

SOCIETY.

A PRITTON TO TIME.

Touch us gently, Time!
 Let us glide down 'thy stream,
 Gently as we sometimes glide
 Through a quiet dream!
 Humble voyagers are we,
 Husband, wife and children three—
 (One is lost—an angel, fled
 To the azure overhead).

Touch us gently, Time!
 We've not proud nor soaring wings;
 Our ambition, our content,
 Lies in simple things.
 Humble voyagers are we
 O'er life's dim, unbounded sea,
 Seeking only some calm clime—
 Touch us gently, gentle Time!

LAKE MATTAMUSKEET

Will Be Sold by the State Board of Education

It is Said That Mr. J. O. Wright, United States Drainage Expert, Has Effected Sale to Ohio Capitalists. $2 Per Acre—Sold on Condition That Lake Must Be Drained.

The state board of education held a lengthy session this morning, the subject under consideration being the sale of Lake Mattamuskeet. When seen today after the meeting State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, secretary of the board, had but little information to give out. He stated authoritatively, however, that Lake Mattamuskeet would be drained.

From other sources it is learned that a sale of the property has been effected through J. O. Wright, the United States drainage expert. A party of Ohio capitalists have offered to take the property over at a price of $100,000, an average of $2.00 per acre. The North Carolina board of education has practically decided to accept the offer.

It is also learned that the sale is conditioned on the formation by the Ohio parties of a North Carolina corporation to drain the lake and that the purchasers must join in the drainage project with other land-holders in the Williamsport drainage district. This will insure the drainage of that fertile region and at the same time allow the state to get the burden off its hands at a satisfactory figure.

A NEGRO SHOT.

A Trivial Matter Results in Shooting. Victim Will Die.

News has just reached the city of a near-homicide in Barton's Creek township in which Henry Johnson, colored, did the shooting, and Charley Johnson, his brother, was the victim. The trouble arose over a very trivial matter. It is said that Charley was using his brother's "Sunday tie" to wipe his feet with, when Henry, in a fit of rage, seized a Winchester rifle and shot his brother at close range. The ball passed entirely through the body, perforating the right lung. The negro will probably die.

N. C. STANDARD FOR ILLUMINATING OILS.

Elliott Closed Cup Adopted For Test by Oil Committee.

The oil committee has adopted the Elliott closed cup to determine the standard for illuminating oils in this state. Upon this subject Mr. R. N. Reed, manager of the Gulf Refining Company, Atlanta, Ga., in a letter to Commissioner Graham, says:

"I note there is some discussion as to style of fire-testing cup to be adopted. The Elliott closed cup is the best and most severe testing cup now in use in any of the states, north or south. It is impossible to obtain other than a correct test when the Elliott closed cup is used. The writer, or any other oil man who is thoroughly posted, can take and open cup made and make the test vary from 12 to 15 degrees. This of course depending on where the device is setting at time test is made. If in a slight draft the vapors will be carried away as fast as formed, whereas in the Elliott closed cup there is no chance for them to be blown away, they accumulating under the closed cup.

"Pardon me for writing you on this subject, but I assume it is the desire of you and the other state officials to adopt the best testing cup, thereby assuring all residents of the state that they will secure a safe and satisfactory illuminating oil."

DEATH OF MRS. J. S. STELL.

Mother of Chief of Police J. P. Stell of This City.

Mrs. J. S. Stell died at her home, Rolesville, N. C., June 28, 1909. She had been confined to her room nearly three years, had not walked in two years. She was the mother of nine children, four dead and five living. Those living are: Mrs. J. A. Wiggins, G. D. Stell, Miss Minnie Stell, of Rolesville; J. P. Stell, of Raleigh, and Mrs. J. C. Aiken, of Zebulon. She leaves an aged husband, to whom she was married in January, 1855.

Mrs. Stell was a member of Rolesville Baptist church and had been for many years. The burial services were conducted by Dr. W. C. Royal, of Wake Forest, and the interment was in the family burying ground, near her home.

Mrs. Stell was 79 years old, and one of the finest types of Christians.
