(By Warwick James Price.)
Where is our faith? Year after year
We say: "Our God is just,"
And yet our hearts can harbor fear,
And cherish cold mistrust,
Does not his promise stand today,
Eternal, living, true?

Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 29 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurlock, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a Godsend to weak, sickly, run-down or old people. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

FUNERAL OF MRS. KING.

BOND ISSUE APPROVED

Big Municipal Building Next in Order

The Supreme Court of North Carolina Declares the Issue of Bonds for the Erection of Municipal Building Constitutional—Payment of Swain Debt Approved—Other Opinions Filed.

Yesterday afternoon the supreme court handed down a long list of decisions. Among them was an opinion in the case of Hightower & Fort vs. City of Raleigh.

This suit was brought to test the $125,000 bond issue for the erection of a municipal building in Raleigh and determine the constitutionality of issuing the bonds without a vote of the people.

Justice Brown, writing the opinion for the court, declares that while the act of the legislature was necessary for the levy of a special tax and the creation of a sinking-fund, the municipal authorities, having declared the municipal building a necessary expense, could have contracted the debt with legislative authority. A municipal building is held by the court to be a necessary expense and the settling of the question as to the kind of building needed a matter for the city authorities. The construction of the auditorium is held to be not inconsistent with the legality of the bond issue.

The payment of the D. L. Swain claim against the University, a debt which was authorized to be paid in bonds by the last legislature, was also approved by the court.

The full list of opinions is as follows:

- Norris vs. Laws, from Wake; new trial.
- Hightower vs. Raleigh, from Wake; affirmed.
- Battle & Clark vs. Lacy, from Wake; affirmed.
- Parker vs. Railway, from Anson; reversed.
- Richardson vs. Richardson, from Anson; affirmed.
- State vs. Davis, from Gaston; new trial.
- Lynch vs. Melton, from Cleveland; affirmed.
- Cotton Mills vs. Railway, from Lincoln; affirmed in both appeals.
- Whitlock vs. Dixon, from Mecklenburg; affirmed.
- Pierson vs. Telegraph Company, from Caldwell; affirmed.
- Webb vs. Lumber Company, from Caldwell; affirmed.
- Booker vs. Eller, from Wilkes; affirmed.
- Williams vs. Casualty Company, from Wilkes; affirmed.
- Garrison vs. Railway, from Buncombe; affirmed.
- Hauser vs. Western Union Telegraph Company, from Alexander; new trial.
- Manufacturing Co. vs. Rowe, from Pender; per curiam, affirmed.
- Raynor vs. Railroad, from Lenoir; per curiam, affirmed.
- State vs. Logan, from Rutherford; petition for certiorari denied.

SENIORS ENTERTAINED.

Delightful Event At Home of President D. H. Hill Last Night.

The home of President D. H. Hill, in West Raleigh last night was the scene of a delightful affair when the seniors of A. and M. Peace Institute, St. Mary's and the Baptist University were charmingly entertained.

The house was beautifully decorated in red carnations, A. and M. pennants and '09 banners.

The long revolving line of A. and M. Seniors headed by President and Mrs. D. H. Hill stretched through parlors, library and sitting room.

Mr. Hampton, president of the Senior class, presented the guests to the revolving line.

Miss Mildred Way, of Peace Institute, recited and there was music by Miss Alice Newcomb and others.

Fruit punch was served on the porch. There were other delicious refreshments served in the dining room.

PASSION PLAY.

Being Presented Again At The Gem Theatre This Afternoon and Tonight.

In connection with their regular program, the Gem Theatre is again showing the Passion Play today. When this noted picture was shown at the Gem Monday it was impossible to accommodate the large crowd. The Gem was packed from the first performance, in the early afternoon, until the last performance that night.

An interesting program has been prepared for today, over 8,000 feet of pictures being shown.

Mr. Snapp, the trombone soloist of the Gem, will play "Face to Face."
