

Sutton Had an Appointment With the Girl

Major Leonard asked the witness if a man lying on the ground could fire the gun in the manner described. The physician declared that unless Sutton's arms had been pinioned in such a way that he could not free himself the wound could be inflicted.

Colonel Charles A. Doyen, the commander of the marine barracks the night Sutton died was then called. He said that after midnight he had been aroused by Lieutenant Utley. "Utley called to me, 'Lieutenant Sutton has killed Lieutenant Roelker and shot himself,' was the material testimony the commander gave.

Davis argued that the evidence was not admissible. He asked the court to exclude it on the ground that it was only hearsay. "I don't know what other court may be asked to pass on the record of this proceeding and I want to keep it free from error," Davis explained. The first official notification that the Suttons have decided to take the case to a federal court, probably for criminal action, caused a stir among the wives and friends of the naval men. The court ruled to allow the testimony.

"I went along with Lieutenant Utley and found Lieutenant Sutton lying on the ground, his head supported by a hospital apprentice. The apprentice told me in response to questions that Sutton had been shot in the forehead. I asked where Adams and Roelker were and was told they had gone to the hospital to have their wounds dressed."

The colonel furnished additional corroboration of the testimony in regard to the injuries of Adams and Roelker.

"Roelker gave me the bullet which had pierced his coat, inflicting only a bruise on the body," he went on. "There was nothing to indicate that the bullet had come in contact with anything."

Q—What was Lieutenant Adams' condition?
A—He was very much excited but dead sober.

The witness proceeded to relate Adams' version of the fighting. This testimony, Colonel Doyen said, was given ten minutes after the alarm had been raised and it coincided in many respects to the lieutenant's narrative. It included the stories of Bevan, Adams and Utley. "I did not question Lieutenant Roelker, because I felt that he was under the influence of liquor and could not be depended upon," Colonel Doyen said.

Adjournment was then taken until 2 p. m.

Annapolis, Md., July 22—A story told by Miss Mary Elizabeth Stewart, the Pittsburgh society girl, of the events which preceded the tragic death of Lieutenant James N. Sutton, shows conclusively that the young man did not commit suicide according to a statement made today by Mrs. James N. Sutton, Sutton's mother.

Mrs. Sutton, who is to take the stand at the inquiry into her son's strange death, said that she expected to prove that he had been slain.

Miss Stewart is at present in Canada. She has sent a letter to Judge Advocate Major Henry Leonard, in which she tells of her parts in the events which preceded the tragedy.

The girl's statement that she had an appointment to meet young Sutton seven hours after he met his death, according to Mrs. Sutton, shows conclusively that the dead man had no thought of ending his life. It was on Sunday morning they were to have met, Miss Stewart said, and they had planned to attend St. Mary's Catholic church.

"We feel sure that Miss Stewart's letter will prove our point that Jimmy did not commit suicide," Mrs. Sutton declared today. "He had an appointment to meet Miss Stewart seven hours after he was murdered. The letter was written a short time before he met his death, and it is unreasonable to suppose that he had any thought of doing away with him-

Singer Talks

What Perfect Adjustment Means

If you've ever had the misfortune to own a cheaply constructed sewing machine, you'll know what it means to have parts constantly breaking, or the machine refuse to run for some seemingly unaccountable reason.

Singer quality and the perfect adjustment of every Singer machine save you such discouraging experiences. Every Singer runs so light and easy as to require practically no effort on your part to do the heaviest sewing.

Many women use a Singer who haven't strength enough to operate ordinary machines. The Singer does all the work, runs noiselessly and does not easily get out of order.

Should repairs or new parts, needies, etc., ever be needed there's always a Singer store nearby to save you annoying delays.

self at that time."

Another interesting development in the case today was the announcement that Lieutenant Edward P. Roelker, the missing witness whose testimony, it is believed, would go a great way toward clearing up the mystery, has been located in Kittanning, Pa. It was said that he is in the company of a former midshipman of the navy.

According to information in the possession of the judge advocate, Roelker was recently seen with the son of a captain of the navy, who is at present located in Washington. Secret service agents were at once sent to Kittanning with authority to bring Roelker to the inquiry.

One thing has been definitely established. The board of inquiry which looked into Sutton's death was a most irregular body, its verdict was reached after the most meagre investigation. It was established that two members of the board were witnesses at the same time. Commander Hoggewerff was president of the board. Major Fuller represented the marine corps, and Surgeon Cook was the other naval member. Lieutenant Willing was the recorder. The testimony of one of the outsiders concerned was taken and the guns with which Sutton was said to be armed were not even identified.

SHIPPING GOLD TO ARGENTINE

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New York, July 22—Carrying nearly $7,000,000 in gold to swell the war treasury chest of the Argentine republic, the liner Verdi, of the Lamport and Holt Line, sailed today for Buenos Ayres. Not the slightest fear is felt for the safety of the money through the warlike attitude of Bolivia because Bolivia has neither navy nor privateers and so cannot molest the Verdi and her burden.

The United States has shipped more gold to the Argentine republic this year than the combined amounts during the past ten years. This progressive South American republic has been steadily building up a gold reserve until it now aggregates $30,000,000. Bankers have felt for months that the steady flood of gold was not needed for trade balances and the diplomatic break with Bolivia has confirmed their suspicions.

Argentina's preparations for war have been carefully made. While building up a war fund Argentina has not neglected her fighting machines and now has half a dozen staunch warships and a score of lesser war craft with which to protect her merchant marine.

NO LIVES LOST AT GALVESTON

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

Galveston, Tex., July 22—While no lives were lost in Galveston during the hurricane and flood, it was reported today that sixteen persons perished on the Tarpon fishing pier at North Jetty, six miles from the city across the bay. Galveston was saved by her seventeen foot $2,000,000 sea wall elevated to a point above the danger line. The hurricanes resembled the disastrous storm of 1900.

Those drowned were members of a fishing party and employes of the Tarpon Jetty.

Boats were sent to their assistance and it was learned that the house in which they sought refuge had been washed away.

While it is impossible to get an accurate list of the dead, the best list obtainable is as follows:
Captain Bettison and wife.
Edward Lewis.
E. Daly, formerly of Chicago.
Four negroes.
The others are unknown.

Part of the island on which Galveston is situated was inundated, the overflowing sea water reaching a height of seven feet or more. That portion of the island which has been protected suffered comparatively little harm.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms.—King-Crowell Drug Company.

Daily Becoming Less Wearisome to Many in Raleigh.
With a back that aches all day, With rest disturbed at night, Annoying urinary disorders, 'Tis a weary way, indeed.
Doan's Kidney Pills drive weariness away.

Are endorsed by Raleigh citizens. Mrs. M. J. Brown, 311 South Person street, Raleigh, N. C., says: "I can most cheerfully recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as the benefit I obtained from their use proved them to be a remedy of merit. I suffered for several years from kidney and bladder trouble. The kidney secretions were unnatural, deposited a sediment and were distressing in passage. Backache also bothered me considerably and although I doctored and tried several remedies, I was unable to get relief. Finally procuring Doan's Kidney Pills from the Bobbitt-Wynne Drug Co., I began their use and was afforded more relief than from any other remedy I had previously taken. At the present time, I am without a sign of kidney complaint and can only give the credit of my cure to Doan's Kidney Pills."

BODY OF MAN FOUND IN TRUNK

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

Lynn, Mass., July 22—Minas Moon-ijian, who came from Chicago recently in a trunk, at a lodging house in Lynn. Wahen Demenger, in whose room the murdered man was found, is being sought by the police. He left Monday and it is believed started for Constantinople. The body was packed in a steel clad trunk but the blood from a bullet wound which went through the body and pierced the heart had soaked through a corner of the trunk so that the odor attracted the landlady's attention. A book in the murdered man's pocket contained the address "A Huff, No. 168 Dearborn Avenue." As Moon-ijian came here from Chicago, the address is believed to be in that city.

To add horror to the discovery the Lynn police say they are not sure yet that the man was dead when put into the trunk.

GREAT CAVES DISCOVERED

Professor Hewitt Finds Caves and Ancient and Mysterious Ruins in Arizona.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Denver, Col., July 22—Great caves, many of them the far-famed caverns of the region with chasms and vaulted ceilings, in which an office building had been removed away and surrounded by ancient and mysterious ruins never before visited by white men have just been discovered by Prof. Edgar L. Hewitt, the archaeologist, in the northeastern part of Arizona.

The caves have long been told of by Indians, but white men doubted their existence until a Navajoes guide led Professor Hewitt to them. He says the caves, ruins, and natural bridges were found without difficulty and exactly as the Indian legend had described them. Some of the caverns he and the guide visited were large enough to contain the Singer building and others contained curious formations unlike anything he had ever seen. Several natural bridges between hills in the vicinity were so large as to make the rock bridges of Utah and Virginia puny by comparison. The ruins contain relics, household articles and remains of a race of which the archaeologists have been in ignorance.

DUTY ON HIDES.

Representative Payne Does Not Believe That Even With the Assistance of the President He Can Get Hides on Free List.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Washington, July 22—Representative Payne does not believe that even with the assistance of President Taft he will be able to have hides placed on the free list. The chairman of the ways and means committee said today that the situation as to hides is about the same as when the Dingley bill was in conference 12 years ago. At that time Senator Aldrich, to get the necessary votes to pass the Dingley bill, made concessions to certain western senators. One of these was the duty of 15 per cent. on hides. President McKinley, at the time, let it be known that he favored free hides, the house being strongly for it. In conference the senate amendment on hides caused a deadlock ending by the house conferees yielding to the senate.

It is believed history will repeat itself here soon with this modification, that the duty will be reduced to 10 per cent.
