

DRIVEN FOR HOURS IN BOAT

Two Men Suffer From Terrible Exposure and One Dies

OTHER WAS CRAZED

Charles Pringle, a brother-in-law of Ralph W. Pike, dies from exposure—His companion suffers terribly, but is rescued in time to save his life—The two men had gone out in small skiff and were driven out of their course by the wind.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New York, Oct. 21—Driven about for hours in a wave-swept skiff off New Haven breakwater and chilled to the bone by the cold wind, Chas. Pringle, brother-in-law of Ralph W. Pike, a member of the public service commission and Howard B. Welsh, both of West Haven, Conn., were picked up early today by the Richard Peck, of the New Haven Steamship Company, bound for New York. Pringle died a few moments after having been rescued.

Welsh was half crazed when rescued. He was rational by the time the Peck reached this port, however, and told a terrible story of exposure and a bitter five-hour fight for life against cold, wind and waves. The two men had rowed over to the northside of the bay yesterday morning and had bought during the day a lot of second-hand furniture. They rented a flat-bottom boat and in the evening started to tow their purchase back to West Haven. The wind began to rise shortly after they put out. It blew more violently every minute, but by the time they realized that their situation was becoming dangerous they had been blown out of their course and had lost their way.

HAINS BROTHERS CASE.

Arraignment Adjourned Today Until Next Monday, on Objection of Counsel.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New York, Oct. 21—The arraignment of Captain Peter Conover Hains, slayer of William E. Annis, and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, was again adjourned today, after John McIntyre, counsel for the brothers, demurred to the double indictment against T. Jenkins Hains. The brothers were taken to the supreme court in Flushing for arraignment before Justice Garretson. Mr. McIntyre first moved to be allowed to inspect the minutes of the grand jury. This was denied and he then demurred to the indictment against T. Jenkins Hains.

He argued that the first count, charging T. Jenkins Hains with murder in the first degree in having actually used a deadly weapon against Annis, but second count, charging him with aiding and abetting the crime, were inconsistent. District Attorney Darrin argued against the demurrer. Justice Garretson ordered both lawyers to submit briefs Friday and he will render a decision on Monday, when the brothers will be again arraigned.

STEALS RATHER THAN LEAVE FAMILY IN POVERTY

(By Cable to The Times)
Havana, Oct. 21—La Lucha says that Miguel De La Torre, who was on Monday accused of theft by Gov. Magoon, stole $195,000 from the treasury for his daughter, having placed the money safely where the government cannot recover it. La Lucha adds that De La Torre has an incurable cancer of the stomach and does not care what the result of his act may be, having but a short time to live. Lately he lost all his capital and preferred to steal from the treasury rather than leave his family in poverty.

Fires in West Virginia

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 21—A terrific forest fire is sweeping over a large area near Decker station, six miles west of Woodsfield, Ohio, in Monroe county, and as water is scarce the loss will be enormous. Woodsfield is so smoky today that pedestrians could hardly be seen across the street. Much anxiety is felt as to the outcome of the fire, as it is in the heart of the oil territory, which, it is feared, will be swept clean of tanks and derricks.

RAINS NEEDED TO STOP FIRES

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 21—Hundredes of residents in this district who have been fighting forest fires today are depending upon showers, predicted for last night, to give relief. A forty-five mile gale spread the fires in all directions. It is reported that Sugar Island, which has a population of 1,000, is ablaze almost from end to end. Near Detroit, sixteen miles have been burned over. Gladys, Eckerman, Shell-drako and White Fish Point are surrounded. Brimley had a narrow-escape yesterday, but the fires were driven back after one building in the village was destroyed.

GIRL BECOMES RAVING MANIAC.

Kills Her Sweetheart and Then Goes Insane—Takes Combined Efforts of Two Men to Manage Her.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New York, Oct. 21—Nellie Waldron, who shot and killed her former sweetheart, Edward McDonald, in his home, at 115 Green Point Avenue, Green Point, is a raving maniac today. While being transferred from the eastern district hospital to the Kings county hospital she broke away from a policeman and an ambulance surgeon and darted down the street. She was caught after a chase of about two blocks, but fought like a tigress. Finally she had to be taken in a straight jacket and was placed away raving wildly. Although she is but a frail girl, it took the combined efforts of the policeman and ambulance surgeon to get her back to the ambulance. Upon her arrival at the hospital it was necessary to administer opiates to her to quiet her cries. The physicians say she is hopelessly insane.

Rooseveltism and Future Life.

Shelburne Falls, Mass., Oct. 20—The Sunday school Forum of the Congregational church discussed today the somewhat startling topic, "Is a future life necessary to adjust the inequalities of this life that a Roosevelt 'square deal' seems to require?" "Dood head," remarked a horse-loving deacon, contentiously when asked the outcome of the discussion.

BOXING BOUT WITH M'FARLAND

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New York, Oct. 21—Leach Cross will get a try-out tonight when he meets Packey McFarland and the result of the bout will determine just how much championship material there is in his make-up. Packey is the class. He has experience and he has never been beaten. Cross has. But he had his colors lowered when he was a mere stripling. He met the men again who beat him and in most cases defeated them decisively. McFarland went along in wildfire fashion until he met Freddie Welch. Two long fights failed to give him an advantage. Up to this time Packey was looked upon as nearly invincible. Welch, Bert Keyes and Young Loughrey are the best men he has met. Cross has fought both Keyes and Loughrey. McFarland's great stock in trade is his speed. He fights like a wild cat and he never stops going.

ELECTRICIAN KILLED.

Was Painting Switchboard, When His Brush Came in Contact With Live Terminal.

Gaffney, S. C., Oct. 21—Mr. N. K. Streeter, a young electrician, lost his life this morning while painting a switchboard at the Gaffney Manufacturing Company, where he has been engaged in putting in the wires for the power from the Dravo works on Broad river. His brush came into contact with a live terminal when at least 2,300 volts of electricity were sent coursing through his system. He only lived about five minutes after the accident. Dr. Pitman, who examined him after death, said that his heart was probably weak. Mr. Streeter has only been in Gaffney about two months, but he was a genial, whole-souled young fellow, and was well liked by all who knew him. He came here from Michigan, but has people in Asheville who have been communicated with. The remains were taken in charge by Messrs. Shuford & LeMaster, undertakers, awaiting instructions from his relatives.

A SUMMARY OF POLITICAL NEWS

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New York, Oct. 21—The venerable John Bigelow sent a letter to a meeting addressed by Messrs. Harmon, Francis and Herbert, of President Cleveland's cabinet in which he said there was need of an effective opposition to the republican party, denounced a high tariff, and said no man was ever born who was fit to be intrusted with absolute power and said President Roosevelt had "imposed" Mr. Taft's candidacy on the republican party. Mr. Bryan, after making fifteen speeches in Indiana to large crowds, made five speeches at night in Louisville where he was enthusiastically welcomed. He again declared that "the purchase of votes" by the republicans is now contemplated wherever a purchasable voter can be found, demanded that the republican congressional campaign committee say whether it would make public its receipts, intimating that money "too much tainted" for the republican national committee to accept was being diverted to "the blind pool" of the congressional committee. He called the high tariff a panic breeder, saying all the panics of the last 48 years had been under high tariffs.

Mr. Kern, in Syracuse, said commercialism had corrupted public opinion and press just as slavery had, and that unless the predatory interests were curbed national ruin was inevitable. Mr. Taft, tired by a strenuous day's campaigning in Maryland and West Virginia, will rest today and start out tonight for a tour of Indiana. He received many invitations to speak in Ohio today but closed each refusal with the words: "This is final." He talked on labor, bank guarantees and the Philippines, saying: "I cannot escape the deliberate judgment that Providence thrust those people on us as a great wealthy nation, able to bear the burden, generous enough to carry it, altruistic enough to believe that in the doing of good is all the reward that we can ask." Mr. Sherman and Senator Knox spoke in Philadelphia. Mr. Sherman talked of what it would be possible for Mr. Bryan to do, if president, to overthrow the gold standard. "If President Roosevelt speaks at all in this campaign it is reported that it will be as a speaking to be presided over by Elhu Root in Carnegie Hall on Friday, October 30. Chairman Frank Hitchcock will go to Chicago either today or tomorrow. Mr. Hitchcock is very enthusiastic over the outlook of the campaign.
