

The Evening Times' supremacy in circulation (its city circulation being double that of any other paper) makes its "Lost and Found" column the most productive of results.

The Evening Times

LAST EDITION

ESTABLISHED 1876.

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1910.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

MORE TROOPS ARE SENT TO CAIRO TODAY

City However Is Quiet And Orderly and the Rioters Are Awed

COMMEND OFFICERS

Uniformed Men Patrol the Streets and Keep Order—Inquest Over Halliday's Body Held Today—Authorities Are Commended For Drastic Measures by the Civic Bodies—Troops Will Take Care of the Situation For the Next Few Days, Probably Weeks—Negro Officers Add to Tenseness of the Situation.

WILLIAM LOEB.
William Loeb, the collector of the port of New York, to whom President Roosevelt refers all questions who cable and write him in Africa to know what his return program will be. President Taft conferred with him on his recent visit to New York, and as Governor Hughes has absolutely refused to stand for another term. Col. Roosevelt is known to favor Collector Loeb for the office.

It was believed today that the period of greatest danger to them would be today and tomorrow, when the populace is excited over the Halliday inquest and funeral.

SENATOR TILLMAN SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Washington, Feb. 19.—Senator B. R. Tillman rested quietly last night and there are indications this morning of a slight improvement last night in his condition, though he was still unconscious at 9 o'clock this morning.

This has mitigated the criticisms of the sheriff, who prevented anyone from approaching Halliday where he lay four hours in the snow. It was thought for a time that exposure contributed to his death.

GRAND JURY WILL BRING INDICTMENT

(Special to The Times.)
Washington, N. C., Feb. 19.—The grand jury of Beaufort county having been charged by Judge Ferguson to bring in an indictment against the county commissioners charging them with neglect of duty in not providing a new court house, today brought in a true bill of indictment against them. It is understood that a motion will be made to have the case removed to another county for trial.

SEYLER'S AT HOME Put Through Third Degree By Police

WILLIAM LOEB.
William Seyler Displays Great Nerve and Clings to Story That He Was Not With the Adams Girl on the Night She Was Killed—Mrs. Seyler Stands by Husband.
(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 19.—William and Orvis Seyler, who were trailed to Petersburg, Va., and arrested in connection with the death of Jane Adams on the million dollar pier, underwent an all night third degree examination at the hands of the police here and today the brothers were on the verge of a collapse.

SEYLER'S AT HOME Put Through Third Degree By Police

Chief of Police Woodruff admitted that they have obtained some information regarding Seyler's movements in company with Jane Adams the night she disappeared which may aid him in solving the mystery. He would not go further than this. When asked if his prisoner had made any admissions that would warrant the grand jury in holding him the chief replied:

MISS ANNIE PECK.
Miss Annie Peck, the famous mountain climber, who has become engaged in a dispute with a rival climber, Mrs. F. B. Workman, that careens to become nearly as celebrated as the Peary-Cook exploration episode. Miss Peck claims she holds the record for the ascent of Mt. Huscaran in Peru in 1908. Mrs. Workman says she climbed the lower peak. And the dispute has only begun.

No, he has not made any confession that we can give out at the present time. Until I consult with District Attorney Goldenberg I am not at liberty to make anything public.

THREE SUITS TODAY

The City Officials Sued in "Girl From Rectors" Affair

Three suits were instituted in superior court this afternoon against J. S. Wynne and J. P. Stell—damages will be asked for—other suits to follow.
Summons were issued this afternoon in three suits that have been instituted in superior court against J. S. Wynne and J. P. Stell, all growing out of the recent action of the mayor and chief of police in making certain arrests at the Academy of Music last Wednesday night.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC MEETING FORBIDDEN

Berlin, Feb. 19.—The police have forbidden the meeting called by the social-democrats for Sunday, to protest against the lack of real electoral reform. Further outbreaks and riots are feared.

KING EDWARD GOES OVER SPEECH AGAIN

(By Cable to The Times.)
London, Feb. 19.—King Edward today for the last time took up the speech from the throne, to be delivered at the actual opening of parliament on Monday. In council with his ministers at Buckingham Palace the king went over the speech in its definite form, before affixing his signature.

HOYT TAKES STAND

Friend of Glavis Testifies In His Behalf

Henry W. Hoyt, who was formerly District Attorney in Alaska, States That Glavis Was Always Thorough In His Work—Says That He Felt That Wickesham Would Interpret Law Differently From Pierce—Goes Through Cross-examination.
(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Washington, Feb. 19.—When the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation was resumed this morning Attorney Verrees announced that he had no further questions to ask Mr. Glavis and thereupon Henry W. Hoyt, at present attorney general of Porto Rico, and a friend of Glavis, was called to the stand. His testimony insofar as he had any knowledge of the case against Secretary Ballinger, corroborated in every detail the statements of Glavis.

GOVERNOR GLENN MAKES WARM TALK

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Washington, Feb. 19.—Former Governor Robert B. Glenn, of North Carolina, in a temperance address last night under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, said that if he were mayor of the city of Washington on a prohibition ticket, he would guarantee to enforce the law and place every violator in jail or the workhouse.

GEORGE WESTINGHOUSE.

The famous inventor George Westinghouse, who has just finished the construction of a steam turbine that is expected to increase by almost appreciable percent the speed of battleships. It is expected that when the new invention is applied that it will make the American battleships as much superior to all battleships that have preceded her.

MORE INDICTMENTS IN BEEF TRUST

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 19.—The investigation into the beef trust was continued today and more indictments are expected. Prosecutor Pierre Garven, of Hudson county, began to prepare summonses for the officials of the National Packing Company accused in the blanket indictment voted yesterday.

THE LID WILL COME OFF IN ALLDS CASE

Senator Conger Will Not Be Allowed to Shield Anyone Connected With Affair

CARRIED TO LIVING

Heretofore, with the exception of Allds, only dead men have been named in connection with the case. But hereafter the living will be exposed—tremendous pressure being brought to prevent the tearing off of the lid, but believed these efforts will be futile—bridge corruption was a mere flea bite.
(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Albany, N. Y., Feb. 19.—Counsel for State Senator Jotham P. Allds, after several conferences have determined at any cost to force Senator Benn Conger to divulge the names of those legislators who shared in the $4,000 alleged to have been given to Jean L. Burnett in 1901.

TAFIT THE SPEAKER AT MASS MEETING

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Washington, Feb. 19.—President Taft, Senators Lodge and Burton and Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, of New York, president of the Washington Memorial Association, will be the speakers at the student mass meeting to be held this afternoon in Memorial Continental Hall.

ASK FOR FRANCHISE

Wilson, Feb. 19.—At a called meeting of the aldermen of Wilson last evening Mr. B. F. Lane appeared and asked that a franchise be given to Norfolk capitalists, to build a street car line in Wilson. The matter was postponed until the promoters appear in person. It is thought the aldermen will throw no obstruction in the way of the enterprise.

BURIED THE WRONG MAN

Warren, Pa., Feb. 19.—Charles R. Keck, supposed to be dead, created a sensation today by cheerfully greeting his old G. A. R. friends, who thought they had officiated at his funeral two years ago. He now lives at Sherman, N. Y. The G. A. R. men are wondering whom they buried.

FACTORY SHUTS DOWN

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Waltham, Mass., Feb. 19.—For the third time in as many months the Waltham watch factory shut down today. An over production of watches is given as the cause of the shut down, which is to last a month. The factory is the largest of its kind in the world. It employs nearly 4,000 people and turns out 3,000 to 3,300 watches every day.

STEAMER ASHORE AND CREW LOST

(By Cable to The Times.)
Dublin, Feb. 19.—The report of the wreck of the German ship Hohenzollern was confirmed in advices received here this afternoon. Thirty-five men, the entire crew, were lost. She was driven ashore on Old-Head-of-Kinsale, at the head of Courtmashery Bay, on the south coast of Ireland.

INSURANCE COMMISSIONER JAMES R. YOUNG IS CONFINED TO HIS HOME WITH A COLD.

James R. Young, Insurance Commissioner of North Carolina, is confined to his home with a cold.