BOTH SIDES WAITING IN CAR STRIKE

Air of Truce and Expectancy In the Strike Situation Today

THE MEETING TODAY

Situation in the Philadelphia Street Car Strike Had An Air of Truce and Expectancy-Just How New Proposition of Strikers For Peace Has Been Received by the Board Was Unknown This Morning-Mayor Says He Will Stand For Arbitration Through the Counsels-The Mayor's Old Statute.

(By Leased Wige to The Times.) Philadelpaia, Pa., March 4 The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company in its answer to the striking car men's request for arbitration, made public late this afternoon, returns a flat refusal. Tais ends the last hope of averting the general sympathetic strike which will call out from $6,000 to 100,000 men at midnight tonights

Philadelphia, Pa., March 4-liope of a peaceable settlement of the car strike was swept away and the general strike of 125,000 workers at midnight tonight seemed to be made certain, when the directors of the Rapid Transit Company, after a sc sion lasting two and a half hours announced that they would give out a statement. This is virtually a side stepping of the arbitration offer ac cepted by the striking car men. The road's statement embodies its whole attitude, and is intended for the ear of the public more than as a straight verdlet on the arbitration plan.

The Central Labor Union's com mittee of ten immediately went into conference on the general strike sit-

Philadelphia, Pa., March 4-The situation in the Philadelphia street car strike had an air of truce and expectancy this morning. The public anxiously awaited the arrival of the noon nour, the time set by the striking trolley men for a reply from the officials of the Rapid Transit Company, as to whether the latter would join with the strikers in an appeal to nesses, the jury of inquest completed the common pleas court for a board its labors at 4 o'clock P.
