deprive the Audubon Society of much revenue.

Senator Gay, who introduced the bill, took the floor and declared that the present law worked a hardship on a large class and was inhospitable to the extreme.

Senator Travis moved to strike out the clause relative to guests hunting on the lands of his host and restrict the privilege to non-resident parents or children of residents.

S. B. 75: A bill to authorize treasurer of Swain county to pay claims according to their date.

S. B. 90: An act relative to road law in Thomasville township, Davidson county.

S. B. 298: To empower commissioners of Richmond county to hire convicts to other counties.

S. B. 138: Relative to laborers and mechanics liens. Passed its second reading.

S. B. 138: Relative to compensation for holding special terms or court, fixing the pay of judges at $100 per week.

Senator Fry opposed the measure on the ground that it worked a hardship on small counties.

Senator Elliott favored the bill. Senator Ray offered an amendment, giving the judge $10 a day for special term work.

On the third reading the ayes and nays were called for. The vote stood ayes, 32; nays, 12.

S. B. 127, S. B. 120: An act to appoint justices of the peace in Gates county. Passed second and third reading.

BOYED HOTEL AT HAMLET BURNED

(Special to The Times.) Hamlet, Jan. 27.—The Boyd Hotel, a four-story building, together with the residence of Mr. Leviner, was destroyed by fire this evening.

The fire started in a negro restaurant next to the hotel also burned. Owing to the distance to the nearest water-plug the firemen were unable to do very effective work and could only keep the fire from spreading.

The town was having a water-plug put in just in front of the building when the fire broke out. It is impossible to state the extent of damage at present.

WANT HAINES SENT TO MATTEAWAN WITHOUT DELAY

Family Holds Conference With Lawyers in Regard to Proper Method

WANT A COMMISSION

Family Wants Him Sent to the Asylum Without Trial and Without Further Delay—Will Confer With McIntyre Tonight as to Best Method of Procedure—Lawyer Shays Says There is Ample Precedent for the Application for a Lunacy Commission—Questions to be Decided.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, Jan. 27.—The family of Captain Peter C. Haines, now in jail at Long Island City, awaiting trial for the murder of William E. Annis at the Bayside Yacht Club on August 15, today decided to endeavor to have him sent to Matteawan asylum without trial and without further delay.

Thornton Haines called on Lawyer Joseph A. Shays this morning and after a conference started for Washington to get his father, General Haines. He will return with the General to New York immediately and the two will confer with John F. McIntyre and Mr. Shays either tonight or tomorrow morning on the mode of procedure.

Mr. Shays said that there was ample precedent for an application for a lunacy commission in such a case, the application being made direct to the supreme court. No effort will be made to show that Captain Haines is anywhere near sane.

District Attorney Dewitt, of Queens county, has already expressed himself as being opposed to the appointment of a commission before the trial for murder is actually begun.

NO LOCKOUT OF THE GOVERNMENT WORKERS

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Baltimore, Jan. 27.—There will be no lockout of garment workers in this city at this time.

While this has the appearance of a victory for the workers, an important modification in the further determination of the clothing board of trade, as acknowledged by one of its representatives, to establish here an employment bureau similar to those now in operation in Rochester and Chicago.

GERMAN EMPEROR HALF CENTURY OLD

(By Cable to The Times) Berlin, Jan. 27.—Emperor William, of Germany, is 50 years old today.

Following his new custom of obscuring himself from the public gaze, he is spending the day in retirement.

In contrast to his former custom of public speaking and ostentatious displays upon such occasions he remained at the imperial castle the greater part of the day.

COLORED WAITERS IN ATLANTIC CITY

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 27.—In the arrival here of 250 waitresses to replace the waiters at the Hotel Chalfont, the heads of the Negro Waiters' Association say they see confirmation of their fears that more than a thousand members of the waiters' protective league are to be thrown out of employment within a year and forced to leave the resort.

The waitresses were brought from Boston on a special train and were conveyed under guard to quarters especially fitted up for them adjoining the hotel.

Other beach front hotels are said to be planning to follow the example of the Chalfont in dispensing with colored help. It is said that within a few months practically all of them will make the change.

EMPEROR MENELIK OF ABYSSINIA IS DEAD

(By Cable to The Times) Paris, Jan. 27.—Emperor Menelik, of Abyssinia, is dead, according to an announcement from an official source, which adds that the Empress Taitou for some days has been directing public affairs. It is feared that the death of the king will be followed by trouble, chiefly at Addis Ababa, capital of Abyssinia.

King Menelik's official title was His Imperial Majesty, King Menelik II, K. C. M. J., Negus Negasti, Emperor of Ethiopia, King of Kings.

He was the first king of his dynasty and had reigned since 1889. He said he was a descendant of Solomon and the Queen of Sheba. He was born August 17, 1844.

GREAT ACTOR DIES IN FRANCE

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Paris, Jan. 27.—Constant Coquill, acknowledged the world's greatest actor, died today at Camba, the beautiful home of Edmond Rostand, the great French playwright in the French Pyrenees.

The actor was stricken with pneumonia a month ago. The news has plunged Paris, the gay, into profound mourning.

WINE FROM ELKINSES FOR DUKE'S BIRTHDAY

Genoa, Italy, Jan. 27.—The Duke of the Abruzzi will quietly celebrate his birthday on Friday. Among the gifts already received are two cases of rare and costly wine which were consigned to Duca Degli Abruzzi and which arrived yesterday. They were sent by the Elkins family of the United States, which indicates that the entente cordiale between the two families has not been broken, even though it is reported that the engagement between the Duke and Miss Katherine Elkins has been broken. There was much speculation as to the gift before the announcement of the birthday was made.
