It would surprise you to know how many manufacturers of furniture use Ivory Soap to give a finishing touch of beauty to the things they make.

This is the recipe: Dissolve one-fourth of a cake of Ivory Soap in boiling water. Add a pail of warm water, in which put two table-spoonfuls of kerosene. Stir thoroughly. Wash furniture with a soft cloth. Dry with another soft cloth.

Ivory Soap 99 1/2 Per Cent. Pure.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION.

Mrs. Ivan M. Proctor Entertained in Honor of Mrs. W. W. Kitchin and Mrs. John Arrington Kitchin.

Beginning the round of social events which will be given in honor of Mrs. W. W. Kitchin, and which will mark her entrance into the social life of the city, was the delightful "at home" given by Mrs. Ivan M. Proctor at her home on New Bern avenue yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. W. W. Kitchin and Mrs. John Arrington Kitchin.

There was a constant stream of guests during the hours for receiving, more than three hundred calling.

Misses William Proctor and Miss Louisa Shamburger received the cards at the door.

Receiving the guests in the hall were Miss Jennie Proctor, Mrs. J. P. Wray, Mrs. R. B. John and Mrs. B. P. Williamson.

Being shown into the coffee-room, which was presided over by Mrs. F. M. Shamburger, delicious sandwiches and coffee was served. Fine decorations of brilliant red and green made a striking effect.

Receiving in the parlor, which was charmingly decorated in pink, carnations being lavishly used, were Mrs. I. M. Proctor, Mrs. W. W. Kitchin, Mrs. John Arrington Kitchin, of Scotland Neck; Mrs. Charles McDowell, of Scotland Neck; Miss Gertrude Satterfield, Miss Mattie Satterfield, Mrs. John B. Day, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Plato Durham, of Concord, and Miss Jean Coltrane, of Concord.

The guests were ushered into the dining-room by Miss Bessie Brown. Presiding in the dining-room was Mrs. A. L. Sears. The decorations of green and white were charmingly effected with carnations, azaleas, palms and ferns. The same color scheme was carried out in the delicious refreshments.

Assisting in the dining-room and coffee-room were: Misses Myrtle Shamburger, Marshall Cole, Bessie Brown, Rosalind Williamson, Susie McGee, Sallie Haywood Battle, Elizabeth and Emily Marriott, Grace Rogers, Swannanoa Horne, Phyllis Woodall, Sue Kitchin and Evie Sears. During the afternoon Levin's Orchestra rendered delightful music.

Ferrell-Withers.

The following invitations have been received by a number of friends in the city:

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Withers request the honor of your presence at the wedding reception of their daughter, Lucile Devereaux, and

Dr. John Atkinson Ferrell, on the evening of Thursday, the twenty-eighth of January, from 8 until 11:30 o'clock, 712 East avenue, Charlotte, North Carolina. Enclosed cards read: "Ceremony at half after eight o'clock."

The invitation will be of interest in this city, where Miss Withers made many friends while a student at the Baptist University here. She graduated with the class of 1907, taking both an A. B. and an O. B. degree. Her friends wish her much happiness.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—The many friends of Mr. A. B. Stromper will regret to learn that he is confined to his home by illness.

—Governor Kitchin has been busy since his inauguration receiving visitors and shaking hands with his friends. Next week will find him quite busy in directing the affairs of state, etc.

—It is rumored that among the building improvements contemplated by the Grimes Realty Company is the erection of an apartment house on the property adjoining the Exchange Hotel on Hillsboro street.

—The assistant market inspector, Eldridge Smith, is out, after having been confined to his home for several days with an exceedingly painful sprained wrist. We may rest assured that the disagreeable weather will disappear now because Eldridge carries sunshine wherever he goes.

—It is reported on the streets today that in the light over the proposed new city charter a red vest will be worn by the opponents of the charter and a white vest will adorn the supporters of the charter. One of the city officials said today that he hadn't decided which vest he would wear.
