FUNERAL OF MR. BUSBEE.

Impressive Service at Christ Church. Services at Grave Conducted by Odd Fellows.

The funeral over the remains of the late Charles M. Busbee was conducted from Christ Church yesterday afternoon at six o'clock, the hour being postponed from 5:30 in order that relatives, who arrived on the eastbound Southern train, could attend. The services at the open grave were solemn and impressive, they being conducted by Bishop Joseph Chesire and the pastor, Rev. Milton A. Barber. The services at the open grave were conducted by the Odd Fellows, who attended in a body, one hundred strong. The interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Besides the Odd Fellows, the Attorneys of the city and the Vestrymen of Christ Church attended the services in a body. With the vestry were Dr. Richard H. Lewis, Senior Warden; Hon. James L. Johnson, Gen. C. A. Woodruff, Robert L. White, F. P. Hayward, John Ward, W. H. Williamson.

The offering of the flowers was most elaborate and it is doubtful if so many floral designs have ever been seen in this city before. They were sent from many sections of the state and were tokens in a measure of the high esteem in which this noble gentleman was held among his brother Odd Fellows and the people generally.

THE TIMES' DAILY FINANCIAL STORY

(B. T. C. Shotwell.) New York, August 9—The week began in Wall street with two new high records. One was in Great Northern Ore certificates and the other in Atchison. The Ore certificates were purchased because the steel trust will take a record amount of ore this season.

Among the specialties that were active was American Ice, which crossed 40. Chesapeake & Ohio made a record of 81. Rock Island also made a record above 40. Cotton broke nearly $1 a bale and wheat was 1/2c. lower in Chicago. London sold stocks freely before the New York opening and caused reaction of 1/2 point in some cases.

Business was very light when the American market opened and the usual Monday morning rush of investment orders was not forthcoming. New York Cotton Letter. (By W. B. Hibbs & Co.) New York, Aug. 9—The market weakened still further from the opening today under the pressure of further scattered liquidation and a continuance of the bearish activity noted throughout last week.

Further good rains at a number of places in Texas was reported early in Liverpool, accompanied by large selling orders from this side and that market's decline of 10 to 11 points on spots and futures in connection with the further sentimental effect of the rains in Texas further weakened the support here from the bull interest and at the same time encouraged the recent leading bears to continue their aggressive position for still lower prices.

As a consequence the market was very weak in the early trading with the general list declining 18 to 20 points from Saturday's close. This carried all the new crop options down to the basis of 11.80 to 11.85 from October to May. Active covering of shorts caused a rally during the second hour of 10 points, but as soon as this demand was supplied the market slumped again during the noon hour to the early low level.

Its failure to show much rallying power was so discouraging there was no disposition among the bulls to force the issues with the bear element and consequently the market continued dull and heavy throughout the late afternoon.

It is still a case of speculative conditions under the leadership of the local bear element as against no change in crop conditions or the trade situation from those that prevailed last month when government estimates was so bullish. The rainfall in Texas since Saturday has not been sufficient to relieve the drought of the past month in that state, especially throughout the western and northern portions.

New York Stock Market. (By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, August 9—There was a moderate degree of irregularity at the opening of the stock market, but the generally steady tone was displayed. Although some fractional recessions were noted as the dealings progressed in a number of the active speculative issues, these losses were offset by gains in other quarters and before the end of the first 15 minutes the number of advances exceeded the declines.
