Kellogg Traps Rockefeller

 three years later. W. G. Warden also became a stockholder about three years later. Mr. Lockhart became a stockholder of the Standard Oil about the same time.
 "Did not C. W. Watson, who was a stockholder in the Southern Improvement Company become a stockholder of the Standard Oil about 1875?"
 "I cannot recall."
 "You changed your charter in 1875 and increased the capital stock from $2,500,000 to $3,500,000?"
 "We did."
 "Did O. F. Waring become a stockholder?"

"I do not think so."
 "How many railroad men did they give as stockholders?"
 "I cannot say. Wouldn't the paper show?"
 "Was not W. H. Vanderbilt a stockholder subsequent to 1875?"
 "I cannot state whether he was or not."
 "Was Mr. Stone, president of the Lakeshore Railroad, a director?"
 "I do not know."
 "Mr. Rockefeller brought out the fact that up to 1873 three directors of the Lakeshore Railroad, the president of the New York Central, the president of the Erie Railroad and shortly after 1872, all of the stockholders of the Southern Improvement Company except three were either officials or local stockholders in the Standard Oil Company."

"You stated, I believe, that there were about a dozen concerns which you brought up in the early days," said Mr. Kellogg.
 Mr. Rockefeller read a list of a score or more firms, some large and some small. In each case he asked Mr. Rockefeller if he remembered the requirement of them by the Standard Oil Company. The oil king acknowledged most of them, but several he declared, he could not recall. He said:
 "If you could give me the names of the men at the head of the firms I could tell you better. I could refresh my memory in that way."
 "Then it is a fact that you did buy out 20 or perhaps 25 separate concerns in Cleveland in 1875 or '76?"
 "I could not state the number."
 "Of all these concerns you bought, how many did you keep in operation?"
 Mr. Rockefeller said that he could not remember that any of the plants outside of the Palm refinery at Cleveland had remained in operation after their acquisition by the Standard.
 Mr. Rockefeller said he could not remember the details of the transaction whereby the Devereaux Manufacturing Company, of Cleveland, the Imperial Refining Company of Oil City, Pa., or Chess, Carley & Company of Louisville, Ky., were acquired by the Standard Oil Company, but thought these concerns had been purchased by acquiring their stocks and retaining the heads of these corporations in the employ of the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Rockefeller said he was not familiar with the legal business of the company.

S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF CATARRH

Catarrh is a blood disease which causes a general inflammation of the inner linings or mucous membranes of the body. The diseasing of these delicate surfaces and tissues produces all the well known symptoms of the trouble, such as ringing noises in the head and ears, tight, stuffy feeling in the nose, pains above the eyes, irritation of the throat, sometimes slight fever, and a general feeling of weakness and ill health. Even the lungs become affected by the continual passage of impure blood through them, and there is danger of consumption if the disease is allowed to remain in the system. S. S. S. cures Catarrh because it purifies the blood. It goes into the circulation and removes every particle of the catarrhal matter, making this vital fluid pure, rich and healthy. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, every symptom disappears, the constitution is built up and health restored. S. S. S. rides the system of catarrh by attacking the trouble at its head and entirely removing the cause from the blood, thus making a permanent and lasting cure. S. S. S. is made entirely from health-giving roots, herbs and barks, and for this reason is an especially safe and desirable medicine. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

Atlantic Refining Company?

"They were the largest, if not the entire owners. It was the largest refinery in Philadelphia."
 "You got the stock?"
 "We got all there was to get."
 "And took Worden, Frew & Co. as Standard Oil stockholders?"
 "Yes."
 "Did you exchange stock with them?"
 "I cannot say."
 "Did you buy the property of the company or its stock? You must know whether the deal called for property or stock."
 "The details were left to the lawyers."
 "The company was operated as an independent company all these years?"
 "Yes. There may have been changes on account of death—such changes there were."
 "For this property of Charles Pratt & Co.—Oh, the Standard Oil Company was located at Pittsburg?"
 "Yes; I think it was a corporation controlled by Major Frew and Charles Lockhart. Mr. Worden may also have been connected—may have had an interest in it."
 "You bought the stock of the Standard Oil Company of Pittsburg?"
 "We did the same thing as we did in regard to the other transactions."
 "You mean you bought the stock or the property?"
 "I cannot state as to the legal bearing. We bought all."
 "The three concerns—did you take them on their valuation?"
 "Yes; the properties were estimated fairly and we came to a direct understanding."
 "The same in regard to the Pittsburg Company?"
 "I have said before that the whole transaction was one. These gentlemen owned all of the last-named interests—Major Frew and Charles Lockhart were the chief administrators."
 "You testified also as to the business of Warner & Moreland, and of Bennett, Warner & Co?"
 "I think I did."
 "Do you remember Easterly & Davis?"
 "I remember some such concern in Titusville."
 "I understood you to say that you organized the Acme Oil Company out of the Warner-Morelands and Bennett-Warner Company?"
 "Yes."
 "Then your concern did not buy the Bennett-Warner Company and the other company?"
 "I think that came afterward. They were first purchased by the Acme Company."
 "Do you remember looking up what Archbold testified to before the Hepburn committee on October 15, 1899?"
 "I do not recall."
 "The Atlantic Refining Company continued to hold the property, and Worden, Frew & Co. continued to manage it, although the profits went to the Standard Oil Company?"
 "That is so."

TWO MEN SHOT.

Insane Man Kills Two Men—Says He Wanted Five.
 (By Leased Wire to The Times)
 Carlyle, Ill., Nov. 23—Allie Alton, aged 25, shot John L. Edwards, aged 50, and George Walker, aged 35, at their homes near Boulder yesterday. Both are in a critical condition. Alton, when placed in jail, said:
 "I wanted to kill five men but I only got two." He had been in an insane asylum once, but was never considered dangerous. Several months ago Walker worried him in a law suit Edwards was holding his property as trustee to keep him from squandering it. He imagined his guardian was not giving him a square deal.

AN ITCHING PALM.

No Cure for It. Other Forms of Itching Preferable.
 There is no cure for an itching palm—the money kind. Even possum, the new skin disease, cannot help it. But when it comes to eczema, the most annoying of itching skin troubles, possum will stop the itching at once and cure the worst cases in a few days. So with livers, rash, scabies, split toes, piles, and scaly scalp, all of which are different forms of eczema, accompanied by severe itching and caused by imperfect digestion and careless diet.
 Possum comes in two-dollar jars, but fifty cents' worth will answer in curing any of the diseases mentioned. It can be had of any druggist. The King-Crowell Drug Co. make a specialty of it.
 That results are immediate will be amply demonstrated overnight by the use of the experimental sample which the Emergency Laboratories, 22 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, will send free by mail, in plain wrapper, to any one who will write for it.

WOMEN FIGHT DEADLY DUEL

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
 Gainsville, Mo., Nov. 23—A duel to the death with knives was fought Saturday by Mrs. James Crabtree and Mrs. Frank Graham, sisters-in-law, in a lonely spot in the Ozark woods, southwest of Gainsville.
 Mrs. Graham's throat was cut, dying instantly, and Mrs. Crabtree is in custody. The place and hour were fixed, and the sisters-in-law met alone, according to appointment on a lonely mountain-side and fought out their duel.
 They had quarreled some days ago following a trivial dispute over family affairs and one challenged the other to meet her at the spot where the killing occurred.
 The two women were well-known in the community and the duel probably will result in further feuds.
 Mrs. Crabtree was cut about the face and shoulder, but her condition is not considered serious. Soon after her return home she was arrested. She will be held on a charge of murder.

DOUBLE SUICIDE.

Father and Daughter, Both Out of Work, Die Together.
 (By Leased Wire to The Times)
 New York, Nov. 23—Charles Walter, 75 years old, and his daughter, Emma, 40 years old, committed suicide yesterday in their apartment at 1021 Simpson street, the Bronx.
 Walter had been a tailor, but had been without work for sometime and had depended for support on his daughter, who was formerly a saleswoman in a downtown drygoods store, but who also had been out of work for the past two months.
 The odor of gas coming from the Walter apartment revealed the double tragedy.

Were Disturbing Public Worship When Officers Attempted to Arrest Them.
 (By Leased Wire to The Times)
 Owl City, Tenn., Nov. 23—While attempting to arrest three negroes who were disturbing public worship yesterday, Deputy Sheriff Hall and Richard Burns, whom he had deputized to assist him, were shot. Hall will die.
 The negroes escaped and a posse of 150 men, under the leadership of Sheriff Hains, started in pursuit. Last accounts stated that the negroes were surrounded in a thicket five miles east of here.
