LIVELY CONTEST IN THE COOPER MURDER TRIAL

Attempt to Have Whitworth Excused From Duty Expected to Cause Contest

SEVENTH JURY PANEL

Developed This Morning That One of the Attorneys For the Defense Sent a Friend of Whitworth to Mrs. Whitworth, Suggesting That Whitworth, Owing to Poor Health, Was Not Able to Serve-Acting on This Suggestion Mrs. Whitworth Wrote to Judge Hart Asking That Her Husband Be Excused.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

Criminal Court Room, Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 29-A lively contest is expected over the attempt to have Juror Whitworth excused from duty in the trial of the Coopers and Sharp for the murder of Senator Carmack. It developes this morning that one of the attorneys for the defense sent a friend of Whitworth's to Mrs. Whitworth suggesting that Whitworth, owing to poor health was not able to serve. Mrs. Whitworth immediately wrote Judge Hart asking that her husband be excused. The prosecution then secured a request from Mrs. Whitworth to the court asking that Mr. Whitworth be not removed unless he requests it. The defense is apparently anxious to throw Whitworth off the jury, while the state will insist on retaining him. The matter was deferred until noon today. Meanwhile the examination o the seventh panel of talesmen of 66 was begun. Seventh Panel Exhausted. With another panel, the seventh, exhausted, no further progress was made today in securing jurors for the Cooper-Sharp trial. Veniremen appearing on the stand proved quite cautious in the matter of opinions. Out of the 66 men on the panel only two qualified as competent jurors and these were promptly challenged by the defense, one of them for cause and the other peremptorily.
