A Bad Breath Boon PRIZES TO FARMERS

Her Cheeks Were Aglow Like Roses in Bloom.
Her Lips Red As Cherries That Open.
Her Teeth Like the Pearl;
Her Hair Tangled Curl;
Her Breath Like Sweet Blowing Clover.

So much for poetry. But STUART'S CHARCOAL LOZENGES ARE good as well. They are practical and for every-day use and they will make any one's breath just as sweet and wholesome as the girl's breath in the song. And what is nicer than a sweet, clean breath and what more offensive than a bad, foul one? Every one tries to get rid of it themselves and tolerate it in their friends—but it is awfully trying and puts friendship and sentiment to a severe test.

A bad breath is a sort of unspoken imputation on cleanliness you can't get away from it and can't explain. You can take foolish little remedies to disguise it for an hour or so, but this is suggestive; your breath is unnatural and your friends wonder why.

Bad breath comes once in a while from "heaviness" but there is a quick "effective" remedy for this—the dentist. It comes as a rule 30 times out of 100 from a bad stomach. Foods gone wrong; digestion impaired; directed and a consequent misunderstanding all around.

And meanwhile a bad condition of things is inaugurated. There is flatulence, sour stomach, and with these two past masters of evil Pandora's box is opened and a tribe of troubles let loose, any one of which might appeal.

With all manner of chemical changes taking place in the stomach by fermentation—why should not—as it any wonder that some startling and disagreeable results are evolved? Bad breath is conspicuous among them, because always in evidence. No use to doctor this or disguise it. It is an innocent sufferer.

GO STRAIGHT TO THE CAUSE—THE STOMACH. Put that in order and the breath will take care of itself. Charcoal has been a remedy for disordered stomachs for centuries. It is one "cure" that is almost "old as the hills."

Summing up charcoal in its pulverized state is a stomach tonic and absorbent. Stuart's Lozenges supply a want; a remedy that is simple, handy and efficient. They embody a plain, practical proposition.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are for sale everywhere, 25 cents a box, guaranteed to contain nothing but young willow wood charcoal and pure honey; sample sent free upon request. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

More Danville Proof.
Jacob Schral, 42 South St., Danville, Ill., writes: "For over eighteen months I was a sufferer from kidney and bladder trouble. During the whole time was treated by several doctors and tried several different kidney pills. Seven weeks ago I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Pills, and am feeling better every day and will be glad to tell anyone interested just what Foley's Kidney Pills did for me."—King-Crowell Drug Co., corner Fayetteville and Hargett streets.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better—Try and Experiment or Profit by a Raleigh Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back. A Lame, Weak or Aching one. Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures. Endorsed by strangers from far-away places.

It's different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove local testimony. "Some endorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills." Read this case: Mrs. D. T. Moore, No. 311 South Person street, Raleigh, N. C., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and found them so beneficial that I do not hesitate to testify in their behalf. I had nagging backaches bothered me for a long time and were frequently accompanied by sharp pains across my joints. At night I was very restless and generally felt tired and languid. The kidney secretions were so loaded with impurities that I could not sleep in peace. When I was advised to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial I procured a box from the Robbitt-Young Drug Co. They afforded me prompt relief and soon disposed of every symptom of my trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Postum-Birmingham Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Some Excellent Anson County Corn Yields

Wadesboro, N. C., Dec. 4.—Early last spring a number of business men of Wadesboro, believing that it would be to the best interest of the county to encourage more scientific methods in the cultivation of land planted in corn, subscribed a large sum of money to be offered as prizes to the farmers who raise the largest amount of corn per acre this year. The contest for these prizes was very spirited. Yesterday a committee consisting of J. A. Boggs, Jas. T. Teal, and D. A. McGregor announced the result of the contest, as follows:

IT IS OUT.

Merchant's Rate Book Issued Giving Rating of Every Person in the City of Raleigh and Surrounding Country.

One of the finer things ever done by the merchants of the city is the issuing of a rate book giving the correct rating of every person, male or female, black or white, in this city and surrounding country. For several months this book has been in the hands of the committee who were going over the names of the people and giving them the proper rating. Any merchant in the city can now look in his rating book and see just how you stand. Whether you pay your debts or whether you are an "Undesirable Citizen." This will certainly be a great help to all the merchants and will place that class of citizen who are accustomed to beating the merchants where they will have to pay as they go. You would be surprised if you could take a look at this book. Some of the supposedly big folks have a bad mark after their name which says in other words to the merchant, "Beware." Then there are lots of people whom you never see in the high walks of life put down as first class, and the mostly about it all is that the ratings are correct and every slow-pay customer in the city is on the list where he will hereafter be kept until he pays up what he owes. Truly the Retail Merchants' Association of this city is doing a good work, both for themselves and the community.

Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor.
Inside this "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to man." writes Mrs. C. Rhinevaull, of Vassar Center, N. Y. "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and radiant health. It quickly cures Nervousness, Headaches, Rheumatism, Chills, Hoarseness, Stomachic, Fainting and Dizzy Spells; soon builds up the weak, ailing and sickly. Try them, at all druggists.

CONCERTED MOVE.

To Make a National Park of Old Fort Fisher a Few Miles Below Wilmington.

(Special to The Times)
Wilmington, Dec. 4.—Concerted efforts are to be made by northern and southern Civil War veterans to have congress pass the bill providing for the purchase of old Fort Fisher, a few miles below Wilmington and establish thereon a national park. The blue and the gray have come forward in this matter. At the recent reunion of the Fort Fisher Survivors Association, held at Utica, N. Y., recently, strong resolutions were adopted calling for congress to act immediately in the matter. Next week General N. M. Curtis, of New York, commander of the Union forces at the battle of Fort Fisher, and president of the association, and Rev. J. A. Smith, of this city, first vice-president, expect to go to Washington in the interest of the bill. The measure will have the support of the entire North Carolina delegation in congress and also that of the New York representatives and senators. Senator Ellis Rood, of New York, was one of the principal speakers at the recent reunion. Vice-President Sherman was also a speaker and it is expected that he will lend his aid to the movement. It is very probable that the next reunion of the Fort Fisher Survivors Association will be held in this city next spring.
