Passion Play to be Shown At Gem.

Owing to the great number of people who were unable to see the wonderful Passion Play Monday when it was shown at the Gem Theatre, the management has again secured it and will show it in connection with its regular program Thursday afternoon and night. The entire program will consist of eight reels, or 8,000 feet of film, 6,000 of which is hand colored. The music will be another very important feature of the day, in which Mr. H. Henderson and Mr. S. S. Snapp are very prominent.

LOCAL BRIEFS

The Gem Theatre will put on the Passion Play again Thursday evening and night, together with their regular program; also special music will be a feature of the program.

Local tax districts have been created this week at Chapel Hill, Marvin (Anson county), Hamlet, Washington and Mt. Holly (Gaston county.)

Richmond Street Car System Sold.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Richmond, Va., May 5.—The properties of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company were sold here today under foreclosure proceedings for $8,100,000 to the re-organization committee, consisting of Frank J. Gould, Douglas Robinson and others.

Every two months or so, you should give your piano a bath.

A bath! That sounds odd, doesn't it?

Nevertheless, it is the thing to do.

Dissolve a quarter of a cake of Ivory Soap in a pint of boiling water. When lukewarm, apply to the woodwork with a soft cloth. Rinse with cold water, which should be applied with another soft cloth. Rub dry with a chamois.

Ivory Soap 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure.

SOCIETY.

PRAYER.

More things are wrought by prayer Than this world dreams of. Wherefore let this voice Rise like a fountain for one night and day. For what are men better than sheep or goats, That nourish a blind life within the brain, If, knowing God, they lift not hands of prayer Both for themselves and those who call them friend? For so, the whole round earth is every way Bound by gold chains about the feet of God. —Lord Tennyson.

FIVE HUNDRED SALOONS GO.

Effect of Increase in License Tax in City of Baltimore.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Baltimore, Md., May 4.—Five hundred saloons in Baltimore have been put out of business by the increase in license fees from $500 to $750 a year. Many of the proprietors who were unable to pay the increased tax are Germans, who owned beer saloons in the poorer districts. One of these, Paul Manage, for many years had kept a saloon. He killed himself when the high license took effect.

It is estimated that the new license should increase the city's revenue $1,000,000 but if many more saloon-keepers fail to take out licenses the expected large increase in revenue will not materialize.

MET HORRIBLE DEATH.

Steel Saw Breaks Loose Terribly Injuring Employee.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Ashland, Ore., May 4.—Walter Torrey, a saw mill employee operating the saw in a local mill, noticed that the huge steel blade had become loosened. Before he could tighten the bolts it had broken loose. Torrey jumped for safety, the saw spinning over the ground. Thirty feet from the rack it overtook Torrey, severing his right leg, inflicting a terrible wound in his back and lacerating his entire trunk. Within a short time he bled to death.
