

NEW SKIN REMEDY STOPS ALL ITCHING

Skin Troubles of Adults and Infants Quickly Cured.

When it is known that poslam, the new skin discovery, will stop the torturous itching attending eczema with first application and bring immediate relief and comfort to sufferers from all skin troubles, its merit will be appreciated and its wonderful success understood.

An experimental supply of poslam may be obtained free of charge by writing to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Dr. W. G. Chrisman left this morning for Durham, where he will attend the sessions of the North Carolina Academy of Science, which meets there today and tomorrow.

Mr. J. E. Dorman, of the United States department of agriculture, dairying division, is here today. He will spend several months in the state, carrying on experiments in testing the pressure of silage on the walls of silos.

Dr. W. G. Chrisman, state veterinarian, returned yesterday from a trip to Granville county on business connected with his department.

Prof. J. A. Conover, dairy expert of the North Carolina department of agriculture, has returned from Washington, D. C.

Phil Crowson and Andrew Baker, colored sons of rest, have been arrested by Constable Byrum charged with vagrancy. They were committed to jail.

Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of the department of Latin, Wake Forest College, was in the city today.

Work will be begun on the Yarborough House in a few days. The entire front of that historic building is to be torn down and remodeled. While this is being done the Park Hotel will be used by the proprietor of the Yarborough.

Governor Kitchin received today an invitation from the directors of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, inviting him and his staff to be present at the opening ceremonies of that great world's show on June 1, 1909, at Seattle, Washington.

Mr. C. E. McCluer, of Norfolk, Va., was here yesterday. He is a telephone expert, and was here to investigate Mr. W. A. Wynne's instantaneous telephone service appliance.

Mr. W. B. Drake, of Wilmington, has been elected cashier of the Merchants Bank, and will take charge May 3d.

Phil Crowson and Andrew Baker, negroes, were tried last night before Justice Roberts on the charge of vagrancy. Crowson was found guilty and sentenced to 30 days on the roads. Baker was discharged.

"I'd Rather Die," Doctor. than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill. "but you'll die of gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead, he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve until wholly cured. Its cures of Eczema, Fever Sores, Boils, Burns and Piles astounded the world. 25 cents at all druggists.

Commissions Issued. Commissions were issued today to the following members of the North Carolina State Guard, elections in each company being held to fill vacancies caused by promotions:

Company D, Third Infantry, Louisville: C. H. Banks, captain; J. A. Turner, first lieutenant; J. R. Perry, second lieutenant.

Company D, Second Infantry: J. O. H. Taylor, second lieutenant.

DRUNK MAN LOSES MULE AND WAGON

A few days ago a farmer by the name of Chapple, who lives near Raleigh, let a tenant of his have his mule and wagon to come to the city. The tenant came and had a glorious time. He quickly found a blind tiger, loaded up on the wet refreshments obtained of the tiger and acquired a howling drunk. Jack Beasley's men found him and he was locked up.

The man was so drunk that he had forgotten his mule and wagon, for the time, but others had not forgotten it. Lonnie Chambers, a white man who proudly proclaimed himself a citizen of Durham, was here that day on a visit. He found the mule and wagon apparently ownerless, promptly annexed both, and left the city, presumably with the intention of returning to his native city. In Brooklyn, (N. C.), he sold the wagon and harness to W. M. House for one dollar. Later he met "Bull" Upchurch and sold the mule to Bull for $15.00. At this point the fair figure of the Durhamite fades away and he becomes only a memory. Up to noon today the sheriff had not found the slightest clue to his whereabouts.

The mule, however, was not so hard to trace. Upchurch sold it to Thomas Blair and he claimed ownership when the mule was found yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Steil. The mule was found at Pool's farm, two miles from the city, doing faithful service drawing a plow guided by Ed. Jeffreys. The mule is now in the jail yard and will be turned over to Mr. Chapple.

Up Before the Bar. N. H. Brown, an attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." For Chills, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Headache they work wonders. See at all druggists.

TAXICAB DRIVER KILLED BY TRAIN

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Philadelphia, Pa., April 30—William Adams, a taxicab chauffeur, was instantly killed and two occupants of the vehicle were seriously injured today by being struck by a train on the Reading Railway. The injured are Andrew Donnelly, 26 years old, and Willard Kerr, 40 years old. Both are suffering from contusions and lacerations. The tender was lowering the gates at the crossing and the taxicab endeavored to cross ahead of the train.

SPENCER MAY BE MADE PASSENGER TERMINAL

Washington, April 30—Owing to the strong representations made this week by a delegation of business men, headed by A. W. Hicks, secretary of the board of trade of Spencer, N. C., which conferred here with President Finley and General Manager Ackert, of the Southern Railway, there is a strong probability that Spencer will be made a passenger terminal for the Southern. It is already a freight terminal.

AN HONEST DOCTOR remarked to his patient who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after his efforts had failed, "Mrs. Weber, I do not believe in patent medicines, but I will say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine ever discovered for women. Continue to use it." This is another link in the long chain of evidence to prove the reliability of this standard medicine for women.

At St. Mary's. Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock Miss Cribbs' primary department will present "The Toy Shop". In the St. Mary's auditorium. The public is invited.

MR. J. B. KENNEDY LEAVES.

Popular Commercial Agent of Carolina Light & Power Company Goes West.

The people of Raleigh will regret to learn that Mr. J. B. Kennedy, the gentlemanly and efficient commercial agent of the Carolina Light & Power Company, is to leave the city. No man has ever made more friends in the same length of time than has Mr. Kennedy in the eleven months he has been here.

Mr. Kennedy goes back to his old home, Minneapolis, where he will engage in the real estate business. He expressed his regrets at leaving a city he has learned to love, saying to the reporter that he had never lived among a finer set of people. Mr. Cogswell, present cashier of the company, will succeed Mr. Kennedy.

EIGHT PERSONS KILLED IN FIRE

(By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, April 30—Eight persons, of whom five were children under eight years old, were killed and fourteen were injured, some of them fatally, today in an incendiary fire that trapped twenty families in the tenement at No. 37 Spring street, and partly destroyed the building.

The people in the tenement became panic-stricken when they found escape cut off and the flames gaining headway upward through the house. Women flung their babies from upper windows in their hysteria and life lines were missed by firemen and police below. Many rescues were made by the firemen.

The blaze was started by black-martins who had demanded $1,000 from one of the tenants of the house and had been refused and the police notified.

Words to Freeze the Soul. "Your son has consumption. His case is hopeless. These appalling words were spoken to George E. Blevins, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks' use," writes Mr. Blevins, "he was as well as ever. I would not take all the money in the world for what it did for my boy." It's the safest cure of desperate lung diseases on earth. 50c and $1.00 at all druggists. Guarantee satisfaction.
