THE TIMES' DAILY FINANCIAL STORY

(By T. C. Shotwell.)

New York, July 19.—New high records for Southern Pacific, Atchafalaya and the Rock Island shares were features of the early trading in Wall Street today. The market opened with most issues showing slight gains. Shortly after the beginning of trading, Southern Pacific sold at 153 1-8, the highest price in its history. Owing to the continuous good weather throughout the corn belt, stocks of roads whose lines traverse that territory were strong. Atchafalaya reached the new high record of 117 1-2 and Rock Island common 35 3-8 and preferred at 74. The Hill shares were also strong. Great Northern preferred advancing half a point and Northern Pacific 7-8. Union Pacific was steady at 198 3-4. St. Paul became more active for the first time in many weeks, and advanced nearly two points. Wabash preferred was a fraction higher. Profit-taking continued in the steel issues on a light scale. The common declined 3/8 and the preferred 1-4. Speculation in these shares was not as heavy as recently. American shares were strong in London under leadership of Union Pacific. Gloux was the strong issue on the New York curb market during the early trading. On a moderate volume of transactions it crossed 10.

New York Cotton Letter.

(By W. B. Hibbs and Company.) New York, July 19.—The market was subjected to further aggressive raids by the sold-out bulls and leading operators who took the bear side last week to shake out the Wall Street, Chicago, Southern and other outsiders who had been such large buyers during the recent bullish activity. These drives seemed to clean up the remaining scattered weak long speculative interests. There was no evidence that any of the big operators here, at New Orleans, Augusta and Chicago, were influenced to any extent by this movement. Reports circulated before the opening here and at Liverpool that the drought in Texas had been broken by heavy rains caused much anxiety in the early trading but proved to be exaggerated. We believe the scare over the technical speculative position of the market during the break of one cent per pound or 35 per bale during the past four days from recent high prices has more than discounted the favorable sentimental effect of such anticipated rains in Texas, which are yet to occur. It is our opinion further prices have been as unduly depressed on this strip to 11 7-8 cents as they were carried too high during bulges last week ago today, to 12 7-8. We would rather adhere to a conservative position on the bull side and continue to favor purchases of the new crop options. We feel if such wariness are now judiciously made on whether declines they will show good profits in the near future.

Cotton-seed Oil.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, July 19.—Cotton-seed oil prices, based on prime yellow, ranged as follows: Closing. July 5.50 @ 5.60. August 5.55 @ 5.64. September 5.69 @ 5.70. October 5.81 @ 5.84. November 5.70 @ 5.74. December 5.64 @ 5.69. January 5.71 @ 5.72. Market closed quiet; sales, 1,500 barrels. Spot oil, 5.50 @ 5.63.

THE GLIDDENITES STRIKE BAD ROADS

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Minneapolis, Minn., July 19.—The Glidden automobile tourists departed from here at 8 o'clock a. m. today for Mankato, Minn., their estimated speed for the day's run being three minutes to the mile. Today's run of 132 miles is the shortest of the entire trip and the contenders got their first taste of real gumbo roads. The talk of stiffening the schedule was dropped today after striking the bad roads. There is also a prospect of rainy weather ahead. Great crowds turned out today to see the departure of the Gliddenites from the city.

Dr. Elliot For Governor.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Boston, July 19.—There is in this city a strong movement to make ex-President Charles W. Elliot, of Harvard, the next governor of Massachusetts. The movement is said to be non-partisan and is taking the form of a monster petition, which will be presented to Dr. Elliot asking him to run.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.

Robber Snatches Bag Containing $800 From Woman, But is Caught.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, July 19.—A bold attempt to rob Mrs. Rose Sleshman, of 691 East 184th street, of $800 was made in the Drydock Bank at Third street and the Bowery today by a man who gave his name as Aaron Woldberg, a cigarmaker. Woldberg snatched the handbag containing the money from Mrs. Sleshman as she was waiting to deposit it and fled into the street. He was captured and taken to the office of the president of the bank, Andrew Mills. He put up a hard fight in the office and was overcome only after Mr. Mills, the cashier, and a clerk had pinned him to the floor. On his person was found a Drydock Bank book with an entry of $20,000. Woldberg had deposited just $20 and the entry had been raised. He was arraigned and held, charged with assault and robbery.
