

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willimantic, Conn.—“For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health.”—Mrs. ETTA DONOVAN, Box 209, Willimantic, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

NORFOLK & SOUTHERN OFFICIALS IN THE CITY

Mr. E. T. Lamb, the newly appointed receiver of the Norfolk and Southern Railway Co., who is to be general manager of the road, was in the city to-day, making a tour of inspection over the property. With him were Messrs. R. P. Foster, superintendent of this division, with headquarters at New Bern; R. A. Braxton, of Norfolk, one of the attorneys for the road, and Osmond J. Perry, the New York millionaire who was one of the promoters of the road.

It is rumored that Mr. Perry is planning the reorganization of the road and the discharge of the receivership. Mr. Perry was one of the powers that engineered the financing and establishment of the road and is said to be the owner of many thousand acres of fine forests in the eastern part of the State, along the line of the N. and S.

The party visited the North Carolina Corporation Commission this morning for the purpose of paying their respects to that tribunal, and later visited the offices of Col. A. B. Andrews in the Masonic Temple.

Upchurch Acquitted.

sing or disturbing the peace of the city at the time mentioned by Alderman Peebles, and that, in fact, he was not on Fayetteville street or in the neighborhood when the disturbance was said to have occurred.

The judge held that it was not necessary to examine the witnesses for the defense and the case, which has given rise to a great deal of talk since Mr. Upchurch was arrested Saturday, was abruptly dropped.

Other cases were taken up and settled in short order, as follows:

Fred Miller, white, pleaded guilty of being drunk on the streets. Fined $5 and costs.

J. A. Bailey, white, was charged with being drunk on the streets and with the larceny of a package of collars. The young man pleaded guilty of being drunk, but his mind was an absolute blank as to the collars. From the testimony there was no evidence of criminal intent in the taking of the collars and the larceny case was dismissed. He was fined $5 and costs for being drunk on the streets.

Henry Olive paid $2.35 for leaving his horse unblocked on the streets.

Charley Sledge, colored, paid $2 fine and $2.75 costs for inviting another coon to a change of residence, telling him to go at once to a very warm unmentionable region “from whose bourne no traveler returns.”

John Cheek, one of the boys charged with the disturbance for which Alderman Upchurch was arrested, tried and acquitted, as above told, submitted to the charge and was taxed with costs, $2.75.

Automobile Registration. Chapter 445 of the Public Laws of 1909 requires all motor vehicles to be registered by July 1, 1909. Blank applications for such registration may be had upon application to the secretary of state. The penalty for operating an unregistered machine is a fine of not exceeding fifty dollars or thirty days imprisonment, or both.

WRIGHT GETTING READY FOR FLIGHT

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, June 21.—This morning the Wright brothers are at the balloon shed on the Fort Myer parade ground, where they are getting their aeroplane in shape.

“When are you going to fly?” “Probably not until the last of the week,” replied Orville Wright. “The machine is not yet assembled, and it may be Thursday before we will be able to make a flight. There will be considerable work yet in getting it ready to fly.”

“We hope to make better time with these flights than were made in France, the average record there being thirty-nine miles an hour. We have to do only thirty-six miles an hour to fulfill the government contract, but hope to beat that several miles.”

“L.” said Orville, “will make the flights but Wilbur will be carried as a passenger several times.”

“One of us will go to Europe before the completion of the contract here and the other one will return to Dayton.”

“Beyond the flights here and the Europe trip we have no plans settled for the future.”

LONG RIDE IN BOX CAR.

Car Carried From Kansas City to Denver Before Being Discovered.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Denver, Col., June 21.—While Mabel Warren, aged 13, was playing in a box car in the Kansas City freight yards Thursday she fell asleep. When she awoke she found that the car was moving, it was dark, and her screams for help were not answered. Then she cried herself to sleep.

She awoke again and heard rain on the roof of the car when stops were made, but could not make herself heard and was carried on west.

The car rolled into Denver Saturday night and yardmen heard faint cries for help as they passed. They found the girl nearly starved and sent her to the police station, where she was cared for temporarily. She was sent back to-day to her grandmother in Kansas City.

SIGHT-SEEING AUTO SMASHES INTO TREE

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, June 21.—Fourteen persons on a sightseeing automobile were injured, one perhaps fatally, when the machine became unmanageable early to-day while returning on Ocean Boulevard from Coney Island and dashed at a high rate of speed into a tree at Avenue Y.

The machine was homeward bound at a fast clip when the chauffeur, William Loesch, discovered at Avenue Z that he could not shut off the speed as the machinery was out of order. Women screamed and tried to jump out when it became known the chauffeur had no control over the car. They were restrained by companions. At Avenue Y the machine would not mind the steering gear and ran into a tree and turned over, throwing the occupants out.

Two automobiles came along and took the six most seriously injured to the Coney Island Hospital.

WHITE IMPLICATES PERSONS HIGHER UP

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

New York, June 21.—Geo. White, who was convicted of smuggling in the United States district court and who was sentenced last week to the federal prison at Atlanta, made a full confession before the United States grand jury today. His evidence is kept secret until action is taken but it is known that he laid bare the secrets of the notorious syndicate. Prominent persons are to be named in indictments, according to the predictions in the federal building. It was only after much persuasion that he decided to tell of the people higher up in the great conspiracy to defraud the government out of millions of dollars in revenues and it is said that before he has finished revelations of the most startling nature will be made.

The government authorities are zealously guarding the names made public by White and they refuse to tell anything of the testimony given by the witness. Ever since the initial revelations concerning the syndicate government authorities have been prosecuting a rigorous investigation. It is reported that the evidence they now have in hand may implicate persons of high reputations.

MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA

Order Has Complied With Law and May Now do Business in North Carolina.

Sometime ago this fraternal order refused to comply with the law in this state requiring that an advanced assessment should be kept on deposit in the state by every company, association or order doing business upon the mutual or assessment plan, and in consequence of this the insurance commissioner cancelled their license to do business in the state.

Commissioner Young says that this order has now been complied with the law above referred to by making the necessary deposit and that he has granted them permission to do business in the state. He says that all members of the order who received certificates prior to the revocation of the license of the order and were protected since that time, would not be entitled to a return of their money, even if they so elected, but that all citizens of the state who had been solicited to become members of this order and had paid the necessary fees but had not received a certificate prior to the revocation of the license of the company are by the terms on which the order is allowed to re-enter the state, entitled to a return of the amount paid by them instead of continuing as members of the order, if they so elect.

Soon after his return this morning Mr. Wickersham visited the White House. At 10 o'clock he was still in conference with the president. It is believed the object of their talk is the present proceedings in the sugar trust prosecution and the president's proposed income tax measure.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: “Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended a bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint.”—King-Crowell Drug Co., corner Fayetteville and Hargett streets.
