AMUSEMENTS
KNIGHTS OF THE CLAN.
Said a Dixie critic of "The Clansman" last season: "Its exposition of heroic deeds by gallant knights in defense of southern womanhood is its chief sustaining quality and in fact the scintillating gem in the splendid setting of the play." He alludes of course to the Ku Klux Klan, who appear in the play fully garbed, mounted and armed on their errand of justice, mercy and protection to the weak and helpless. "The Clansman", with its gallant knights and fair women of the old south, will come to the Academy of Music on Wednesday, February 24.

WILLIAM STERLING BATTIS.
Everybody reads Dickens, and his unbounding humor is a source of constant delight. Raleigh is to be congratulated that the Woman's Club has secured Mr. William Sterling Battis, the distinguished impersonator of Dickens' characters, to appear at Olivia Raney Hall Thursday evening. He appears in costume and presents each character as a living reality. Lovers of Dickens and friends of the Woman's Club should see Mr. Battis. A delightful evening is promised all who attend.

WON GAME OF BASKET BALL.
Y. M. C. A. Defeated the Knoxville Tigers.
(Special to The Times.)
Asheville, Feb. 17.—In the fastest game of basket ball ever seen here, the Y. M. C. A. won from the Knoxville Tigers by the score of 36 to 21 on the Association floor last night.

The game was pronounced by some the hardest fought that has taken place in the south during the past season. Certain it is that the like has never been seen here before. Realizing what they had to go up against, the local Y. M. C. A. team has put in some strenuous training during the past two weeks, but for which victory would have been out of the question last night. The Knoxville team is composed of picked men from the University of Tennessee, the Knoxville Y. M. C. A. and Knox High School. It was the only team in the south to defeat Yale in a recent tour of the south. The game has been the matter of much discussion here and before the game was called the galleries of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium was packed to the doors. During the first half, first one then the other was in the lead. Finally the local team made to field goals quick succession, giving the lead which was held throughout the game, though at times only a few points ahead of that of the opponents. The first half closed with the score 15 to 11. The second half started off with a rush and for the first ten minutes it was anybody's game, but soon after the middle the association team rallied and played like a machine to the end. Another contest between the two teams will take place this evening.

FIRST TIME IN HISTORY
Has Proceedings of Teachers Assembly Been Published

Mr. R. D. W. Connor, Secretary of the Assembly, Has Compiled and Edited a Book Containing the Proceedings and Addresses of the Last Session.
For the first time in the history of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, which is in its twenty-sixth year, the proceedings of the assembly have been published. Mr. R. D. W. Connor, secretary of the assembly, has compiled and edited and has published in book form the Proceedings and Addresses of the Twenty-fifth Annual Session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, held at Charlotte June 16-19, 1908.

This invaluable book has 343 pages, comprising the entire proceedings of the assembly, and every address delivered before the assembly at its 1908 meeting. Among the most important addresses contained in the book are: "Power of Education", by Governor Glenn; "How to Decrease the Death Rate Among School Children", by Dr. Chas. W. Stiles, chief of the Zoological department of the public health and marine hospital service; "What the Teacher Can Do to Improve Rural Institutions", by Dr. Seamon A. Knapp, of the United States department of agriculture; "The Ideas, the Ideals, and the Idealism of Education", by Dr. Charles W. Kent, of the University of Virginia; "School and People of Other Lands", by Dr. O. I. Corson, editor of the Ohio Educational Monthly, and many other valuable addresses by prominent educators.

Among the prominent North Carolina educators, whose papers are contained in the report of the proceedings are: State Superintendent J. V. Joyner, Prof. M. C. S. Noble, professor of pedagogy at the State University; Mrs. Chas. D. Melver; Superintendent H. A. Hayes, of the Rockingham schools; Superintendent A. E. Waltz, of the Goldsboro schools; Superintendent Harry Howell, of the High Point schools; Super-

UP SET STOMACH OR DYSPEPSIA

Eat Favorite Food Without Dread of Stomach Distress

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion. Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nauseous, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with noxious odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

WAKE FOREST NEWS.
(Special to The Times)
Wake Forest, N. C., Feb. 17.—C. T. Bell, chairman of the debating council, has received a letter from the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, stating that the chamber will give a silver loving cup to the college winning two of the three annual debates arranged between Wake Forintendent Chas. L. Coon, of the Williams schools, and others. These annual meetings of the teachers of the state have grown to be indispensable. Much of the great success of the North Carolina schools is directly due to the ideas and other valuable information that the teachers gain at these meetings. At the meeting in Charlotte last June there were 520 teachers in attendance.

The next meeting, which will be held in Morehead June 15-18, 1909, promises to be well attended. Among the prominent educators that have signified their intention of attending this meeting are Governor Kitchin, if possible; Hon. J. D. Eggleston, state superintendent of public instruction of Virginia, and Prof. E. K. Graham, professor of English literature of the University of North Carolina, and others.

The present officers of the assembly are: President, T. R. Foust, of Greensboro; vice-president, Dr. D. H. Hill, of the A. & M. College; secretary, R. D. W. Connor. Among the former presidents are some of the most eminent educators in the south, there being Drs. Alderman, Venable, Claxton, Poteat, Melver, and Superintendent Joyner.

The information and strong addresses contained in this excellent volume make it priceless to the successful teacher. Mr. Connor has merited great credit in this work, which will be personally appreciated by every educator in North Carolina. Mr. E. R. Preston, of Charlotte, registered at the Yarrowboro this morning.

est and Davidson. The cup is to cost not less than $50 and will be appropriately engraved. The college winning the first debate holds the cup for the first year. The winner of two debates has permanent possession. Each of the debates will be held on the evening of Easter Monday. The chamber furnishes the auditorium and appoints the president of the debate.

Manager Carrick returned Monday night from Greensboro, where he met with a number of college representatives in response to invitations sent out by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce to consider an intercollegiate field and track meet. The first annual meet will be held in Greensboro on the evening of April 19 in the auditorium under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. The events, as given by Manager Carrick, are as follows:

100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, quarter-mile run, half-mile run, mile run, 120-yard high-hurdle race, 225-yard low hurdle race, running high jump, running broad jump, putting 16-pound shot, pole vault, one-mile relay race in quarter-mile relays. The first place in each event will count 5 points, the second place 3 points, the third place 2 points, the fourth place 1 point. Medals will be given in each event as follows: First, gold medal; second, silver medal; third, bronze medal. The college team making most points will be presented with a loving cup, to be kept by the college winning it until the next annual meet. The cup will be the property of the college winning it twice.
