How About This? (By Leased Wire to The Times) Detroit, Mich., April 15—Because he claims Cleveland baseball is "unfair" to organized labor, John Potter, walking delegate of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, refused to attend yesterday's ball game at Bennett Park. Potter met a wagon of the company hauling men to the game. He ordered all union men in the party to descend. All obeyed except two foremen of the ice company.

Gulfport v. Carolina Today. (Special to The Times.) Durham, April 15—Gulfport College and University of North Carolina meet on the new athletic field this afternoon at four o'clock and play the second of their series.

The Quakers won yesterday's game at Chapel Hill with Hedgcock pitching and the University will work Stewart this afternoon. Two of the strongest teams meet here today. Gulfport has on that team men who have played strong ball on the state leagues and Stewart will be necessary to save a second defeat. Bule will catch Stewart and the whole team will play. Bivens formerly of Trinity, playing left field for Carolina.

Manager Lindsey of the Traction company, and Manager Drane of the University team make announcement that in the event rain interferes with the game before five innings are played, half the admission will be refunded. It is impossible to give out rain checks because no two teams will play twice on the home grounds. The reduction offered is all that could be asked. As this is the first real game of the year, the managers of the two teams and the manager of the park, are doing extra advertising for a crowd. It is lucky today. The mills of East Durham and Edgemont shut down at noon.

Giving Alcohol To Your Boy?

Why are you doing this? He would be much better off without it. Children do not need stimulants. But they often need a tonic, something to give them more color, more life, more strength. Can you find a strong tonic without a drop of alcohol? Certainly. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is just such a medicine. Entirely free from alcohol. No stimulation. No alcohol habit. Ask your doctor all about it. Let him decide.

Daily movements of the bowels are just as essential for children as for adults. You can easily correct any tendency to constipation by giving small doses of Ayer's Pills.

and these paralyze the game liberally. Since the first effort to play, the grounds have been smoothed over consistently and the rain allowed the bumps to be moved. The field is much better than it was Tuesday, and barring softness, is in good shape. The teams are strong enough to put up a good game of ball and as this is a university town, there will doubtless be rooting a plenty.

QUAKERS DEFEAT U. N. C.

Carolina Downed 4 to 3 by the Hard-Hitting Gulfport Team. (Special to The Times.) Chapel Hill, April 15—In a close game Gulfport defeated the University team here this afternoon by the score of 4 to 3. The game was characterized by hard hitting and good fielding, the visitors having a slight advantage in hitting over the locals. Gulfport scored three times in the second on hard hitting coupled with a miscue or two. Carolina's first run came in the third, and there was nothing doing for either side until the ninth, when Carolina tied up the score only to have it broken by the Quakers in their half.

Stewart singled over short, and made third on an error, but badly sprained his ankle going into third and was carried from the field. Mamliton taking his place. Bivens is safe on a fielder's choice. Hamilton being caught at the plate. Bule singled, Bivens going to third. Hedgcock hits to center. Bivens and Bule crossing the pan for at tie. Hackney died second to first. Doak up in Gulfport's half, safe on second's error. Benbor is safe on fielders choice. Doak out at second. Johnson singled, Benbow going to second and immediately purloined third. Whiteaker hit to center field fence and the game is over.

The Bull City Boys Wallop Raleigh 13 to 4. (Special to The Times.) Durham, April 15—The Durham High School team defeated the strong team representing the Raleigh High School here this afternoon by the score of 13 to 4. The game was slow, and the Raleigh boys seemed to have lost all the spirit they displayed when they defeated the Durhams 2 to 0 a short time ago, the final score being 13 to 4.

TRINITY LOSES.

The score was 4 to 1 in favor of the visitors when the nine frame rolled around, when hits, errors, miscues, etc., netted six runs.

HOME RUN OF SAME JONES WON GAME IN NINTH INNING.

With the yells of a multitude of fans ringing in his ears Sam Jones, the veteran pinch hitter of Shaw University, walked up to the bat yesterday afternoon in the ninth inning and planted the ball in deep right for a home run, winning the game.

The two negro teams were well matched and neither had been defeated in two years. Claflin University, of South Carolina, has one of the strongest lineups seen this season on a local diamond. Their short stop pulled off some grand stands plays and time after time he robbed Shaw of what would have been pretty singles had a slower man been on the job.

Gorham, for Shaw, pitched an excellent game, striking out 13 of his opponents and allowing only four hits. The Claflin team was superior in the field but at the bat Shaw showed her supremacy.

In the last half of the ninth inning, with two men on bases, and no outs the Shaw supporters went wild. The next two men were easy for Claflin but when Sam Jones stepped out to bat the crowd went wild. Sam spat into his hands, squared himself at the plate and wrenched his back striking at the first one. The second looked easy and he swung again. Two strikes, two down and two men on bases. The next ball split the plate and catching it on the end of his bat Jones drove to deep right far over the head of the fielder. Everything scored and not even Ty Cobb or the mighty Hans Wagner were in Sam's class among the colored population last night. He towered above them all.

R. H. E. Shaw 000 000 203-5 9 3 Claflin 102 000 000-3 4 2 Batteries: Shaw, Gorham and Gunn; Claflin, Mitchell and Parks. Struck out by Gorham, 13; by Mitchell, 4. Bases on balls: off Gorham, 2; off Mitchell, 4. Three base hits: Shaw, 3. Home run: Sam Jones. Umpire, King Kelly. Time, 2 hours and 10 minutes.

CATCHER JOHN KLING WILL FORM NEW LEAGUE.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Boston, Mass., April 16.—That John Kling, the famous catcher of the Chicago Cubs is negotiating for the formation of a league to compete with the National and American baseball organizations was the startling statement made here today by a prominent baseball man.

This man declared that Kling's failure to return to the Cubs is causing suspicion and uneasiness in national league circles. There is a report current that he has threatened to invade New York city with a semi-professional team to play a series of games around the metropolis. Any such action would mean his permanent blacklisting.

The magnate whose fears are so thoroughly aroused said: "Kling's refusal to sign and his contemplation of a series of games in New York means there is a well laid scheme to organize a third league. Kling is a thinking man and not an unreasonable one. He knows that he can not afford to ruin his whole baseball career as he will if he runs against the national commission again. He would take no chances now if he did not feel sure that he is fixed all right. He is no fool. New York, Chicago, Cincinnati and Pittsburg would form the nucleus of the new league. I am not the only one who believes this. The opinion that such a move is inevitable and will develop within a short time is held by many other magnates. Kling has an ace up his sleeve or he wouldn't take chances of being forced from the game."

THIS AN OFF DAY AT JEFFRIES TRAINING CAMP.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Jeffries Training Camp, Rowdennan, Cal., April 16—This was one of the off days in Jim Jeffries' training routine. The big fellow is still suffering from a stiff neck, caused, he says, by a blow which Bob Armstrong landed on the top of his head day before yesterday and on the advice of his trainers decided to take things easy. The early morning hours were spent at his favorite fishing resort and just before lunch he took some mild exercise on the handball court.

It is an open secret around camp that Berger is not well pleased with the showing made by Jeffries in his several boxing bouts. Haberdasher Sam sees something lacking in his speed—something that will have to be remedied. While most of the camp followers are very optimistic because of the apparent ease with which big Jim does three men's work, Berger is alive to the fact that his charge has some serious business before him.

"No sir," said Sam, this morning. "I didn't like the way Jim worked yesterday. He's worried, I know, but aside from that he lacked life. In the handball game he might have won hands down if he had tried, but he never showed a disposition to do so until the last few points when he thought I was going to take him into camp."

"You see," continued Berger, "condition counts for everything in this fight. Some think Jeffries can win if he is only half right, but I take the opposite view. Jim has to be absolutely perfect. He can't go into the ring carrying an ounce too much, considering his disadvantage of five years going to win—I am sure of that, but it all depends on condition. He has a fight on his hands with a scrapper and if I thought he could not get right I'd throw the match in a minutes."

"You know this fight means much more to us than the championship and the money. Usually a fallen champion becomes a popular idol with the public but its reverse with us. Jim's a fellow that doesn't make many friends—principally because he keeps to himself and his family almost entirely—and the very fellows who forced him into the fight would be first to rap him should he suffer a reverse."

"So you see, I am watching the big boy more closely than anyone around here and if he don't work right I am going to know it. No doubt yesterday was an off day—but it didn't suit me at all."

Berger intimated that he would insist on Jeffries cutting out all heavy work for the next few days but whether he succeeds in carrying out his arrangements remains to be seen.
