Morse Thrashes Photographer. It took the jury, several of whom are engaged in the banking and brokerage business, almost 27 hours to find a verdict. Before dismissing them Judge Hough complimented them on the manner in which they had done their duty.

Morse, while awaiting the verdict, thrashed a photographer on Broadway during his walk from the federal court to the Astor House for luncheon. He smashed the man's camera also.

Morse, the multi-millionaire trust promoter, formerly ice king and owner of a chain of banks in this city, did not move a muscle as the foreman of the jury pronounced his doom. He leaned back in his chair at counsel's table, in the position he had taken when the room was set for the final entrance of the jurors.

The nearest he came to expressing any emotion was when his wife ran to him as he was about to be led away to the Tombs, and throwing her arms around him, kissed him.

Immediately after they had been dismissed the jurors hastened to their homes which some of them had not seen for more than three weeks.

his shoulder, shrieked his name and became hysterical. It was feared he would collapse. Court attendants gently separated them and led Mrs. Carroll to the judge's chambers, while Curtis, with Morse, was taken to the marshal's office, whence they were removed to the Tombs.

Mrs. Curtis, who had attended the trial daily since it was opened three weeks ago yesterday, was not in court when the verdict was pronounced. She had collapsed on Wednesday, after hearing the judge's charge. She recovered sufficiently to go to the court-room, but although she made a brave effort to remain, her strength was unequal to the task, and she broke down again. She was taken back home. In her home it was said she was prostrated and that grave fears for her were entertained.

Mrs. Morse, a beautiful woman named Mrs. Manken, a friend, and Harry Morse, the youngest of Morse's three sons, were in court when the jury returned with their verdict. Young Morse, who is a student at Princeton, is only about 18 years old. He is a very bright, good-looking boy, and evidently very fond of his father. Young Morse watched his father intently all the time the foreman of the jury was uttering the fatal words. The drawn look on his face showed how he suffered as he realized the meaning of them and what they meant to his father.

Immediately after they had been dismissed the jurors hastened to their homes which some of them had not seen for more than three weeks.

BANQUET TO WRIGHT WILL GRAHAM GUILTY

Five Hundred Leaders of Concord Rapist Confesses his Aviation Present Crime

In Recognition of His Achievements in Aerial Navigation, the President of the Club Presents Wilbur Wright With a Gold Medal.

(By Cable to The Times) Paris, Nov. 6.—A banquet in honor of Wilbur Wright, at which M. Barthou, minister of public works, presided, was given last night by the Aero Club in the hall of the automobile club in the Place De La Concorde, which is the largest club house in Paris. Among the 500 guests were all the leaders and patrons of aviation, including De La Grange, Bleriot, Kapferer, Zens, Count De La Vaulx, Marquis De Dion and Santos Dumont.

The president of the club presented a gold medal to Mr. Wright in recognition of his achievements in aerial navigation. M. Barthou, in proposing the health of Mr. Wright, described him as the ideal of enterprise, intelligence, tenacity and modesty.

Mr. Wright, in the first public speech of his life, said he had shared in the passionate idea, held for thousands of years, that man should move freely in regions where obstacles did not exist. He told his brother Orville seven years ago that man must be flying before fifty years elapsed, and he added, in two years we were flying ourselves. We see far enough today to know that our future will be glorious.

It was announced that the government had granted M. Barthou $20,000 as a state appropriation for the encouragement of aviation.

WIDOW SUES FOR ESTATE.

Legal Fight Begun by Widow of J. H. Veit to Secure Share in Property.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, Nov. 6.—A legal fight was begun today to secure for Mrs. J. Nelson Veit, the beautiful and mysterious young widow of the wealthy stock broker who committed suicide after shooting his mother, Bertha Nelson Veit, in the Totei Ansonia election night, a share in his estate.

Daniel Mason, of No. 55 William street, has been retained as counsel for young Mrs. Veit. He had a long consultation with his client in her apartments at the Hotel Chatsworth last night. Today he said to a reporter:

"I was called into the case only yesterday and have not had time to familiarize myself with it. I talked with Mrs. Veit last night and found her to be a most estimable young woman. I cannot say anything more at present."

Young Mrs. Veit was greatly disturbed at the secret burial of her husband and his mother, from which she was excluded.

Tried, Found Guilty and Sentenced to be Hanged Before Noon Today. Will be Hanged December 18th. Best of Order Prevailed Throughout Trial.

(Special to The Times) Concord, N. C., Nov. 6.—Will Graham, on his own confession, is a rapist and under sentence of death. Before noon today the trial was over, a verdict of "guilty" had been returned and Graham was sentenced to be hanged on Friday, the 18th day of December.

Graham confessed to two colored prisoners last night and on their evidence today the case came to an ending. The best of order was maintained throughout and perfect satisfaction follows:

The negro committed the horrible crime for which he is to hang October 13th. He was captured shortly after and brought before the girl whom he had outraged. She failed to recognize in the prisoner the man who had attacked her. Circumstantial evidence was strong against the man and the officers did not release him. He was put in jail at Salisbury, later moved to Charlotte, and on or about October 17 he was brought to Raleigh and put in the state penitentiary.

Feeling was high against the negro in Cabarrus county and threats of lynching were made. At the request of Solicitor Clarkson, Judge Ferguson, and others, Governor Glenn ordered the negro sent to Concord under military guard. Capt. W. F. Moody and Company B, Third Regiment, carried the negro to Concord, leaving here at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, November 4th.

Pou for congress received 2059, Briggs 485.

BOTH SIDES WILL MAKE APOLOGIES

(By Cable to The Times)

Paris, Nov. 6.—It became known today that France and Germany are both prepared to declare it regrettable that their accredited agents should have been subjected to violence in neutral territory. France says she regrets that her soldiers should have attacked a German consular agent and Germany expresses regret that her agent should have exceeded his powers.

On the foregoing basis both powers agree to arbitrate questions of fact and law arising from the seizure of the deserters from the foreign legion at Casa Blanca.

The attitude of the French government toward Germany was spunky to the end. It declined to be bluff by the kaiser.

You! Dyspeptics Read

What An Eminent Medical Man Says Dyspepsia Really Is. Then Gain Hope. "This affection called Dyspepsia, is the greatest torment of civilized life, and is to be considered rather as an unnatural functional difficulty than as a structural disease." The same authority has classified dyspepsia thus: The first form due to relations with other organs which are in a morbid and unhealthy state, which is characterized as a reflex action. Of such a type as the nausea and vomiting caused by irritation of brain, lungs, liver or uterus. The second form is caused by scanty supply of gastric juice, made evident by slowness of digestion, long retention of food in the stomach, distress for a long time after meals, accompanied by weighty and uneasy feelings at pit of stomach, decomposition of food in alimentary canal causing fetid acid fœtal gases and the appearance of undigested food in the evacuations from bowels. The third and last form of dyspepsia, according to this renowned medical light, is that which accompanies some abnormal quality of the gastric juice, combined with a partial paralysis of the stomach's muscles so that this organ cannot sufficiently mix the food with the digestive fluids. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will remedy each condition as above described. These tablets contain digestive agents which act with or without the aid of the stomach. One grain of an ingredient used in these tablets will digest 1,000 grains of food, and if necessary will do it in a glass vial so that the digestion can be seen by the human eye. They help the stomach, enrich the blood, revitalize the gastric juices, give strength to the alimentary nerves and glands. They are recommended by every druggist and 40,000 physicians who use and prescribe them. Get a box today from any drug store; price 50c.; or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

STEAM REPLACED BY ELECTRICITY

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 6.—The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company has been awarded a contract for electrical equipment which will run into millions by the New York Central Railroad Company. The contract is for a portion of the suburban division of the system where it is the intention to replace steam with electricity. It is estimated that will take from six to eight months to turn out the equipment at the East Pittsburg works. The order means that the works will be put on full time. It is understood that the order was awarded to the Westinghouse interests after a sharp competitive battle with the General Electric Company, of Schenectady, N. Y., who are located right on the lines of the New York Central.

FOR PIMPLES, TOO.

New Discovery Cures Eczema and Eradicates Minor Skin Troubles Overnight. A few months ago the dispensers of poslam, the new discovery for the cure of eczema, decided to allow the druggists of the country to handle it. Previous to that time it could only be obtained direct from the laboratories.

Since this change in the method of distribution, poslam has met with the most phenomenal success of anything introduced to the drug trade in the last 30 years. All leading druggists, including the King-Crowell Drug Co., Raleigh, are now carrying the special 50-cent size recently adopted, also the $2 jar.

This great success is not surprising when it is remembered that, in eczema cases, poslam stops the itching with the first application, proceeds to heal immediately, and cures chronic cases in a few weeks. In minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, acne, herpes, blotches, rash, etc., results show after an overnight application. Experimental samples of poslam are sent to anyone by mail free of charge, by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.
