ROOSEVELT MARRIAGE IN NEW YORK

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. and Miss Eleanor B. Alexander Married This Afternoon

GOES TO CALIFORNIA

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Married This Afternoon at Four O'clock to Miss Eleanor B. Alexander—Mr. and Mrs. Taft, Who Were Expected to Be Present, Unable to Attend the Marriage—After Bridal Trip Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Will Go to California, Where Young Roosevelt Expects to Sell Some Carpets.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

New York, June 20—The boy and girl romance of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Miss Eleanor Butler Alexander will culminate in their marriage at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church. Besides being one of the foremost society events of the season because of the fact that the bride belongs to one of the oldest New York families, the occasion marks the first social appearance of ex-President Theodore Roosevelt, father of the bridegroom.

Society has been looking forward to the marriage ever since the announcement of the engagement and that it will not be disappointed was made apparent by the fact that 1,500 invitations were issued for the church ceremony and the reception following.

The beautiful church and the ballroom in the home of C. B. Alexander, the bride's uncle, where the reception is to be held, both passed through the florist's hands last night. Pink and white blossoms, roses, peonies and lilies of the valley were delivered in wagon loads.

Mrs. and Miss Alexander and Theodore, Jr., came to New York late last night from Oyster Bay, where they had spent Sunday with the Roosevelts, to supervise the final details of the ceremony.

Word was received last night that President and Mrs. Taft, who had been expected, would be unable to come on from Washington.

Mrs. Roosevelt, with Kermit, his brother's best man, and the other members of the family, came in from Oyster Bay this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth were with them. Mr. Roosevelt came later.

Miss Alexander had selected as her attendants Mrs. Snowden A. Fahnestock, matron of honor; the Misses Harriet and Janet Alexander, cousins of the bride; Miss Jean W. Delano, and Miss Jessie M. Drake, of Paris, as bridesmaids.

The ushers chosen were George E. Roosevelt and Monroe D. Robinson, cousins of the groom; Francis Roche, Hamilton Fish, Jr., Fulton Cutting, John W. Cutler, Grafton Chapman, Elliot Cutler, of New York, and E. Morgan Gilbert, of Utica, N. Y.

The main aisle of the church had been decorated entirely in white, with clusters of roses and lilies at each pew. This scheme extended to the altar, the steps of which were carpeted with lilies of the valley and bride's roses. The priest dion of white satin was festooned with bride's

TO SELECT PLACE FOR GOVERNORS' MEETING

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Frankfort, Ky., June 20—Governors Sloan, of Arkansas, Hadley, of Missouri, Ansel, of South Carolina, and Wilson, of Kentucky, met here today to select a place for the holding of a general conference of governors in November. Frankfort is believed to have been strongly favored and an announcement to that effect is expected.

The four governors and Mrs. Hadley and Mrs. Wilson passed through a terrific electrical storm in making the trip from Versailles here in an automobile party.

Miss Inez Milholland, the Vassar girl, law student and heiress, who with Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont with several other prominent figures in the "votes for women" movement were made defendants in a suit instituted by A. Sitomer, a shirtwaist manufacturer to recover $50,000 damages alleged to have been done his business through the strike of the shirtwaist makers. The young heiress during the strike was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct, but after the case had been postponed from time to time, it was finally dismissed. The suit is being brought under the Sherman anti-trust law, the complainant alleging that he has been a victim of a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

REGULARS AT ZEBULON

Spoke to a Crowd of One Hundred and Twenty-Five

Sentiment in Swift Creek Rapidly Turning Towards the Old Line Candidates Who Will Carry the Township.

The "so-called ring crowd" held forth in Zebulon today, and were greeted by a crowd of from one hundred and twenty-five to a hundred and fifty people. This estimate is by actual count. Mr. Jones, Mr. Hinsdale, Mr. Bernard and Mr. Russ all made speeches which were enthusiastically received, and while the anti-ring element have made claims that Little River township would give one hundred majority for the new ticket, the enthusiasm and the ardor with which the candidates were received here today indicates otherwise.

The sentiment in Little River township has varied during the contest that is now being waged, at first the new crowd having things all their way, but recently sentiment is changing and it now looks like the regular organization crowd will carry the township by a safe majority. In this connection it might be stated that a meeting here on Thursday of this week at which Mr. Sikes and others of the new ticket spoke, they were greeted by a crowd of Sikes and others of the new ticket spoke, they were greeted by a crowd of ninety-seven people by actual count, while at today's meeting there were more than one hundred and twenty-five by actual count. This in itself is sufficient to convince anyone that sentiment in Little River township is changing rapidly for the regular organization.

CAUGHT IN STORM CLOUD.

Woman Aeronaut Has Thrilling Experience on Her First Trip.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

St. Louis, June 20—Her nerve unbroken after a thrilling flight with death 1,000 feet above the earth in a storm-lashed balloon, Miss Julia Hornor today declared she would make another flight at the first opportunity. She made her first balloon trip Sunday as a pilot, accompanied by Captain John Berry, a veteran aeronaut. Ten minutes after sailing she encountered a storm cloud and was tossed about by a fierce wind at an altitude of 1,000 feet. By coolheadedness she managed to drop below the storm cloud, but was overtaken by the wind and blown against trees, tops and hedges, which nearly cap-

A SUNDAY HOMICIDE

Will Barham Shot and Killed by Pink Page in Franklin County

Barham Assaulted Page With a Knife Giving Him Two Ugly Gashes Knife Giving Him Two Ugly Gashes and Was Shot Three Times by Page—Page Went to Physician Had His Wounds Dressed and Upon Hearing of Barham's Death Surrendered.

Yesterday afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock, Pink Page, a young white man, shot and killed Will Barham, after he himself had been fearfully slashed. The affair took place at the home of Mr. Tinker Perry, who lives in Franklin county, about two miles from the Wake county line. After the shooting Page hurried to Rolesville, where he had his wounds dressed by Dr. L. B. Young, and upon learning of the death of Barham he went to Deputy Sheriff George Stell, of Wake Forest township, and surrendered. He was brought here last night about 1 o'clock and lodged in Wake county jail.

Was Self Defense.

Mr. Page, who is about nineteen years of age, when seen today said that the killing was in self defense, as Barham had already cut him and was advancing upon him with a pistol when he was shot.

Page, who is a native of Cleveland county, has been employed at the saw mill of Mr. Bandy Whisnant, near Youngsville. Yesterday he went to the home of Mr. Tinker Perry to call upon some young ladies. Between 1 and 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Page and Miss Alma Pulley were sitting in a wagon near the home, when Mr. Barham and an unknown man drove up. Barham got out of the buggy, walked up to the wagon where Page was and said he was "going to shoot your d... d heart out." He then hit Page in the face with his hat, to which Page told him not to hit him any more, as there were some things he wouldn't take, or words to that effect. Barham then said let's walk down the road and talk it over, and Page replied that he would.

When they started away from the wagon, seeing that Barham had a knife in his hands, Page shifted his pistol from his hip pocket to the front pocket. After taking a few steps, Barham turned and slashed Page with a knife, inflicting a deep gash extending from above the right eye to the mouth. He then advanced with the uplifted knife, and Page drew his pistol and fired just as he was turning, the ball entering the left side. Barham again cut him, this wound being in the right side and about ten inches long. After making this wound he moved off towards the buggy, but turned again, this time with a pistol in his hand, and Page fired two more shots in rapid succession. Upon the second shot Barham dropped his pistol and sank to the ground and died a short time after.

Mr. Page immediately went to Rolesville and had his wounds dressed by Dr. L. B. Young, fifteen or sixteen stitches being necessary to sew up the two cuts. As soon as it was learned that Barham was dead, Page surrendered to Deputy Sheriff George Stell, and was brought here last night and placed in jail, where he will stay until the preliminary hearing.

Mr. Page says he regrets the unfortunate affair and that he fired simply to keep from being killed. The shooting was witnessed by Miss (Continued on Page Eight) craft were on deck and several of the victims were penned in their quarters below and unable to make the deck before the LaRochelle settled and went down.

Colonel Christopher C. Wilson, President of the United Wireless Telegraph Company (above) and W. W. Tompkins, former President of the now defunct New York Selling Agency, who were recently arrested by United States inspectors on the charge of being implicated in a gigantic swindle by which some 28,000 individuals throughout the country were gulled into buying worthless stock of the company. Col. Wilson and Vice President Bogart were arrested charged with sending fraudulent representations through the mails for the purpose of promoting the sale of stock. Tompkins is alleged to have aided in the disposition of the stock. One officer of the company, it is charged, cleaned up over $5,000,000.

In the confusion the Yews was backed away from the LaRochelle, permitting the water to rush into the immense hole in her side. As soon as order could be restored every effort was made by the officers and crew of the Yews to rescue the men of the sinking craft. Boats were lowered and ten men, all of whom had jumped immediately after the crash, were picked up.

DOUBLE CRIME IN GARNER

Stole Horse and Buggy and Burned Barn

Someone Stole Horse and Buggy of Mr. B. Hobgood and Set Fire to the Barn Last Night—Three Mules and One Cow Burned to Death and One Mule and One Horse Badly Burned.

Last night someone stole a horse and buggy from Mr. B. Hobgood, of Garner, and set fire to the barn, causing the death of three mules and one cow, the serious burning of one mule and one horse, and a complete loss of the barn and its contents. The officers are on the trail of the criminal and he will probably be caught before night.

This morning between one and two o'clock the family of Mr. Hobgood was aroused by the light from the burning barn, but the flames had gained such a headway that little could be done. The barn, all the feedstuff, farming utensils, three mules and one cow were completely destroyed, and one horse and one mule very badly burned, the total loss being over $2,000.

When the family reached the fire an investigation led to the discovery that a fine horse and buggy were missing, and all the evidence points to the fact that they had been stolen and the barn fired.

It was learned this afternoon that the horse and buggy, driven by a young white man, had passed Wilson's Mills this morning, going towards Selma. The officers are on the trail and a capture will probably be made in a short time.

Traveling Man Held Up. (Special to The Times)
New Bern, June 20—While en route from this city to Jones county this morning, Mr. Ralph Lupton, a traveling salesman for the Carolina Grocery Company, was held up by a negro man about 10 miles from this city, who ordered him to hand over all of his money. Mr. Lupton refused to do this and attempted to secure his revolver, which was in the foot of the buggy, but before he could do so the negro fired at him, the ball taking effect in his thigh. After shooting Mr. Lupton the negro took to the woods and has not been seen since.

Ship Dynamited and Sunk. (By Leased Wire to The Times)
Port Said, Suez, June 20—With her hold a mass of flames, and the fire gaining so quickly that docks and adjoining shipping were threatened, the German steamer Andalusia was dynamited and sunk at her moorings here today.

STEAMER WENT DOWN CARRYING NINE MEN

(By Cable to The Times)
Holyhead, June 20—Rammed by the steamer Yews and cut almost in half the steamer LaRochelle sank within five minutes of the collision early today, carrying the captain and eight men to death in the English Channel.

The survivors were picked up by the boats of the Yews.

The collision came in a dense fog and neither vessel had any warning. The Yews, steaming through the almost impenetrable fog at half speed, struck the LaRochelle squarely amidships, her steel bow shearing almost clean through the other craft. None but the early watches of both

STORM OVER POPE'S BREAK STILL RAGES

Cardinal Del Val Being Roundly Criticised For Trouble In Germany

HE MAY RESIGN-PLACE

Catholic Church Facing a Crisis That is Without Precedent in Modern History—Pope Deeply Grieved Over the Situation—Spain Threatens to Break Off Relations—Likely to be a Startling Change in the Policy of the Vatican Position Taken by Merry Del Val Has Lost Him Many Supporters—Church Has Lost Much in Germany.

(By Cable to The Times.)

Rome, June 20—The Catholic church is facing a crisis that is without precedent in its cardinal history and rumors current here today that Merry Del Val, the Cardinal secretary of state will resign his position and be succeeded by a cardinal who will be able to deal more diplomatically with the situation that confronts the vatican.

It is known that Pope Pius X is deeply grieved over the storm raised in Germany by the Boromeo encyclical and the threat that Spain will break off all negotiations on the concordat revision, if the vatican protests against the royal recognition of other denominations.

The result is likely to be a startling change in the recent episode has lost him many supporters in the college of cardinals and as result he will gain no great sympathy in his papal circles.

The secretary's critics say that at the best he is maladroit. The Roosevelt incident was bad, they point out, but it was nothing compared to his latest mistake which has caused the supreme pontiff to grow headway under a message from the Prussian minister which has been declared "the haughtiest address sent to a pope since Hildebrand." Declaring that the pontiff has insulted them, kings, princes and people of Protestant Germany, the minister said:

"We hold you responsible for the consequences and you must order your bishops to forbid the reading of the encyclical in German pulpits."

Just how far Del Val is responsible for the encyclical is problematical but it is felt that even if the authorship was not his, as secretary of state, he should have prevented the promulgation of so fatal a document.

The Roman church has lost through the encyclical in a few days all that it had gained in Germany in years. Catholicism had made great headway there recently, largely through the zeal and intelligence of the bishops and priests in helping the cause of social reform.

They are the largest groups in the Reichstag and their power was commensurate. The encyclical has killed that power. Protestant Germany today is ablaze and the liberals are fanning the flames.

On the credit side of the Merry Del Val account possibly may be placed the concession gained by Rome in England in the movement for modification of the coronation oath but this is felt to be far from enough to equalize his blunders and daily the demand gains force that "the Spaniard with the mediaeval mind" give way as head of the political state department to some cardinal of broader and later ideas.

Indictment Against Wendling. Louisville, Ky., June 20—The grand jury today returned an indictment against Joseph Wendling, the missing janitor of St. John's church, charging him with the wilful murder of Alma Keller.
