New York Stock Market.
(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New York, Dec. 7.—Trading in the market at the opening and during the first fifteen minutes was comparatively small and without much pronounced feature. Price changes being irregular and about evenly divided between fractional gains and losses. St. Louis Southwestern preferred continued strong, making a further advance of 79 5/8, a new high record. Consolidated Gas was one of the heaviest issues, declining one point and renewed heaviness was developed in Third Avenue. Reading, after a fractional decline, showed a firmer tone.

THE TIMES' DAILY FINANCIAL STORY

(By Charles W. Storm.)
New York, Dec. 7.—Stocks opened irregularly. Wall street today with some general pressure from no particular cause that could be discovered. The steel shares were supported; as was Union Pacific and Reading under which leadership the list recovered something more than the early loss during the first half hour of the session. Brooklyn Transit displayed strength near its top prices. Atchafalaya and St. Louis and Southwestern were also higher.
The railway list, particularly the shares of those railroads affected by the western strike was dull.
London operators were waiting for a full context of the president's message today. Prices in that market indicated no important change in convictions. The Bank of England is fortified with all the gold necessary to finance the government through the election crisis and it is likely to reduce its discount rate before the end of the year.
On the New York cash prices of copper and silver shares were steady.

New York Cotton Letter.
(W. B. Hibbs & Co.)
New York, Dec. 7.—The market was waiting for new developments today. Therefore trading was very light fluctuations being narrow and unimportant. The Liverpool market did not show a continuation of the strength today as reported in the cables of the last three days and this together with light outside speculative demand at present caused a very dull and dragging market from the opening. There was enough support from leading bulls however, to readily absorb everything offered on concessions and restrain the bear element and reactionists from attempting to hammer the market.
After opening quiet at about last night's close, there was a decline of 5 to 7 points with January slumping to 14.62, March 14.95, May to 15.19 and July to 15.14. This was due chiefly to scattered realising to even up speculative contracts of the professional element. The market was steadier during the afternoon chiefly on the support from bulls.
The census bureau's report on the amount of cotton ginned to December 1st is due tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. It is expected to be about 8,500,000 bales.
While still bullish for the long pull it would be more advisable to even up speculative contracts to some extent before the publication of the government's crop estimate and wait for some setback before buying again.

Cotton Port Receipts.

MRS. JOLLY'S FUNERAL.
Conducted From the Residence of Her Daughter This Morning.
The funeral services of Mrs. Nancy Elizabeth Jolly, widow of the late Nathaniel Jolly, were held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John W. Crawford, 121 south McDowell street, this morning at 11 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Stanbury, pastor of Edenton Street Methodist church. The interment was in Oakwood cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful, showing the love and esteem in which Mrs. Jolly was held. She was one of Raleigh's oldest residents, being 78 years old.
She is survived by two children, Mr. B. R. Jolly and Mrs. John Crawford, both of this city.
The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Jos. G. Brown, Chas. McKimmon, Thos. Partin, J. A. Braggasin, J. S. Wynne and Dr. J. M. Fleming.

Coles' Hot Blast Heating Stoves
Gives more heat and consumes less Coal than any Stove made. See what a satisfied customer says:
"This is to certify that I have used Coles' Hot Blast Heaters for several years and have found them a fuel-saver. On one occasion the weather became a little warm, closed the drafts nearly down, 44 hours later the weather turned cooler, opened up drafts and in a few minutes had hot stove. I can cheerfully recommend the Hot Blast Stove as the best I ever used." (Signed) Carl A. Woodruff, Brig. Gen'l U. S. Army, retired.
