

A man is known by the Candy he sends

King-Crowell Drug Co.

SOCIETY.

THE DREAMER.

Chide not the Dreamer, but more wisely hold His dreams more precious than refined gold.

Mrs. E. A. Woodard and son Master Frank, left today for New Bern after visiting Mrs. H. M. Hanff.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Thompson, of Richmond, were in the city today returning from a visit to South Carolina.

Mrs. Franklin H. Dewey, of Portsmouth, Va., and Mrs. W. L. Woodrow, of New York, left today for their homes after stopping over in the city with Mrs. Wm. B. Grimes.

Mrs. Kitchin's "At Home" Day. Mrs. W. W. Kitchin will observe Wednesdays, from four to five-thirty, as her "At Home" days during the season.

Barren's Elect Officers. The Barren class of Central Methodist church held its regular election of officers yesterday.

Convention Laymen's Missionary Movement Will Open in Greensboro Next Wednesday and Continue Until Friday.

The following is the program of the Laymen's Missionary Movement Convention to be held in Greensboro next week, January 12-14th:

Wednesday Afternoon, 3:30 O'clock. Men and Missions—Dr. George B. Cromer, Newberry, S. C.

Transition and Urgency—C. A. R. Janvier, Philadelphia.

America's World Responsibility—Mr. C. H. Pratt, Athens, Ga.

Wednesday Evening, 7:30 O'clock. Significance of the Laymen's Missionary Movement—Rev. J. W. Patton, Atlanta, Ga.

Systematic Missionary Education—(a) The Missionary Meeting; (b) Associated Investigation of Missions; (c) The Use of the Missionary Literature; (d) How to Conduct a Campaign of Missionary Education—Rev. T. B. Ray, D. D., of Richmond, Va.

The Revival in Korea—Rev. C. T. Houshel, Korea.

The East Calls—Rev. H. F. Williams, Nashville.

Thursday Afternoon, 3:30 O'clock. Prayer and Mission—Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., Atlanta.

The Adequate Missionary Policy—Dr. J. T. Henderson, Bristol.

The Missionary Committee, The Right Hand of the Laymen's Missionary Movement—Hon. W. B. Stubbs, Nashville.

Business System in Missionary Finances: (a) The Weekly Offering; (b) The Every Member Canvas—Dr. J. C. Reavis, Nashville, and Dr. D. Clay Lilly, Nicholasville, Ky.

Thursday Evening, 7:30 O'clock. The Laymen's New Horizon—Dr. J. H. Apple, Frederick, Maryland.

Progress of Christianity in China—Rev. A. P. Parker, D. D., China.

The Field is the World—Rt. Rev. A. S. Lloyd, D. D.

Woman's Meeting. A meeting for women will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 at the First Baptist church, West Market street.

Friday Morning, 9:30 O'clock. The Busy Man and the King's Business—J. H. Tucker, Asheville, and C. A. Rowland, Athens, Ga.

Personal Investigation of Missions—Hon. Joshua Levering, Baltimore.

Mrs. J. C. James, of Wilmington, is the guest of Mrs. R. B. Roney.

Mrs. L. G. Cole and Mrs. A. R. Tucker, spent the day in the city.

Mrs. C. H. Anderson and little Miss Alber, left today to visit at Kenly.

Mrs. Felix Harvey, of Kinston, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Leo. D. Heatt.

Mrs. George Snow and daughter, Mrs. F. C. Boylston left today for Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Meares, of Monroe, have returned home after visiting in the city.

Miss Hal Landis, of Durham, arrived in the city today to visit Mrs. W. C. Upchurch.

Mrs. H. L. Denning, returned today from a visit to Mr. Denning's mother at Angier.

Mrs. W. E. Monroe, and children left today for Portsmouth, Va., where they will make their home.

Friends will learn with regret of the illness of Mrs. J. A. Sanders at her home on Hillsboro street.

Mrs. E. M. Uzile and little grandson, Edwin Gill, have gone to Oxford to visit Mrs. Charles Elmore.

Mrs. George Rhodes, who has been visiting Misses Beasie and Pearl Guthrie, left today for Macon.

Mrs. W. C. Petty, of Carthage, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. Palmer Jerman has gone to Charlotte.

Mrs. T. S. Simpson, of Winston-Salem, has returned home after visiting her mother, Mrs. E. B. Roberts.

Mrs. B. F. McClamrock, of Greensboro, has returned home after a visit to her mother, Mrs. C. W. Beavers.

The organ recital at Edenton Street church on Thursday evening is held under the auspices of the Junior Epworth League.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Park have returned from their wedding trip to northern cities. They are at home at 207 North West street.

Miss Bert Fletcher, of Meredith College went to Apex Saturday afternoon to attend the marriage of her brother, Mr. A. J. Fletcher to Miss Elizabeth Utley.

Organ Recital Thursday Night.

A most delightful organ recital is planned for Thursday evening at Edenton Street church under the auspices of the Junior League, organist, Mrs. C. V. Albright, assisted by Mrs. Lillian Holmesley Bott; Miss Dumais, of St. Mary's; and Miss Mary Cole, of this city.

Mrs. Holmesley Bott is a North Carolinian and pupil of Mrs. Mackenzie Wood, with a soprano voice of beautiful lyric quality, of great range, and with all the charm of simplicity in interpretation.

Busy Bee Club.

Miss Alberta Womble entertained the Busy Bee Club Saturday afternoon from four to five at her home on Elm street. Music and games were indulged in and delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Katharine Stephens, Lillian and Savon Horton, Virginia Womble, Alberta Womble, Marjory Clark and Master George Womble.

FOR THE LAYMEN

Program of the Greensboro Convention

The following is the program of the Laymen's Missionary Movement Convention to be held in Greensboro next week, January 12-14th:

Wednesday Afternoon, 3:30 O'clock. Men and Missions—Dr. George B. Cromer, Newberry, S. C.

Transition and Urgency—C. A. R. Janvier, Philadelphia.

America's World Responsibility—Mr. C. H. Pratt, Athens, Ga.

Wednesday Evening, 7:30 O'clock. Significance of the Laymen's Missionary Movement—Rev. J. W. Patton, Atlanta, Ga.

Systematic Missionary Education—(a) The Missionary Meeting; (b) Associated Investigation of Missions; (c) The Use of the Missionary Literature; (d) How to Conduct a Campaign of Missionary Education—Rev. T. B. Ray, D. D., of Richmond, Va.

The Revival in Korea—Rev. C. T. Houshel, Korea.

The East Calls—Rev. H. F. Williams, Nashville.

Thursday Afternoon, 3:30 O'clock. Prayer and Mission—Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., Atlanta.

The Adequate Missionary Policy—Dr. J. T. Henderson, Bristol.

The Missionary Committee, The Right Hand of the Laymen's Missionary Movement—Hon. W. B. Stubbs, Nashville.

Business System in Missionary Finances: (a) The Weekly Offering; (b) The Every Member Canvas—Dr. J. C. Reavis, Nashville, and Dr. D. Clay Lilly, Nicholasville, Ky.

Thursday Evening, 7:30 O'clock. The Laymen's New Horizon—Dr. J. H. Apple, Frederick, Maryland.

Progress of Christianity in China—Rev. A. P. Parker, D. D., China.

The Field is the World—Rt. Rev. A. S. Lloyd, D. D.

Woman's Meeting. A meeting for women will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 at the First Baptist church, West Market street.

Friday Morning, 9:30 O'clock. The Busy Man and the King's Business—J. H. Tucker, Asheville, and C. A. Rowland, Athens, Ga.

Personal Investigation of Missions—Hon. Joshua Levering, Baltimore.

Reflex Influence of Missions—Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., Wilmington.

The Stewardship of Life—Rev. E. E. Rawlings, D. D., Richmond, Va.

Great Commissions—Rev. J. H. Pressly, Statesville.

Laces

We are offering a splendid lot of Round Thread, Cluny Nalencines and Baby Irish Laces worth up to 12 1-2 a yard, at 5c. a yard.

We have a lot of beautiful new patterns and it will pay you to buy now.

Dress Gingham

New spring styles, the very best goods made. You pay others 12 1-2c. for them, our price is 10c. a yard.

Apron Gingham

These goods are advancing every day. Our price is still 7 1-2c. a yard.

Woolcott's

OPPOSITE POST OFFICE.

Grand Voting Contests!

Beginning Monday, January 10, and ending February 1st. Every $1.00 purchase will entitle you to 10 votes. The prize will be a HOOSIER KITCHEN CABINET, Value $27.50. Standing of leading contestants will be published in Raleigh paper Jan. 17, 24, 31. ---GET BUSY---

Royall & Borden Furniture Co. 127 FAYETTEVILLE ST. RALEIGH, N. C.

Wedding Gifts

Articles of Silverware will gladden the hearts of the young bride. Here you will find the choicest gifts for weddings. H. MAHLER'S SONS, JEWELERS RALEIGH.

THREE BIG BARGAINS

THAT SHOULD INTEREST EVERYONE. Embroidery worth 15 and 20c.; now 10c. Ladies' ready-to-wear House Dresses; regular $1.50 Value; now $1.25. Ladies' white and Colored Shirtwaists; sold for $1.50; now 98c. New Patterns.—Counter Books. Fashion Sheets Free.

Hunter Bros. & Brewer Company

Blank Books

Ledgers, Journals, Day, Cash and Order Books. LOOSE LEAF LEDGERS. $1.00, $2.00, $5.00, $10.00, $22.75 & Etc. EVERYTHING FOR THE OFFICE.

The Office Stationery Company, 12 E. Hargett St. JAMES E. THIELM, Manager. Times Building. Capital City Phone 844F.

Bobbitt-Wynne DRUG COMPANY

We recommend Dr. J. N. Johnson's Tooth Brushes, 2 sizes, 25 and 35c.

Rebecca at the Well Teapots

When down the street don't fail to see our line of Rebecca at the Well Teapots, all sizes. Also a complete line of China, Glassware, Graniteware, and Nickelware. MARION HARLAND COFFEE POTS. REMEMBER THE PLACE. Phone 438. 210 S. Salisbury St.

MRS. L. F. MEDLIN & COMPANY, The Home of Great Savings

The Great $4.00 Line of Men's Shoes.

To picture the excellence and beauty of our $4.00 line of Men's Shoes by reading this is like the individual who, wishing to sell his house, carried a brick as a specimen. Our line must be seen to be fully appreciated. There's everything new that's good.

WE FIT THE FEET POOL & CROCKER, 105 Fayetteville Street.