started in the endurance race on Monday. Fourteen German torpedo boats and three English cruisers are scouring the North Sea in search of the missing balloons.

The derelict balloon St. Louis has been picked up by a Grimsby trawler. Big Elevator on Fire. (By Leased Wire to The Times) Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 16—The mill and elevators of the Northwestern Consolidated Milling Company, one of the largest in the country, is on fire. Calls for the entire fire department of the city have been sent in.

CLEAR THE COMPLEXION OVERNIGHT.

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago posam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use posam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Raleigh at the King-Crowell Drug Co., and other leading drug stores. Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories, 25 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.

State of New York Will Not Let Thaw Go Easily

Colonel Gardiner, Assistant Attorney-General, Will Appear in Court to Fight Against Removing Thaw to Pittsburg—Thaw Had Thought His Case Won—Interesting Legal Tangle.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

New York, Oct. 16—The state of New York will fight the removal of Harry K. Thaw from the Matteawan insane asylum to Pittsburg.

Thaw had regarded his flight as practically won, and he expected to go to his old home next Sunday evening to appear in the bankruptcy proceedings in the federal court on Monday. This was after a writ of habeas corpus had been served on Dr. Robert T. Lamb, superintendent of Matteawan requiring him to produce Stanford White's slayer in Pittsburg at that time. The upset in the plan came in the announcement of Deputy Assistant Attorney-General Asa Bird Gardiner that he would appear on Monday to argue against taking Thaw out of jurisdiction of the state of New York. It has been rumored since the beginning of the proceedings in Pittsburg that it was merely a subterfuge to get Thaw away from the jurisdiction of the authorities here. Several lawyers have given it as their opinion that Thaw cannot be brought back if he refuses to return after reaching Pennsylvania. The writ signed by United States District Court Judge R. W. Archibald, now temporarily sitting in the United States circuit court of appeals in Philadelphia, calls for Thaw to be returned to Pittsburg for the purpose of testifying in the bankruptcy part of the United States district court. Incidentally there is a queer legal tangle over the issuance of the writ and intricacies of which Colonel Gardiner says he is not quite certain.

A fact which has not heretofore been made public is that Colonel Gardiner went before Judge Archibald at Scranton several days ago and there made motion which was granted by Judge Archibald in Philadelphia, setting aside the first writ and rule which was issued to call Thaw to Pittsburg to testify in the bankruptcy suit and which was drawn against Sheriff Charles M. Lane, of Westchester county. Thaw was no longer in the sheriff's custody and the plea was granted. Immediately after Dr. Baker was served with the writ he called upon Colonel Gardiner to inform him of its issuance. Dr. Baker said he would come immediately to New York from Matteawan and consult with Colonel Gardiner.

IOWA IN REPUBLICAN COLUMN.

Trained Political Experts See No Hope For Bryan in Iowa—Democratic Vote Will be Large.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Philadelphia, Oct. 16—Taking up the situation in the state of Ohio the two political experts sent out by the Press—James Henry, the Washington correspondent of that paper, and O. O. Stealey, the national capital correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal, gave their views in today's issue and these views seem to favor the republicans. Writing from Des Moines Mr. Henry says: "There is not the slightest danger of Iowa leaving the ranks of the republican states this year. Bryan's paper, The Commoner, sees a possibility of carrying the state for its owner this year, but democrats here will tell you that such visions are of the veriest rainbow type. The republican differences in Iowa were and still are acute over the United States senatorship and control of the party affairs, but a diligent inquiry among representatives of all factions show that they are united in the support of Judge Taft. No one, however, expects the landslide majority of two years ago, when the democrats let the state go by default."

Mr. Stealey, also writing from the capital of the state, sees things a little differently, for he says: "It would take a tidal wave like the one of 1874 to carry Iowa for Mr. Bryan, yet it can be expected. The normal republican majority of this state is 70,000, though Mr. Roosevelt carried it in 1904 by 158,798. Then he did not receive any more votes than did McKinley the four years previous. The democratic leaders I have talked to here don't believe they can carry the state for Bryan, although they have hopes that the unexpected may happen. I have satisfied myself that the democratic vote for president will show a gain of 100,000 over four years ago."

Deputy Sheriff Goes Into Pullman and Serves Papers For $600,000 Damages Against The New York Publisher—Hearst Says He Had Offered to Accept Summons by Mail.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 16—Notwithstanding the fact that William Randolph Hearst had offered to accept service by mail in the damage suit threatened by Governor C. N. Haskell and had furthermore agreed to supply any deficiency of funds that Haskell needed, in order that he might speedily bring the suit, Deputy Sheriff Stewart, acting for Smyth & Smyth, Omaha attorneys, broke into Mr. Hearst's stateroom on the Union Pacific train last night and served papers of a $600,000 suit filed long after the court-house had been closed. Concerning the action Mr. Hearst said: "When Mr. Haskell first declared several weeks ago that he was going to sue me he declared he was unable to raise the necessary money. At that time I offered to supply any deficiency that he might need to bring the suit. When he stated that he could not find me to serve me, I said I would accept service if the summonses were merely mailed to my address. Mr. Haskell adopted the sensational method of breaking into my sleeping-rooms to serve the summons, but he did not adopt the sincere method of setting the trial before the election. I am called to answer on November 16, 1908. I reiterate all that I have said of Mr. Haskell and all that he has proved by his resignation as national treasurer. I don't believe that this case will ever come to trial and I defy him to bring it to trial long enough before November 3 for his true character to be thoroughly exposed in court."

It seems as if Murphy and a companion by the name of Jordan were in the house of one May Shepard and owing to the drunken condition of Murphy they were asked to leave, when Murphy refused to go and drew his knife. There were only four occupants of the house, i. e.: Murphy, Jordan, and the two women, May Shepard and Alice Crowder, who did the shooting. The Crowder woman was placed under arrest and now occupies a cell in the city toms, where she is being held for further developments. This morning the following interview was given out by her attorney, Mr. Chas. U. Harris. Jack Murphy was in the house this morning about 2:30 o'clock, drunk and in a very disagreeable mood, and when he was asked to leave by the landlady, May Shepard, he refused, and drew his knife. The woman says she left the parlor and went into her room and secured her pistol and returned to where they were. Upon her return, Murphy, with his knife drawn, advanced toward her and said he was going to cut her d—throat from ear to ear, then she shot. The ball entered the bridge of the nose and ranged down and around by the right ear. Latest reports from Rex Hospital convey the information that the wounded man is in a serious condition. He is conscious and seems to be holding his own.

WAKE FOREST NEWS.

Dr. Potat Returns From Greensboro Centennial—Senior Speaking Postponed—Prof. Highsmith on Speaking Tour.

Wake Forest, Oct. 16—Dr. Potat returned last night from Greensboro, where Sunday, in the First Baptist church, on the occasion of the opening exercises of the Centennial of the city he made an address on "Christianity and the Social Order." On Wednesday afternoon he made an address before the North Carolina Peace Society. At their last session the faculty elected Dr. Charles F. Akeed pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church of New York, the orator for the next commencement. President Potat has received his acceptance. Dr. Akeed is considered by some the most brilliant platform orator of the day. The fall session speaking, at which six representatives of the senior class deliver original addresses, has been postponed from Friday night, 16th, to a later date. His friends have been pleased to note the election of Dr. Benjamin F. Stedd as first vice-president of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association. He is likewise a member of the committee of award in the case of the Patterson cup. Prof. Highsmith left Wednesday for Wallace, where he has engagements to speak before the Wilmington Baptist Association on education, and thence to Rocky Mount to deliver an address before the Roanoke Baptist Association on the same subject.

Smoke Stops Navigation. Sault Ste Marie, Mich., Oct. 16—Forest fires are again raging around this city, and early this morning appeared at the city limits. For some time they threatened the dynamite warehouse of the Soo Hardware Company, but the structure was finally saved by heroic work of the firemen who worked in constant danger of a terrible explosion. The fires are worse than those of several weeks ago, and the town of Brimley is being wiped out and several others are in danger. There is no sign of rain to relieve the situation. The smoke over the St. Mary's river is so thick that navigation has been given up.

C., son of the secretary of the interior; Kenneth Montague, San Francisco; Fred Andrews, New York; Henry Fowles, Pittsburg. Garfield is suspended for three weeks and the others for six weeks.

SHOT IN EAST RALEIGH

Jack Murphy Shot by Alice Crowder

Jack Murphy, Drunk and Disorderly, Shot by a Resident of the "Red Light" District—Woman Claims It Was Done in Self-Defense—Murphy in Rex Hospital.

In a drunken disturbance early this morning in a house of ill-repute, on East Davie street, Jack Murphy, of Raleigh, was shot by one of the inmates of the house, and now lies in a serious condition in Rex Hospital where he was immediately taken after the affair.

It seems as if Murphy and a companion by the name of Jordan were in the house of one May Shepard and owing to the drunken condition of Murphy they were asked to leave, when Murphy refused to go and drew his knife. There were only four occupants of the house, i. e.: Murphy, Jordan, and the two women, May Shepard and Alice Crowder, who did the shooting. STRIKE BROKEN SAYS OFFICIAL

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 16—Fifty strike-breakers, the advance guard of a large army that is to be brought to this city by the officials of the Taxicab Company to take the places of the striking chauffeurs, arrived in this city today, over the Pennsylvania Railroad, from Philadelphia, and were taken to the taxicab garage at 12 West 62d street. The men will be given cars during the course of the day and under protection of guards will attempt to drive them through the streets. "We have broken the strike," said an official of the company, "and before night we expect to have most of the cars out on the street." The striking drivers, however, declare that this statement is only a ruse on the part of the company and to a man declare that they will not return until the company agrees to abide by their ultimatum.
