Three Hits in Eleven lunings-Richardson Hit for Two Base Scoring Phoenix—Only Run of th Game—Birds Pound Walsh—Ste Brings Applause by One-ha Catch Simmons Plays Great Be Phoenix Makes Only Error.

(Special to The Times.)

Rocky Mount, June 10—About six hundred pupple saw the Red Birds take an eleven inning game from the Crew today. Lathrop was master at all stages, holding the hard hitting Rall-roaders to just three hits during the entire game. Waish was wild and ineffective. Pheonix made the only error for the visitors but he evened up by for the visitors but he evened up by scoring the only run; when Richard-son hit for two bases. The main feature of the game was Stein's one sand stab of a line drive from Simmons' bat in left field, which cut off a run. The Tabulated Score.
