STORY OF THE MEXICAN FLOODS

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

Monterey, Mex., Sept. 9.—Village priests who arrived here today told of the destruction by the recent floods in outlying districts. Their stories indicate that the havoc is more widespread and terrible than was at first believed.

The priest of Arramberti has informed Archbishop Lenares that Arramberti was destroyed and that his people are wandering over the country in search of food. Their condition is pitiable. The destruction of the roads has made it impossible to send relief supplies.

The story brought by the priest of LaAscension is even more appalling. He says his town and its population of 2,000 souls have entirely disappeared. He does not know where the people are. They may have taken to the hills or they may have perished.

"Not a stone was left upon a stone in LaAscension," the priest said. "Where there were once rich farms is now nothing but water. I saw people wandering about just like vagrants, seeking food and shelter.

Another priest from Allende says that place also has disappeared with large loss of life and that the neighboring fields have been converted into lakes.

The priests were more than a week making their way to Monterey. They described the destruction as the most awful that ever has been experienced in Mexico. Aid is urgently needed in these outlying districts, particularly as the authorities are busy with Monterey and its vicinity.

Bustamante and LaEscandst have been added to the list of destroyed villages.

The Rio Grande river is overflowing its banks at Matamoros, causing much damage to that city. No details of the damage or loss of life are known. Communication by rail with Matamoros has been destroyed since August 28 and little information is obtainable from there.

PEARY'S DASH COST ONE LIFE

(By Cable to The Times)

London, Sept. 9.—Commander Robert E. Peary's last and successful dash to the Pole cost one human life, that of Prof. Ross G. Marvin who was drowned four days after the pole had been discovered. From Battle Harbor, Labrador, Commander Peary cabled a brief chronological history of his dash.

According to his own statement, the explorer spent two days on the top of the world, arriving there on April 6, 1909 and leaving on April 7, after copious observations had been taken. Commander Peary's brief outline, as cabled here, is as follows:

JOHNSON'S BOOTERS OFFER TEN TO FOUR

(By W. W. Naughton.)

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 9.—Betting on the result of the Johnson-Kaufman bout continues remarkably light. Johnson's backers are still offering odds 10 to 4 that the champion will get the better of the contest with but few takers. Kaufman's friends are betting 2 to 1 that Kaufman will last the full ten rounds and a number of small wagers have been made along this line. One Kaufman offered to bet $30 against $100 that Johnson would not last ten rounds and this was quickly snapped up.

Johnson will arrive in the city today about the noon hour and will go direct to the arena. Kaufman will remain at Millett's until one o'clock and will then make his way to Coffroth's pavilion in company with his handlers, Roscoe Taylor and Tommy McCarthy who are to appear in a preliminary of fifteen rounds, will enter the ring at 2 o'clock Johnson and Kaufman are expected to be in their corners very shortly after 3 o'clock and if the Taylor-McCarthy bout comes to an end within ten rounds it is likely that Johnson and Kaufman will begin fighting before three.

Very light work was the rule at both camps yesterday. Kaufman went out on the road and tried his hand at sprinting several times. In the afternoon he went in for a short spell of shadow boxing.

Johnson's program was practically the same.

Secretary Knox Back.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Washington, Sept. 9.—Secretary of State Knox returned to Washington yesterday and spent the day at the state department. He came here from Beverly, Mass., where he recently has been in conference with President Taft. There have been several important matters pending to which Secretary Knox wished to give his personal attention.

AFTER THE MURDERER.

Police Have the Name of Man Responsible for Miss Millman's Death.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Detroit, Mich., Sept. 9.—Chief of Detective McDonnell stated early today that the police are in possession of the name of the young man who is supposed to be responsible for the condition of Miss Mabel Millman, whose mutilated body was found in two sacks in Ecorse Creek Monday morning, and that it was expected an arrest would be made today.

After a grueling examination by the police, Martha Henning, chum of the dead girl, confessed that Mabel had confided her condition to her and asked her to help her in securing a doctor.

The Henning girl recommended Dr. Fritch and called the doctor up by request of the Millman girl. An appointment was made and together they visited the office of Dr. Fritch. Here the Millman girl had a conference with the physician and on leaving the office she informed Miss Henning that everything was "fixed". The next day she left the boarding house of Miss Henning, supposedly to keep the engagement made with the doctor.

Increase in Revenues.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, Sept. 9.—The report of customs receipts from all ports yesterday received by the secretary of the treasury shows a continued increase in the revenues. The total for the day was $1,445,669 as compared with $1,138,987 of last year. More than $1,000,000 of yesterday's receipts were from New York.

STREET CAR MEN VOTE AGAINST WAGE SCALE

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Eighteen hundred men, employees of the Chicago City Railway Companies in the referendum vote taken on the proposition of accepting the tentative wage scale are declared to have voted against and 300 for it, thus placing an immediate settlement of the long drawn trouble in the background and forcing more conferences between the unions and the officials of the traction company.

Many people delude themselves by saying "It will wear away," when they notice symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. This is a mistake. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy, and stop the drain on the vitality. It cures backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and makes every trace of pain, weakness, and urinary trouble disappear.—King-Crowell Drug Co., Fayetteville and Hargett streets.

NOT EVIDENCE ENOUGH TO CONVICT WHITLEY

The case against Mr. J. P. Whitley, charged with selling one-half pint of corn whiskey to Buck Buffalo Tuesday, was heard by Police Justice Stronach this morning.

Mr. Whitley was represented by Attorney R. N. Sims, while the prosecution was attended to by City Attorney Clark.

The first and only witness for the state was Buck Buffalo. He stated that he went to Whitley's store, on the corner of Blount and Martin streets, some time Tuesday afternoon and bought one-half pint of whiskey from Whitley, paying twenty-five cents for it. Said he had been drinking. Got it from behind the counter, he thought.

On cross-examination he stated that he did not know exactly what time it was, nor who were there; that the store has glass front; that many people, many of them ladies, traded there. Said he was arrested for being drunk soon after leaving the store. Here the state rested.

Mr. Whitley was the first witness for the defense. Stated that he had been in mercantile business six or eight years. At present location three years. Store has large glass front and side door opens on Blount street. No partitions. Buffalo did not enter my store Tuesday, only came to the door. Witness told him to leave as he was drunk, and he left.

Cross-examination. I do not drink. Sold near beer until week before city license went into effect. Have never had any whiskey in my place. Did not send Buffalo twenty-five cents Wednesday morning. Someone phoned me to send him something to eat, but paid no attention to it.

Mr. Jackson, next witness for defense, said he was at Whitley's when Buffalo came up. Whitley told Buck to leave, and he left without entering the store. Saw no whiskey.

On cross-examination he said he had had a drink today. Was sent to the roads about eighteen or twenty years ago for refusing to tell where he bought whiskey. I order my liquor, a gallon every two weeks. Doctor prescribed it for me. Took a drink once with Whitley at Milburnie.

Ernest Bridgers: Was at Whitley's store between 8 and 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Buffalo did not enter store. Only stayed there a few minutes.

Cross-examined, he said he took a drink whenever he wanted to. I order my whiskey. Usually attend whiskey trials because I love to hear them.

Mr. Poole, a clerk for Whitley, have never seen any whiskey in the store. Place too public.

A number of character witnesses were introduced, who said the general character of Mr. Whitley was good.

The court held that there was not sufficient evidence to convict and discharged the defendant.

WILL BEAR IT BRAVELY.

Mrs. Marvin Informed of the Death of Her Son, Member of Peary's Party.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Elmira, N. Y., Sept. 9.—"It is God's will; I will try to bear it bravely," exclaimed Mrs. Mary Marvin, mother of Ross G. Marvin, the young scientist who met death on the Peary expedition, when she received a dispatch from her daughter in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., today, confirming the news.

Marvin was Peary's first assistant, and a professor at Cornell University. He was born in Elmira, N. Y., in 1880, and worked his way through college. Commander Peary wired to Mrs. Marvin's daughter to break the news to her gently.
