The privileges of the floor were granted ex-Representatives Boyd, of Haywood, and Britton, of Randolph.

Are doctors good for anything?

Foolish question! Yet some people act as if a medicine could take the place of a doctor! The best medicine in the world cannot do this. Have a family doctor, consult him frequently. If we did not believe doctors endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and colds, we would not offer it to you.

It was announced that Prof. T. Gilbert Pearson would lecture at Peace institute tonight on birds, and the members were invited to attend.

Colonel Argo Passes Away

ren, Rev. Hubbard, Thomas, Ruta, Laura, and two brothers, to mourn their loss.

It is with the deepest sorrow that he is given up, but there remains the consolation that we "sorrow not as others who have no hope." To the members of his family is extended the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral will be held from the Good Shepherd church, of which he was a devoted member, at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. The remains will be interred with Masonic honors.

Colonel Argo was a member of William G. Hill Lodge, No. 218.

In the additional biographical sketches of the North Carolina volume of Confederate Military History the following is said of the deceased:

"Lieutenant Thomas Monroe Argo, a prominent attorney of Raleigh, N. C., is a native of McMinnville, Tenn., born in 1844. He was educated at Chapel Hill and immediately upon his graduation by the university, in the spring of 1863, enlisted in the first North Carolina battalion of heavy artillery, and was commissioned second lieutenant by Governor Vance. During his service he engaged in several skirmishes on the coast and took part in the heroic defense of Fort Fisher. In the famous fight with the federal fleet in January, 1865, he endured all the sufferings of the gallant command of Colonel Lamb. The blood was forced from his ears and nose by the terrible concussion of the bombardment, and he was struck and slightly wounded by a fragment of shell. With the survivors of the fight he was captured, and from then until the latter part of March, 1865, was a prisoner of war at Governor's Island, N. Y. Though paroled he was not exchanged before the close of hostilities. He then entered upon the study of law at Chapel Hill, under William A. Battle, and being admitted to practice in 1867, embarked on his professional career at Chapel Hill. He took an active part in politics in the reconstruction period, and being elected to the legislature in 1868 from Orange county, served one term as a member of the judiciary committee. In 1872 he removed to Raleigh, where he has subsequently resided. From 1886 to 1891 he ably discharged the duties of solicitor of the metropolitan district, comprising the counties of Wake, Wayne, Johnson, and Harnett.

At a meeting of the Raleigh bar, held in the court house at 1 p. m., a committee was appointed to wait upon Mrs. Argo and express the sympathy of the bar in her bereavement and offer her any aid that the bar could lend her. Another committee was appointed to draw up suitable resolutions and report on the fifteenth of February. Mr. W. H. Lyon, of the firm of Douglas & Lyon, was authorized to procure a floral design.

Many kind words were said of their deceased brother, and it was easily observed that every member of the bar felt that the bar had suffered a keen loss.

The members of the Raleigh bar will attend the funeral services in a body.

PREACHER ON TRIAL.

Accused of Murdering a Brother Preacher and Succeeding him in Pastorate.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Suffolk, Va., Jan. 14—Accused of murdering the Rev. James Smith, a brother clergyman, to whose pastorate at Reeds Ferry he afterwards succeeded, the Rev. Ernest Lyons is on trial in Nansemond circuit court.

The state tried to prove that Smith, who boarded at Lyons' house, was intimate with Lyons' sister-in-law; that he was last seen alive July 31; that both preachers expected to leave next day for conference, and that Lyons accounted for Smith's disappearance by placing him at various times in Portsmouth, Newport News, Princess Anne county, and North Carolina.

FEET EXCITES TURKS

Four Battleships Are Now at Smyrna

Four Ships Have Arrived in Turkish Waters and More Are Coming. Expected That One of Sultan's Sons Will Come to America With the Squadron.

Constantinople, Jan. 14—Great excitement prevails among the Turks on account of the visit of the American fleet to Turkish waters. Four battleships are now at Smyrna and four more are coming.

Admiral Schroeder, second in command, is coming to Constantinople in the battleship Louisiana. One of the sultan's sons probably will go with the squadron to America, and it is regarded as certain that 30 Turkish officers will go.

The grand vizier, the naval minister, and naval circles generally are intensely interested in the visit of the fleet, as this will be the first occasion since the revolution when warships of a great power have entered Ottoman ports. The authorities are anxious to impress the visitors with the fact that they are thoroughly civilized now, and that Turkey is on the road to become one of the great naval powers of the world.

WILL NOT REPRESENT VIRGINIA

Harry H. Thurlow, of Buffalo, Captain of Track Team.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 14—That James Rector, America's premier sprinter, will not represent Virginia on the cinder track this year is now definitely decided. Harry H. Thurlow, of Buffalo, N. Y., was yesterday elected captain of the track team for the coming season, to succeed Rector. Thurlow is a member of the senior law class, and came to Virginia from Brown University.

Last season he ran the half mile, and was a member of the relay team which captured the southern championship.

It invigorates the vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion, strengthens appetite. To strengthen and build up thin, pale, weak children or run-down people it has no equal.
