THE FIRST SNOWFALL

King's armies came hither,

They pitched their white tents far and They infested the town and riverside.

the hills and woodlands and Bore the marks of their hurrying foot-

And when early this morning with crimson face The great sun arose to begin his race, He turned on the earth his astonished

Till it shown as if strewn with rare

And as by my window musing I stood, Gazing out over lowland, river and I laughed, for each past had a fluffy

And each rail a fluffy white blanket. Not a vestige of roughness my eyes

For each blemish and scar on rude Nature's face soft, voiceless snow had come to

And to shroud it in garments celestial.

Then I thought to myself 'tis blessed to know lesson of charity taught by the Forgetting the faults of all creatures And love with endurance and patience.

So a gladsome message each white

While the wind tunes up his harp and sings

For the beautiful gifts of God's mercy -Roy Winchester.

Rev. Geo. J. Dowell, of Williamston, is visiting his sister, Mrs. D. G. Conn.

Mrs. R. H. Purvis has returned to Hamlet, after visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Jones Wahab, of New Bern, is visiting at the home of Mr. and, Mrs. E. N. Spencer. Mrs. R. L. Gray is visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. James C.

MacRae, at Chapel Hill. Mrs. J. L. Davis, of Neuse, has returned home, after a visit to her sister, dale and May Jones. Mrs. Sam Bell, on New Bern avenue.

Mrs. E. J. Best, of Columbia, S. C.,

W. McC. White,

Mr. and Mrs. Dan H. Yarborough, vited. of Commerce, Tex., have gone to Wilmington, after spending a few days with Mr. L. T. Yarborough, on Hillsboro street.

Miss Lina Kennedy is visiting her last evening and are guests at the home Zend-Avesta," by Miss Iden, with readof Dr. J. W. McGee.

have returned to Kinston, accompanied ture," by little Miss Frances Webb Miss Katherine Wharton, who is spending the winter with her grandfather, Mr. L. Banks Holt, at Graham, left today for Atlanta, after a visit to her mother, Mrs. John C. Drewry, in the city.

Bagwell-Schapperle. .

The marriage of Miss Bertha Schapperle and Mr. Lorenzo C. Bagwell will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:15 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harris, 621 Hillsboro street.

The country is flooded with soaps which look like, and claim to be "as good as," Ivory.

Avoid them!

They are imitations: and, like all imitations. they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the article which they imitate.

Ask for Ivory Soapand see that you get it.

Ivory Soap

ty today going to Goldsboro

T. M. Robertson, of High Point, d through the city today going otland Neck.

Mrs. T. J. Horton, of Zebulon, passed brough the city today returning home from Durham,

Miss Gertrude Royster returned home last evening from attending conference at Durham

Mrs. Henry Hicks returned to the city, today from Durham, where she attended conference

Miss Annie B. Duncan has returned m Durham, where the has been visiting Mrs. Jas. B. Mason.

Mrs. Cooper, of Henderson, stopped over in the city today with Mrs. Telfair, while on her way to Kinston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ballentine, of Fuquay, returned home today, after spending a few days in the city

Miss Sallie Eeagles, of Crist, N. C. is visiting her cousin, Mr. R. H. Bradlley.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Wilcox, of Zebulon, passed through the city today returning home from attending conference at Durham

There will be a short Christmas entertainment in the chapel of Peace Institute Thursday evening at 8 p. m.

Mrs. J. H. Paylor returned to the city today from a visit to her brother at Duke. She was accompanied by Miss Carrie Herndon, of Duke, who will be her guest.

Mrs. F. M. Shamburger returned to the city today from Durham, where she attended conference. Mr. Shamburger And my heart in gratitude upward has gone to see his father before returning home.

Christmas Bazaar.

The Christmas bazaar of the St. Mary's Guild will open, promptly at 8 o'clock tonight in the Guild rooms of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The bazaar will continue through Thursday. One of the most interesting features of the bazaar will be the Christmas tableaux from Dickens.

MISS MARY THOMPSON ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON

Miss Mary Cornelia Thompson entertained at luncheon today with the folowing young ladies as her guests: Misses May Montague, Mary Armistead Jones, Annie Duncan, Nell Hins-

Literary Meeting of League.

The literary meeting of the Central has gone to visit at LaGrange, after Epworth League will be held in the a visit to Miss Grace Deaton in this league room at 7:30 this evening. Miss Ada Womble, who has just returned from England and Scotland, will ad-Captain Patterson and daughter, Mrs. dress the league on her trip. There Bragg, of Petersburg, have returned will be vocal music by Miss Pool and home, after a visit to Rev. and Mrs. Mr. Furman Betts. Miss Frances Renfrow will give some of her delightful readings. The public is cordially in-

The Edenton Street Epworth League held an interesting literary meeting in the league room at 7:30 last evening. the subject being "Zoroastrism." The aunt in Washington City. She will meeting was well attended, as these also visit in Philadelphia and New studies the league is making of the of Halifax, Ark. Electric Bitters pur. Its membership now and Tar, as it soothes inflamed memgreat religions of the world, are prov- ify and enrich the blood, tone up the the country. Its membership now and Tar, as i soothes inflamed mem Rev. J. Marvin Culbreth and his sang several Persian songs, especially to the weak. Your money will be re- bers, with a surplus or emergency the cold from the system.—Kinging very interesting. Miss Nina Green nerves, and impart vigor and energy numbers a quarter of a million mem- branes, heals the lungs, and expels bride, who was Miss Bessie Trawick, suited to the subject. Several papers funded if it falls to help you. 59c, at fund of nearly $5,000,000. The Crowell Drug Co., Fayetteville and of Nashville, Tenn., arrived in the city were read. "Zoroastrism and the ings from the "Avesta" by Miss Bery Taylor; "The Parsees, or Present Day Col. and Mrs. W. D. Pollock and Followers of Zoroaster," by Miss Mary little daughter, Frances Pollock, after King. Miss Sarah Burkhead read a a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Webb, delightful paper on "Persian Literawith reading from "Omar Khayyam.

PERSOANLS

Col. W. B. Rodman, of Charlotte, is at the Giersch today. .

Hon. W. C. Newland, lieutenantgovernor-elect, spent the day in the Mr. D. M. Stringfield, of Manteo, was a visitor to the city today. Mr. F. L. Frierson, of Asheville, is topping at the Glersch. Mr. P. J. Olive, of Asbury, is in ity on business. Mr. Max Igio, of New York, is regisered at the Glersch. Col. H. C. Dockery, of Rockingham is at the Yarborough

Mr. F. E. Bradley, of Statesville, spent the day in the city. Mr. J. G. Hacket, of North Wilkes oro, was in the city today. Ex-Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson Goldsboro, is registered at the Yar-

Mr. W. W. Horne, of Fayetteville,

Mr. R. W. Massie, of Lynchburg, Va. s at the Yarborough. Mr. 8, Withowsky, of Charlotte, n the city on business.

Ex-Judge E. W. Timberlake, of

INNIVERSARY EXERCISE AT BUILTS CREEK ACADEMY

The following hystations have been

e at the 21st anniversary

17, 1908, Bule's Creek, N. C." Program. President-W. Caswell Ellis. Secretary—L. W. Smith.
Reciters—Miss Bessle Matthews,
Aeth.; Miss Pauline Bryan, Wash.;
Miss Mamie Shaw, Wash.; Miss Annie Bright, Aeth. Orators-W. S. Britt. Phi: J. E.

DEBATE Query-Resolved: That all legislar tion, both national and state, should be submitted to the people for their direct ratification.

Lanter, Eu.

Affirmative-D. J. Carter, Eu.; G. H. Petteway, Phi. Negative-C. M. Roberson, Phire G P. Wilson, Ett.

LOCAL BRIEFS

-Capt. O. B. Wynne, Co. G. Second Infantry, Washington, N. C., tendered his resignation to Adjutant General Robertson today. His resignation was accepted. -The friends of Mr. Garland Spence will be glad to learn that he has been promoted from the position of assistant paggage clerk to ticket agent for the Southern at the union depot. -Clem Jones, colored, was tried yes. terday afternoon before Justice Roberts for selling booze. The justice adjudged the action frivolous and mallolous and taxed the prosecutor, Ernest Bobbit, with the costs, $5.40.

-The two big Siberian wolves which will be used in the play, "Daniel Boone," tonight, were on exhibition topromptly. All interested are cordially day on the streets and attracted much attention. -The Capital City Telephone Company has kindly put their instrument in the Church of the Good Shepherd for the use of the ladies during their bazaar. Their phone number is 642. Hon, J. Gordon Hackett, of North Wilkesboro, chairman of the board of directors of the state penitentiary, is in the city today. -John Morton, a negro of Laurinburg, sentenced to 10 months on the roads for larceny, was pardoned yesterday. The witness on whose testimony Morton was convicted, recently retracted his statement, admitting that he lied.

WEAKER SEX ASSAULTED.

The Heavy-handed Representative of the Stronger Sex Fined in Police.

Court. Henry Davis, colored, strayed from he path of righteousness yesterday and in his fury lay heavy hands 'pon the "pusson" of one Annie Jones, also of a dusky complexion. The chastised maiden became very indignant at such angentlemanly conduct and appealed to the police department for redress of grievances. Davis appeared in court oday and received a lesson in etiquette which cost him seven and thirty-five hundredths of his hard-earned simo

W. H. Goode was given a premilin ary hearing yesterday afternoon upor the charge of larceny. The evidence seemed strong enough to show probable caused and Goode was bound over to court under a $50 bond. If was alleged that Goode misappropriated a pistol valued at $4.75 and $2 in specie, the property of E. T. Smith.

Medicine That is Medicine have now found a remedy that keeps Regent of the state, Mr. H. E., Bon- try to be on hand. me well, and that remedy is Electric itz, of Wilmington, will be present, Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for; and a banquei will be served. This stomach and liver troubles, and for run order is in a flourishing condition, may develop into pneumonia over night down conditions," says W. C. Kiestler, not only in this city, but throughout are quickly gured by Folor's Honey all druggists.

COMMISSION MEET.

Jamestown Exposition Commission Prepares Final Report.

Mr. Henry C. Dockery, of Rockingham; Mr. Geo. W. Hinshaw, of Winston-Salem, and Mr. Joseph E. Pogue. of Raleigh, composing the North Carolina Jamestown Exposition Commission, are here today preparing their final report to be submitted to the governor.

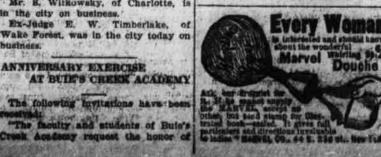

The report of the commission will show that the commissioners have done their work well. It is not believed that any other state fared as Blake, Wm. Taylor. well in the matter of financial loss at this exposition, as did this state. The three gentlemen above-named are sterling business men, and handled Robbins, Geo. T. Norwdod. the state's affairs as they handle their own, carefully and prudently.

FOUND A THUMB.

Human Thumb Picked Up in the Street Today. .

Mr. W. E. Fredd, of the Harris-Parkinson Company, today found a negro's thumb on West Hargett street. He, in company with some friends, was returning from a long walk over the western part of the city. The thumb he found near Mrs. was in the city on business.

Mr. Thos. 8. Rollins, of Asheville, Capell's boarding house, lying in in the city to attend the supreme plain view on the sidewalk. Mr. Fredd picked up the gruesome find and placed it is an envelope.

A swell lot of Ladies' Long Coats. A great reductions.

> $ 5.00 Coats $ 7.50 4.98 10.00 6.98 12.50 8.98 15.00 10.98

> > The Opposite Post Office.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Royal Arcanum Will Install Newly Will Meet Tonight at 8 O'clock

council in this city; Raleigh Council, is the largest in the state, having a membership of four hundred mem-

The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: Regent-John E. Ray. Vice-Regent-Herman Heller. Orator-Thos. C. Denson. Secretary-Henry J. Young. Collector-J. P. Wray. Treasurer-Thos. C. Powell. Chaplain-C. H. Ogden. Guide-A. S. Bragassa. Warden-Burke H. Little. Sentry-Fred G. Staudt.

Trustees-A. R. D. Johnson, T. W. Representatives to Grand Council -C. A. Johnson, T. S. Pearce. Alternate Representatives -W.

GOES TO ROADS.

Negro Fails to Pay Fine and Will Serve Fire Months For Selling Cocaine.

John Moore, the negro yesterday found guilty of selling cocaine and fined $10.00 and costs in two cases, was sent to the county roads today to work out the fine and costs. It means imprisonment for nearly five CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Elected Officers on Evening of | The Chamber of Commerce will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in its hall. At its regular meeting last hight Several interesting reports will be Raleigh Council No. 551 Royal Ar- read. The question of how to build canum held its election of officers for up Raleigh's jobbing trade will be the year 1909. The officers will be one topic for discussion. Secretary I have suffered a good deal with installed on the evening of January Olds is anxious to have a large atmalaria and stomach complaints, but I 11th, 1909, at which time the Grand tendance and asks that all members

Hargett streets,

Important Notice. For the information of patrons the public is notified that Durham & Southern local trains, No. 5, due to leave Durham 9:00 a. m., and No. 6, due to leave Dunn 8:40 a. m., will be annulled Christmas day, December 25, 1908, and New Year's Day, January 1, 1909. Perishable freights will not be accepted for movement on these dates.

Passenger trains No. 38 and 41 are not affected by this notice. S. H. ROAMS, Gen. Freight and Pas. Agt.

it may sare your life. Cathartics, bird shot and campon ball pills—tea spoon doses of cathartic medicines all depend on irritation of the bowels until they sweatenough to move: Canards strengthen the bowel muscles so they creep and crawl naturally. This means a cure and only through Cascards can you get it quickly and naturally.

We have the most popular brands in boxes of 25 and 50.

KING-CROWELL Drug Co Agents for Huyler's Candy.

Buy Sensible Xmas Presents

For Mother--

For Father-

For Sister--

For Sweetheart

Rocker. Sewing Table. China Case. Pedestal.

Morris Chair. Shaving Stand. Felt Mattress. Desk.

Brass Bed. Sewing Table. Desk.

Cheval Mirror LOTS OF PRETTY THINGS

-- Raleigh, N. C 127 Fayettéville St. -- OPEN AT NIGHT --

TOO EARLY?

Too early to be thinking about Christmas Gifts? Not a bit. The early purchaser is the one who gets the best values in Holiday.

Before the rush and confusion of the last weeks, now when the stores are full of new goods, attractively displayed, is the very best time to make selections.

Suitable gifts are to be found among our Watches, Jewelry Cut Glass, China, etc., all at prices bound to please. A word to the wise is sufficient. H. MAHLERS' SONS

We are now located in the Masonic Temple

FOURTH FLOOR.

and are prepared to do all kinds of work for either the face, head or hands, such as SHAMPOOING, MANICURING, AND HAIR DRESSING. ELECTRICAL FAC-IAL AND SCALP TREATMENT. We handle Hair Goods of every description. You are invited to visit our parlors.

MRS. GURLEY.

Hair Dressing

MISS GURLEY.

Manicuring

Raleigh, N. C

THE MASONIC TEMPLE

Going to Europe?

We sell Traveler's Checks in denominations $10.00 Available anywhere in the world without identification and no risk of loss.

THE COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK,

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, $200,000.00 B. S. JERMAN, Pres.; A. A. THOMPSON, Victories.; H. W. JACK-SON, Cashier; E. B. CROW, Assist. C ashier; J. J. Thomas, Chms Board of

Sweaters, for the Misses and Children. They have been placed on sale, Don't forget the sale of Coat Suits, Long Coats and Furs that we have on for this week; Yesterday was our banner day—we expect this to be a banner week. If you did not come yesterday or today we feel sure you will be in before the week is over. You can not afford to miss such an opportunity as this.

Masonic Temple RALEIGH, N. C.

WE ARE AGENTS FOR PHERLING PATTHENS

FEFFEFFF THE THE PARTY OF THE P