MAKING OF CHURCH MEMBERS.

Subject of Splendid Sermon At Central Church.

The theme Rev. A. D. Wilcox chose for his morning sermon was "The making of a church member," using these words for his text, "For other foundations can no man lay than that is laid which is Jesus Christ."

He said that the foundation laid in Christ is certain and eternal and can never be uprooted and yet men in part are dissatisfied and are trying to substitute various reforms and philosophies as the remedy for all evils.

No set of laws, the wisest ever drawn up can cure the evils in man. They can serve only as a restraint. These false foundations are only crutches which enable the morally and politically weak to walk the streets of the moral and political life until they gain strength from the deeper source. Jesus Christ is the only foundation. God is the supreme ruler of the universe. His mind sways, His hand controls. It is a great mistake to lay down anything as a basis of activity, except the great foundation already laid.

The church has never professed to lay down qualifications for salvation. She can only furnish the proper atmosphere for the christian activity. The church has no right to determine which of its members are saved and which are not. There is only one way by which a man may become a christian. There is absolutely no basis for the certainty of salvation except Christ's words, "Ye must be born again."

There is a distinction between real religion and church membership, but it has never been laid upon the church to determine who are saved and who are lost, for human judgment is not infallible. The doors of the church are open to all and that is why it has folks in it who are no perfect and people say of them they are not living any better than those out of the church. The qualifications for membership are a desire to know God and to follow after Him. He said he believed that there are few men who have deliberately joined the church to fool the world. There are more who have joined from a naive but wholly wrong, and there are many who have stumbled, but they are stumbling towards the cross, and they should be kept in the church; it is the proper place for them. If one waits to come into the church until he feels perfect, or as good as the best man in the church, they will never join, for perfection and growth comes by long service and experience.

The world is guilty of a great mistake in making the church stand for the thoughts of all its members. The church is not built upon the actions of men but upon faith, the weakness of one of its members does not weaken the foundation.

He used as an impressive illustration the picture of life's travelers struggling up a steep hill, while others are coming down. On this journey they pass each other, and for a short while are on the same plane of life, but soon those going down pass on to lower things, while those struggling upward are approaching the cross.

In his closing remarks he said he hoped his sermon would carry two messages to the hearts of his hearers, first, that the members of Central church would so live that the world would have no cause to criticize; that their lives might always shine for the Master.

His second message was to those who were out of the church, urging them that they should not try to live the christian life outside of its atmosphere. Do not criticize the members who are not living right, but turn your thoughts inward and pray God to give you a revelation of Himself.

At the evening service Mr. Wilcox spoke directly to the young men, using these words as the subject of his remarks: "O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so-called." 1 Timothy 6:20.

DEATH OF REV. ALVIN BETTS.

One of Raleigh's Oldest Citizens Passed Away This Morning.

Rev. Alvin Betts died this morning at 9:10 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. J. Dowell, on New Bern avenue, in the 82d year of his age.

He was one of Raleigh's oldest citizens and was a familiar figure on the streets of the city, with always a pleasant word and smile for all he met. He had been in feeble health for several years, but had only been ill for a short while before his death. The news will be a surprise to many and will be the occasion of deep regret, for Mr. Betts was known and liked all over the city.

He was born in Harnett county June 18, 1828. He married Miss Lucy King, of Asbury, July 13, 1850. Her death occurred a few years ago. For several years Mr. Betts was a pastor in the Raleigh association.

He is survived by four children, all of this city, Mrs. H. J. Dowell, Mrs. Joe H. Weathers, Rev. S. J. Betts and Mr. W. F. Betts. He also leaves two brothers, Rev. A. D. Betts, of Greensboro, and Mr. Archie Betts, of Harnett county.

The funeral services will be conducted from the Tabernacle church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Moncrief. The pall-bearers will be:

Active—Messrs. W. A. Cooper, J. M. Edwards, C. R. Boone, J. G. Boomhauer, R. N. Simms, A. H. Mooneyham.

Honorary—Messrs. N. B. Bronghton, T. W. Blake, W. C. Richardson, J. C. Birdsong, W. H. Holloway, and James I. Johnson.

Tribute to Mr. Betts.

In the death of Rev. Alvin Betts who today went to his reward in that realm beyond the stars, at the ripe old age of 82, the poor of Raleigh lost a more than friend, for he never failed to minister unto them, and to give them not only his companionship as a visitor, but spiritual advice full of good things. At the associated charities office he will certainly be missed, for he was always ready to aid the superintendent in making visits to the sick poor, and year after year devoted himself to this work, which was only one form of his spiritual activity which has set its mark upon this community. He was a gentle and kindly soul, who said and did only fine things, and so he will in all truth be missed. I take peculiar pleasure in paying this poor tribute to the memory of a man whose life was marked by so many worthy deeds.

R. S. STEPHENSON,
Superintendent.

The Ellices Here At The Grand.

After concluding the most successful week in its history, The Grand Theatre opens this afternoon with an excellent vaudeville bill that it is confidently expected will prove in every way as popular with the theatre-goers of Raleigh as anything that has yet been offered at this popular amusement resort, and that is placing a high standard. Several weeks ago, the management of the Grand began to arrange the clever offerings for this week after a great deal of work selecting the best acts and eliminating whatever he thought not quite good enough, he has gotten together a show that will be a most decided success in every respect, which will no doubt be another record breaker this week. The best talent has been procured, regardless of expense, and the Great Ellices, the Marvelous Exponents of Mental Telepathy, will open their engagement today at the matinee, with other high class and clever vaudeville headliners, direct from the larger theatres from the eastern and western vaudeville circuits. Madam Ellis presents a most wonderful entertainment, one that is mysterious, and will name and fully describe accurately any and all articles with her eyes mindfolded. Will call those in the audience by their full names! Reveal their thoughts! Call their questions from the stage and answer them correctly. The Ellices have created a big sensation all over the United States, and are booked to play return engagements at every theatre where they have appeared for the past few months, having already played returns at Augusta, Ga.; Atlanta, Savannah, Macon and many other cities. There is no question, but what Mrs. Ellis was originally talented, or gifted by nature with this peculiar power, as she is commonly acknowledged to be one of the greatest adepts in this particular line that the world has ever produced, and will prove to be one of the most interesting, weird, mysterious and sensational woman who has ever visited Raleigh, and if there is anything that the patrons want to know, just ask Madam Ellis.

It looks like another big week at this comfortable amusement resort, and judging from the booking for the next few weeks, the patrons will get a chance to see some of the biggest headline vaudeville acts appearing in any theatre. The pictures promise to be

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

better than ever, the illustrated songs, the beautiful selections by the Grand orchestra, in fact the Grand is presenting a great big dollars worth for five and ten cents at the Matinee and ten and twenty cents at the night performances. Ask Madam Ellis. 11.

GOWANS

King of External Preparations will do all that is claimed for it. It is absolutely certain that if our claims were not well founded the popularity of the wonderful remedy would not increase in the astounding proportion that it does. From everywhere come most encouraging letters; sales are multiplying and while your money will be refunded cheerfully if our Preparation fails to do what we claim for it, it is a singular thing that instead of wanting their money back patrons want more of the great External Preparation. Ask for it and buy TODAY. Have it in the home. Winter weather is on you, and you do not know what will happen tonight. Take no substitute; your druggist keeps it and there is nothing made "just as good". Demand Gowans—use Gowans, and you will get results.
