

Weather.

Washington, July 28—Forecast for North Carolina for tonight and Thursday: Partly cloudy with local showers tonight.

The Evening Times

LAST EDITION

ESTABLISHED 1876.

RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JULY 28, 1909.

PRICE 5 CENTS

INFURIATED MOB GOES ON RAMPAGE IN BARCELONA

City is Now in the Hands of the Government Troops

SEVERAL ARE KILLED GO OVER EVIDENCE

City of Barcelona riot-stricken and torn with indiscriminate dynamiting—Mobs swept through the streets dynamiting churches and public buildings before the troops could get them under control—Three rioters killed, 50 wounded, and 120 in jail—People became more restive with the impounding of troops and there are loud mutterings today.

(By Cable to The Times) Madrid, July 28.—The city of Barcelona, riot-stricken and torn with indiscriminate dynamiting, is in the hands of the government and civil guard today, following the most serious outbreak yet occurring. Infuriated mobs swept through the streets dynamiting churches and public buildings before the troops and police could get them under control. Additional troops today by the government. The monastery at Pueblo Nuevo was dynamited and one monk was killed and others injured. Railroad cars were burned or blown to pieces. The bridges of the Tarragona Railroad outside the city were dynamited while the rioters, incited by their own violence, drove back the police, who tried to interfere. The latest casualties are three rioters killed, 50 wounded, and 120 in jail. Thirty police officers have been wounded, some of them seriously. The situation, already grave, reached the climax today. With the impounding of armed men to reinforce the civil guards, the people became restive and those who had taken part in the rioting tried once again to incite the lawless characters to further action. The strikers, angry at the government account of the Moroccan war, were further incited today by the arrival of additional troops to quell disturbances. With the troops encamped in the streets and ready to put down uprisings with broodsness, if necessary, the feeling was intense. Bands of idle men who gathered in the streets were dispersed by the troops and there were loud mutterings of further warfare. Some of the streets look as if they had been visited by an earthquake. The street car rails have been torn up, demolished cars strewn the thoroughfares and the debris from partially destroyed buildings obstruct the passage ways. Shops are closed and many of the residents fear to venture from their homes. By the cutting of the telegraph wires connecting Barcelona with Madrid it was impossible for a time to learn the details of the destruction visited upon the city by the rioters. The latest report stated that bands of strikers visited manufactories where men were still at work, compelling them to quit under penalty of injury. Casks of wine were rolled into the streets, the heads knocked in and emptied. Sober rioters were violent, but drunk they became ferocious. It is reported that banks were looted, although the civil authorities and soldiers were posted about these and public buildings, endeavoring to save them. St. Paul's church, near Barcelona, was burned and the parochial school dynamited. In vain did the insufficient force of armed guards attempt to drive back the mobs. With the additional troops today the authorities hope to restore order as soon as possible. Late reports from Melilla today state that the battle between the Moors and the Spanish troops holding the garrison was resumed with great fierceness outside the city this morning. Official messages received bear out the reports that the casualties in today's fighting were very heavy. While no figures have been received the government believes that the Spanish loss will be the heaviest yet befalling their troops. There is an unconfirmed report that two companies of Spanish troops mutinied and refused to go into battle. Martial law at Tarragona and Girona in addition to Barcelona today is the only thing which has kept

MRS. SUTTON TO CARRY CASE TO FEDERAL COURTS

Has Received Assurance That Original Finding Cannot Be Sustained

GO OVER EVIDENCE

Mrs. Sutton Has Received Assurance From a Member of the Court of Inquiry That the Original Finding of Suicide Cannot be Sustained—Will Carry Case to the Federal Court—Mrs. Sutton and Her Daughter Go Over the Document—Any Evidence in Their Possession—Says It Seems Unusual That Judge Should Halt the Case Just When She is Ready to Present the Most Material Facts.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Washington, D. C., July 28.—Mrs. James N. Sutton, mother of the lieutenant of marines whose mysterious death after a fistic encounter with fellow officers brought about the inquiry before the naval court intends to take her fight for justice to the federal courts despite the fact that she has received the assurance of a member of the court that the original finding of suicide cannot be sustained. While the attorneys prepared the evidence they hope to present to the court when the sessions are resumed, Mrs. Sutton and her daughter, Mrs. Rose Sutton Parker, remained in the Burlington apartment house today going over a mass of documentary evidence by which the two women expect to prove that a crime was committed. It seems unusual that the judge advocate should halt the inquiry just at the moment when he hoped to present to the court the most material facts in the case," Mrs. Parker said. "The clothing worn by Jimmy the night he was shot, and the letters showing that he had been challenged to a duel shortly before were to be laid before the court as soon as I become a witness. "Now that we have been placed in the position of accusing one of the officers of having murdered my brother, we will give to the board all the evidence we have and spare no one." While awaiting the arrival of Lieutenant Utley, the two women will make an effort to induce Attorney Davis to agree to have the body of the marine officer exhumed from Arlington cemetery. If this step is taken, it is declared that absolute evidence will be furnished to substantiate the belief of the members of the Sutton family that the young officer was beaten to death and then shot in the head to convey the idea that he had committed suicide. It is expected that the hearing will be resumed on August 9. If it is, the rules in force in criminal courts will be followed. This will necessitate the Suttons presenting all the evidence they may have against any or all of the accused lieutenants before the officers are called to the stand.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Washington, July 28.—Characterizing the sudden termination of the Sutton inquiry as an outrage the attorneys for Mrs. James N. Sutton laid before Secretary of the Navy Meyer this afternoon a formal protest, and demand that he order the court of inquiry to resume its sessions as an inquest body and not as a trial board, with Mrs. Sutton as accuser and five officers as defendants. Attorney Henry E. Davis, chief counsel for the Suttons, who are attempting to prove that Lieutenant Sutton did not die a suicide, said that he would decide after receiving the reply of the secretary of the navy whether he would remain in the case. A reply from Secretary Meyer is expected by the attorney in a day or two.

STRIKE IS IMMINENT.

English Coal Miners Vote to Walk Out—Conference Tomorrow.

(By Cable to The Times) London, July 28.—The complications of the votes cast by the coal miners of England upon the proposition to strike shows an overwhelming majority in favor of a walk-out. The aggregate shows 518,000 ballots in favor of striking and 62,000 against it. Unless a settlement is reached at the conference of miners and operators tomorrow, a strike order will be issued.

Members of Board of Inquiry Probing Sutton's Death

If re are shown the members of the Board of Inquiry which is probing the death of Lieutenant Sutton. From left to right they are Lieutenant Henry Jensen, U. S. N.; Commander John Hood, U. S. N., President of the court; Major W. C. Neville, U. S. M. C., and Major Henry Leonard, U. S. M. C., Judge Advocate.

Senator Stone, of Missouri, Slaps an Impudent Waiter.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Senator Stone, of Missouri, who was arrested in Baltimore yesterday, charged with assaulting a negro waiter in a dining car, while en route to Washington from Delaware, and who was released on his own recognizance, left here at noon to stand trial in the Baltimore police court. When asked about the trouble Senator Stone said that as the affair happened in Delaware he questions jurisdiction of the Maryland courts. The senator said he had no intention of suing the city of Baltimore for false arrest, nor did he care to discuss what future action he might take against the Pullman Company or the Pennsylvania Railroad. He said the published reports of the affair were correct. It is believed here that as the trouble occurred out of the jurisdiction of the Maryland courts the case will be dismissed. He frankly stated that he was on the war path, said he must "be shown" and that it is going to be put up to the Pennsylvania Railroad, on whose line the trouble occurred, to do the exhibiting. After telling of the stupidity of

MOORS GIVE TO SPAIN SEVERE CRUSHING DEFEAT

Mutiny, Slaughter and Moorish Successes Only News That Comes From Melilla

GENERAL PINTO KILLED

Spain Has Suffered Most Crushing Defeat Since Spanish-American War—Reported That Gen. Pinto and Several Members of His Staff Were Killed in Fierce Fighting Today—Several Companies in Melilla Barracks Have Mutinied and Would Not Be Driven Into Today's Fighting, Even at the Point of the Bayonet.

(By Cable to The Times) Lisbon, Portugal, July 28.—Spain has suffered the most crushing defeat since the Spanish-American War—Reported That Gen. Pinto and Several Members of His Staff Were Killed in Fierce Fighting Today—Several Companies in Melilla Barracks Have Mutinied and Would Not Be Driven Into Today's Fighting, Even at the Point of the Bayonet. The rigid censorship established by the Spanish government has failed of its purpose. Despite the vague dispatches of Spanish successes in Morocco and the reports that the mountain passes are cluttered with the corpses of dead tribesmen, it is generally known now that the Kaige and other Moroccan tribesmen from the Rif coast have completely routed the Spaniards. The fall of Melilla is only a matter of time and the driving out of the Spanish from the country of Moors is looked upon now as inevitable. The Spanish batteries at Melilla continued bombarding the Moors today, according to the advices, but until they are dislodged from Mount Gunza, which is 3,000 feet high and dominates the entire peninsula, the Spanish troops face annihilation. To accomplish this a force of 25,000 men will be necessary. Facilities for treating the wounded are totally inadequate. A theatre in Melilla has been converted into a hospital and many wounded lie in the streets. Details of the fighting on July 23, when more than 400 Spaniards were killed, reached here today. The Moors ambushed the Spanish column in the Afior Ravine, cutting up the column and sending them in retreat to the Spanish gunboat Martin Alonzo Pinzon and the Melilla forts.

HARRIMAN A FINANCIAL PEST

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Chautauque, N. Y., July 28.—Mr. Harriman is a great railway administrator, but he is a pest financially. The government would be wise to tax him a million dollars a year to continue his work of consolidating the railroads of the country and to keep out of finance."

This opinion was given here last night by Prof. Charles Zueblin, sociologist, of Boston, and former professor in the University of Chicago, in the course of a scathing arraignment of the modern business man, in which he declared that the business man who possesses courage, character and culture is a rarity. As bad examples he made timely references to Marshall Field, A. J. Cassatt and Russell Sage, and then turned to Harriman, declaring that there was nothing personal in his statements, but that these men simply typify the existing industrial system. The business man in general, Mr. Zueblin attacked with equal force. "The catalogue has been supplanted by the business man's trilogy: 'Business is business,' and 'stand pat.' 'I want what I want' and 'I want it.'"

DEMOCRATS NOT CALLED.

Have Not Been Notified to Attend Conference This Afternoon. (By Leased Wire to The Times) Washington, July 28.—Representative Champ Clark, of Missouri, minority leader and a member of the tariff conference, said this morning that the minority conferees have not been notified to attend the conference this afternoon. He thought it not improbable that they might receive some word from the republican conferees later in the day but he would not be disappointed if the matter went over until tomorrow, as there are several items yet in dispute between the house and senate.

THE CONTEST MANAGER BUSY COUNTING VOTES

Big Bonus Offer Closed at Noon Today With Rush of Votes

THE CONTEST GROWING

Many of the Contestants Took Advantage of the Special Offer and Have Made a Great Gain in Votes. A Splendid Showing Has Been Made and Contestants Should Feel Very Much Pleased—Receiving Many Inquiries About This Great Contest From Every Section of the State—Contest Closes August 26. Easy to Secure Subscribers to The Times—Its Advantages Over Others.

Today at noon the contest department was busy counting votes and issuing certificates of votes. It marked the closing of the 50,000 extra bonus offer and many of the contestants, alive to such offers as has just closed, took advantage of the extra votes and worked hard and earnestly for this great trip. A splendid showing has been made and the contestants should feel very much pleased. This contest has grown more and more interesting every day. From every section of the state we receive daily inquiries about this great contest. Many of the contestants have gotten busy and have advised their friends that they are in to win, their friends seeing the determination they are showing have gone to work and are helping them out. The contest will not last very much longer now, closing August 26. It is never too late to win a prize in a contest of this nature, as the work altogether depends upon the contestant. Get out, tell your friends that you are in the race and that you want this trip. If they are not already taking The Evening Times, get them to subscribe to the best evening paper in the state. When talking to a prospective subscriber, show them the many advantages the paper has over all others. It prints the news first. It is the only afternoon paper in the state that has a leased wire service, which enables The Evening Times to carry the news from 12 to 15 hours ahead of any other paper. Look at the market page, the sporting page. It is a clean sheet, well printed. Just think of the many good things you can say about the paper, and then talk nothing else but The Evening Times. The following rules and information will cover the contest. 1. This is only a subscription contest, and advertising will not be allowed to count for votes. 2. Anybody can enter for the race, boys, girls, men and women. 3. There are no districts to cut you out, and you can send in your subscriptions and have an equal chance no matter where you live. 4. The four people who have the highest number of votes will be awarded the trip. 5. Three judges will be selected on August 26th to count the votes and award the trip to the four people who hold the highest number of votes. 6. Many are asking what will be given in the trip. The itinerary published last Saturday of the trip is what will be given FREE. That outlines the whole trip and tells what will be included free of all cost to the contestants. We give you everything included by the Seaboard in the trip. 7. Votes will be given when money is paid, and no votes will be issued at a later date for money paid now. Get your votes when you pay. 8. People living in other cities will have the same chance to win as the people in Raleigh, because there will be no districts and the four people holding the highest will get the trip. Each person will have the same opportunity to win. 9. Votes cannot be transferred after they have been published in the paper, but until they are published in the paper the person holding them can do as they please with them and vote them for whom they please. 10. No votes will be issued on August 26th, the closing day, but all subscriptions and money will be counted and the votes issued by the Judges. 11. Each week the vote will be published in the paper and the standing of each contestant will be given up to that time. 12. No coupons for votes will be printed in the paper good for votes. This will give contestants outside of Raleigh an equal showing in securing votes. 13. The following schedule gives the number of votes issued for payments on account of and for payments in advance.

THAW WORRIED AND EXCITED BY WIFE IN COURT

Says Her Presence is Part of a Pre-arranged Plan to Worry Him

WILL MAKE OBJECTION

Thaw is Enraged at Evelyn's Presence in Court Room and Will Try to Have Her Excluded—Her Purpose in the Court Room is to Worry Thaw, and if Possible so Unpleasant as to Give Justice Mills the Impression That He is Irrational—Action of Women in the Court Room Yesterday Cited to Prove Contention—Is in Frequent Consultation With Jerome's Assistant.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) White Plains, N. Y., July 28.—That Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's presence in the court room where her husband, Harry K. Thaw is fighting for his freedom, is the result of a prearranged plan on the part of her and others interested in keeping Thaw in a madhouse was the charge made today by one of Thaw's closest advisers. Thaw is enraged and has directed Lawyer Morschauer to have her excluded from the court room. According to this information while Thaw is being subjected to the heckling of Jerome and his assistants she is to occupy a position in the room that will give her a full view of her husband and at the same time afford the latter no chance to avoid seeing her save by turning his head. The purpose of this is to annoy Thaw, and excite him to such a point so unbalance him as to give Justice Mills the impression that he is irrational. To sustain this contention the actions of Evelyn Thaw in the courtroom yesterday are cited. Her obvious attempt to catch the eye of her husband and out-stare him, her whispered half-sneering comment upon the testimony, audible to but few in the room, but easily interpreted by Thaw, her frequent consultation with Dan Murphy, Jerome's assistant, and her promise to be on hand during the remaining days of Thaw's ordeal, are all given as basis for the charge. Evelyn has sworn that Thaw has made a threat to kill her as soon as he is released, she had declared under oath that she fears he will carry out his threat if he gets his freedom and she has expressed her desire that his efforts in that direction fail. It was said today that the booklet published under the title "Secret Unveiled," by Mrs. Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, is having an enormous sale. The crisis of Harry Thaw's fight for liberty was reached this morning when he was called to the stand to be examined as to his sanity. At exactly 9:45 o'clock, the time set by Justice Mills for the opening of court, Thaw, his mother, sister and his half-brother, Josiah Thaw, and wife, arrived. District Attorney Jerome and those assisting him, came in at 10 o'clock; Justice Mills a minute later. The usual exchange of greetings between Thaw and Jerome was omitted. Thaw was looking straight at the marble front and gave no notice of being conscious of Jerome's presence. Jerome took one glance at Thaw and finding him non-communicative, busied himself preparing his papers for the beginning of business. Dr. Isham G. Harris, assistant superintendent of the Hudson River state hospital for insane at Poughkeepsie, was recalled and at the request of Mr. Morschauer read a report of the history of Harry Thaw given him by Mrs. Thaw, mother of the relator. Mr. Morschauer said he would later call Mrs. William Thaw to the stand. Thaw was called at 10:07. He made a good impression at the start, answering all Jerome's questions in a clear voice but taking plenty of time to carefully weigh the import. Jerome asked at the outset: "You understand the nature of these proceedings?" "Yes, to find out if I am properly in prison."

"Why are you in prison?" "Because when he jury acquitted me, Justice Dowling sent me there." "You killed White, didn't you?" "Turning to the justice, Thaw asked if he was compelled to answer that." (Continued on Page Five.)

(Continued on Page Five.)