

Would Control the Conduct of Men of the Cloth

statement of his own business, and it looked to him like a duck between two ducks, and two ducks before two ducks, for who ever heard of a man working detrimental to his business. He thought it a farce. He favored the amendments of Mr. Hinsdale.

Drunkards Cured Secretly

Any Lady Can Do It at Home—Cost Nothing To Try.

A MODERN MIRACLE. A new tasteless and odorless discovery which can be given secretly by any lady in tea, coffee or food.

Mr. Cox, of Anson, said it was evident many men did not understand, and he moved the bill be printed and another time set.

The question then reverted to the amendments as amended by Williams. Mr. Grant called the ayes and noes.

By Doughton: To amend law as to collection of taxes. By McDonald of Moore: To validate election in Moore.

Mr. Lee sent forward an amendment making sixty hours a week, which the speaker ruled out of order. The clerk read the amendment by Mr. Hinsdale as to inspection and prosecution as to violation of law by mills and the roll call proceeded, and the amendment was adopted by a vote of 74 to 31.

The question then returned on the substitute as amended. Mr. Lee sent forward his sixty hour a week amendment and the striking out section fourteen, which forbids children going with older ones to the mill, as it was a help to the child in learning, and parents as well.

By Turner: To enroll certain citizens on pension roll. By Turner: To provide another term of court in Mitchell.

Mr. Rodwell asked Mr. Hinsdale how the children were paid. By the day, was the answer. Mr. Lee withdrew his amendment as to sixty hours, but said he disliked to be attacked by such a man as Doughton.

The question then returned on the passage of the bill on its second reading, and it passed. When the bill was read the third time Mr. Turlington objected and Mr. Hinsdale begged him to withdraw and allow it to pass third reading.

By Martin: To hold school tax election in Pamlico. By Cox of Pitt (by request): To amend the law as to marriage ceremony.

Mr. Wallace sent an amendment, reducing age from 13 to 11. Mr. Smith, of Durham, opposed as it was a step backwards; he hoped both would be voted down.

Mr. Smith, of Randolph, spoke for Mr. Dowd's amendment, saying the passage of the law would throw a host of people out of work, and cramp mills with contracts ahead.

By Parker: To provide for election of additional commissioners of Jones county. By Smith of Durham: To fix salaries of officers in Durham county.

A CLOSE SHAVE. Many of Them Happening Every Day But Soon Forgotten. Close shaves would be of more frequent occurrence but for the tender faces of many men, which will not permit of shaving often.

Mr. Harshaw endorsed the delay, saying this was too important a matter to rush through in a day. Many said he are entirely dependent upon the labor of the mills and always would be this. This bill, he thought, would retard the cotton mill work.

By Haymore: To extend the corporate limits of the town of Mt. Airy. By Haymore: For relief of J. C. Council, tax collector of Mt. Airy.

Mr. Murphy asked the house to vote for Mr. Hayes' motion. He was glad to see Mr. Harshaw take the stand he had in the face of Mr. Williams' amendment. Mr. Harshaw retorted with: Is not the majority lining up here against the mills as sold as the minority?

By Davis: To protect fish in Haw River. By Williams of Dare: To amend law as to fees of treasurer of Dare county.

A Good Tonic For Sick Women. Of course, well people don't need a tonic. But sick people, and especially sick women, frequently do. That feeling of weakness, tiredness, or languidness, that seems to make every movement or thought an effort, is much more than merely disagreeable. It is a sign of dangerous weakness, and should be promptly treated with Wine of Cardui.
