The two prisoners today were still unable to furnish the $20,000 ball demanded of each when they were arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields. The authorities today asserted that they had a clew that would lead to the arrest of the third of the trio, who escaped when the others were captured after a fight and a chase at the Grand Central station.

There was considerable criticism made today of the fact that Fay's ball was fixed at only $20,000. It is believed that if he can furnish a bondsman he will disappear and again the long chase will be on.
