

S.S.S. THE REMEDY FOR SORES AND ULCERS

The combination of healthful vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed, makes it an especially desirable and effective remedy in the treatment of sores and ulcers of every kind. Since an impure condition of the blood is responsible for the trouble, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a successful cure; and it should be a medicine that not only cleanses the circulation, but one that at the same time restores the blood to its normal, rich, nutritive condition. S. S. S. is just such a remedy. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing vegetable properties, extracted from nature's roots, herbs and barks of the forest and fields. It has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity in the blood. When S. S. S. has purified the circulation, and strengthened and enriched it, sores and ulcers heal readily and surely, because they are no longer fed and kept open by a continual discharge into them of irritating disease-laden matter from the blood. S. S. S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh by supplying it with rich, nourishing blood and makes a permanent and lasting cure. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice mailed free to all who write.

THE RECTOR RESIGNS

Gives up His Church in Richmond

Rev. Wythe Leigh Kinsolving Resigns From His Church Because of the Fight He Had With His Father-in-Law—Will Go to Texas, to His Brother's Diocese.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

Richmond, Va., Dec. 12.—Rev. Wythe Leigh Kinsolving, rector of Epiphany Episcopal church, Barton Heights, a suburb of Richmond, and brother of Right Rev. George H. Kinsolving, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Texas; Rev. Dr. Arthur Kinsolving, rector of Old St. Paul's church, Baltimore, and of Bishop Lucian Lee Kinsolving, of southern Brazil, resigned his charge today following a fist fight with his father-in-law, Rev. Dr. E. H. Pitt, editor-in-chief of the Religious Herald, the leading Baptist publication in the south. The encounter occurred in the home of Dr. Pitt and followed an alleged charge on his part to the effect that Kinsolving was suffering from a nervous disorder.

Rev. Wythe Leigh Kinsolving, famous through his family connections throughout the south, married Miss Annie Laurie Pitt something more than two years ago. Shortly before the marriage, while the couple were betrothed, Dr. Pitt was informed by an Episcopal clergyman that his prospective son-in-law had suffered from some nervous disorder. An investigation was made at the time, but Dr. Pitt came to the conclusion that if such had been the case the young man had entirely recovered.

Some two or three months ago, however, it became apparent, according to Dr. Pitt, that a recurrence of the malady was imminent. Not wishing to humiliate his son-in-law by a personal interview, he wrote to the elder Mrs. Kinsolving, who lives with her son, the bishop of Texas, asking her in regard to the report. In some way Kinsolving became aware of this correspondence.

Angered at the information received Mr. Kinsolving sought the Pitt home for an explanation. Dr. Pitt was not there and was telephoned. When he arrived he admitted that he was unduly excited, and upon hearing his son-in-law's demand for the name of the clergyman who had been the original informant, ordered him from the house. Kinsolving refused to go. Pitt then threatened to call an officer and have him arrested. Still Kinsolving refused to go. He was led to the door by Pitt, where the fight took place. Blows were exchanged, as a result of which Kinsolving carried away a scar over his eye. He was, however, finally ejected.

The father-in-law now regrets his action in allowing his temper to get the better of him. Kinsolving has resigned his church and will leave, with his wife, for the far south, presumably to some charge in the diocese of his brother in Texas.

The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Huffam, after which the convention was declared adjourned. The convention adjourned today to meet at Wadesboro next year.
