

Prescription for Nervous Men and Women. Try It.

The impairment of the nervous force in men and women is first manifested by extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, dread, worry and anxiety without reason, trembling of the hands and limbs, with the slightest exertion, heart palpitation, constipation, kidney trouble, and a general inability to act rationally at all times as others with health in their bodies do.

In a half pint bottle get three ounces of syrup arseniparilla compound and add to this one ounce compound fluid balsam, and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol, and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom); mix all together, shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at retiring.

If unable to obtain these ingredients from your regular druggist you can readily obtain them from the King-Crowell Drug Co.

Commencement at St. Mary's Observed Today.

Two thoughts he wished to emphasize: Things we do wrong are a disgrace and not the penalty, that may be overcome in the future. The other thought was that honor and truth are not sufficient without obedience.

He then expressed his thanks to all who had helped him in his work during the year, the trustees, who have always upheld him, the teachers, and especially the lady principal, and his predecessor, who had advised him. He appreciated the work of the girls on the Muse and in the choir and the guilds. All the students and alumnae should be missionaries for St. Mary's. He looked forward, not to a new St. Mary's, but to the old St. Mary's that we love that seems ever new, the mother of us all.

One of the most interesting features of the exercises was the reading of the honor roll and awarding of prizes and distinctions. They are as follows:

The Honor Roll for 1909. Mary Mitchell Chamberlain, '10; Irma Deaton, '10; Georgia Stanton Hales, '09; Minnie Tamplet Hazard, '10; Paula Elizabeth Hazard, '10; Julia Louise McIntyre, '09; Marie Alice Perry, '13; Virginia Randolph Bolling Pickel, '10; Frankie Lenore Self, '09; Rebe Hill Shields, '10; Florence Douglas Stone, '15; Rebecca Bannehan Wood, '12.

The Muse Prizes. The Muse prizes—copies of the Annual Muse—presented by the managers of the Muse to the three students who by their written or artistic contributions have done most to help the annual and monthly Muse during the current year, are awarded in 1909 to Frances Ranney Bottum, Irma Deaton, Virginia Randolph Bolling Pickel.

The Bishop Parker Botany Prize. The Bishop Parker botany prize, given by Rt. Rev. Edward M. Parker, bishop-coadjutor of New Hampshire, is awarded to that pupil, who, in accordance with certain published conditions, has done the best work in the preparation of a Herbarium. The prize is awarded to Marjorie Evans.

The Niles Medal. The highest award for the work of the session as determined by a comparison of general averages in the Niles Medal.

The Niles Medal for general excellence was instituted in 1906 by Rev. Charles M. Niles, D. D., then of Columbia, S. C., now of Philadelphia. It is awarded to the pupil who has made the best record in scholarship and deportment during the session, subject to the following conditions: The medal is awarded to the same pupil only once. The requirements for eligibility are:

- (1) The pupil must have taken throughout the year at least "15 points" of regular work, and have satisfactorily completed this work, passing all required examinations.
(2) The pupil must have been "excellent" in deportment.
(3) The pupil must have taken all regular general courses assigned and done satisfactory work in them.
(4) The pupil must be a regular student of the college department.

1909. The highest average of the year is that of Miss Minnie Tamplet Hazard, '10, of Georgetown, S. C., 96.77, whose average is 96.77 per cent.

Miss Hazard was awarded the medal last year and is accordingly disqualified from receiving it again.

The fourth award of the Niles Medal is accordingly made to Miss Georgia Stanton Hales, '09, of Wilson, N. C., whose average is 95.95 per cent.

There should also be commended for excellence in scholarship as having made a general average of 95 per cent or more Miss Paula Elizabeth Hazard, 95.77 per cent, Miss Virginia R. B. Pickel, 95.39 per cent.

Exercises in the Chapel. The exercises were concluded in the chapel, without which no commencement at St. Mary's would be complete, for this is the center of the best life at St. Mary's.

The chapel was beautifully with the white and gold altar hangings, flickering candles and pure white flowers. The procession entered the chapel in the following order: The choir, chief marshal, bearing the diplomas, the bishop and clergy, the faculty, graduates, students and trustees. After the usual religious exercises there was a parting word from Bishop Chesire.

The Bishop's Charge. He only spoke a parting word, expressing the good wishes of the authorities of St. Mary's. Parting is a comforting element for it brings the thought of union.

As a parting motto to take through life he gave them the verse, "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature." He hoped that this outward and inward growth would bring them nearer to Him and in favor with God and man.

As "Jerusalem, high tower thy glorious walls," the old time-honored hymn always sung as a commencement recessional at St. Mary's pealed forth, the procession of white-robed girls filed from the chapel. They formed an unbroken white chain reaching from the chapel to the East Rock Building, and as they stood so encircling the main building the bishop and clergy passed by and offered congratulations to the graduates.

As the ranks broke, the graduates, loaded with their flowers, with their honorary member, Miss Katie McKimmon, gathered around their adopted tree while their pictures were taken.

Class Day Observance. Leading up to the final day of commencement St. Mary's had a full day yesterday, class day being observed in the afternoon, the trustees holding a session, winding up with the annual grand concert last night.

A large crowd was attracted to the class day exercises held in the grove yesterday afternoon. A large dais had been erected in the shade of the beautiful oaks. The exercises were especially unique, being quite different from those usually held to celebrate class day. They took the nature of a court, before which cases were tried and the defendants in each case were found guilty and sentenced to dire punishment.

The court conducted itself with great dignity and ability, approaching the scene of the trial carrying a great chain of daisies and singing the college song, "Alma Mater."

The court was opened by the sheriff, Miss Minnie Leary, of Elizabeth City. The court consisted of Miss Sallie Haywood Battle, of Rocky Mount, as judge; Miss Minnie Leary, of Elizabeth City, sheriff; Miss Eva Rogerson, of Edenton, clerk; Miss Frankie Lenore Self, of Hickory, solicitor; Miss Julia Louise McIntyre, Mullin, S. C., assistant solicitor, and Miss Georgia Stanton Hales, of Wilson, counsel for the defense, and the "gentlemen of the jury," twelve young ladies of the school.

The first case was that of the class of 1909, plaintiff, vs. certain members of the faculty of St. Mary's School, defendants, the charge being directed against Misses Kellogg, Hull, Pixley, Fenner, and Jones, in that the faculty eat, "Smuglety Pizzie" had by them been maltreated, with pettings and punchings, overfed kodaked, etc. The defendants in no case were allowed a word in their own defense. A verdict of guilty was returned and the court sentenced the prisoners at certain irregular and unusual hours of the day and night should feed and caress five pussy cats of the inmate kind, which were then distributed, amid much merriment.

In the case against Miss Eleanor Walters Thomas, the teacher of higher English, in which she was charged with having mistreated William Shakespeare, a verdict of guilty was pronounced and she was sentenced to read one copy a day of a stack of school studies of Shakespeare, with which she was presented.

The class of 1910 were charged with usurpation of senior privileges because of excess of numbers and of great brilliancy. The juniors were sentenced to maintain senior dignity.

to get out an annual of great credit and to keep in safety Senior Hall, the key being delivered to them.

The last case heard was that of Miss Kate McKimmon, faculty member of the class, who was charged with overwhelming kindness and love shown toward the senior class. A plea of guilty was returned, but the prisoner seemed well-satisfied with her sentence, which was to keep a picture of the senior class, which was presented to her, in sight for the remainder of her natural life.

The court being adjourned a class tree was adopted, the daisy chain was wound about it and the exercises came to a close with the singing of the class song.

Trustees Meet. The trustees of St. Mary's were in session yesterday afternoon having in consideration business of importance to St. Mary's. Great improvement is being made in the school, two wings being added to the main building to accommodate about 75 additional students, so the trustees thought it necessary to erect another large building, on the ground floor of which would be a commodious dining-hall with gymnasium above. This building is to be erected directly behind the main building, and is to cost $20,000. The remodeling of the front of the main building will be postponed until after the erection of the new building.

There were present at the meeting the following trustees: Rt. Rev. Jos. Blount Chesire, D. D., Raleigh; Rt. Rev. William Alexander Guerry, Charleston, S. C.; Dr. R. H. Lewis, Raleigh; Rev. Julian H. Ingle, Henderson; Mr. Richard H. Battle, L. L. D., Raleigh; Col. Chas. E. Johnson, Raleigh; Mr. David Y. Cooper, Henderson; Rev. Robt. B. Drane, D. D., Edenton; Mr. Geo. C. Royall, Goldsboro; Rev. T. T. Walsh, Orangeburg; Mr. P. T. Hayne, Greenville; Rev. McNeely DuBose, Morganton; Mr. A. F. Clineard, Hickory, and Dr. K. P. Battle, Jr., secretary and treasurer.

Brilliant Concert. The events of yesterday at St. Mary's came to a close with the annual grand concert in the auditorium at 8:30. This was one of the most brilliant concerts in the history of the school, the excellently rendered program reflecting great credit on the teachers, Miss Dowd, head of the music school, Miss Schleper, Miss Hull and Miss Gould.

The program was as follows: "I Sing Because I Love to Sing," Piusini, Chorus Class. "The Two Larks," Leschetizsky, Played by Miss Lena Taylor. "Roses Everywhere," sung by Miss Marie Thomas. CAME FOR HARRISON. Check-flasher Goes Back to Perquimans For Trial.

Deputy Sheriff Baker, of Hertford, Perquimans county, was here this morning for the purpose of taking charge of C. W. Harrison, the white man arrested at Zebulon yesterday for "check-flashing." It is alleged that Harrison secured the cashing of several bogus checks. Mr. Baker left with his prisoner on the morning train.

Harrison is a cousin of the notorious Harrison connected with the sensational Beasley kidnapping case.

Miss Sallie Pearce, left this afternoon for her home in Warsaw. Miss Jennie Shaw, returned to her home in Kinston today after attending school at Peace Institute. Miss Laura Ives, after attending Peace Institute, left for her home in Newbern this afternoon.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

Washington, May 27—It is asserted that as a result of the wave of economy now prevailing in the navy department, the navy yards at Port Royal, S. C., New Orleans, and Pensacola, will be closed. It has not yet been decided when the order closing the yards will be issued, as the appropriations for their maintenance for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, was made at the last session of congress.

However, the secretary of the navy could close them now, and it is not improbable that the yards may be shut down in the fall.

Progress in Anson. Anson county today reported to the office of Supt. J. Y. Joyner the creation of two new local tax districts. No county in the state is making more rapid progress in educational work than Anson.

BASEBALL MATINEE. Descriptive Reports of the Raleigh-Wilson Games to be Given by Mr. Leo J. Dughl.

Mr. Leo J. Dughl expects to open his baseball matinee tomorrow afternoon, either at the Young Men's Republican Club or in the rear room of the Yarrowborough House pool room. This matinee will show every play made by the Red Birds and the Tobaccoists, and will cause more real excitement than the game itself. The operator in Wilson will be at the grounds, and as each play is made it will be in turn transmitted to the waiting fans in the Capital City.

A large crowd should be on hand to receive these reports, as the management cannot afford to lose money on the proposition, and if sufficient patronage is not forthcoming the matinee will of course be closed forthwith. Be on hand and witness a game of baseball by telegraph. It's great.
