SIXTEEN INNING BATTLE
BETWEEN GAINY PITCHERS

Lothrop and Webb Hold the Opposing Batters at Their Mercy—Neither Team Scores—One of the Greatest Games Ever Seen Here—Raleigh Team Plays Magnificent Ball, as Does Goldboro—Bell Saves Game by Throw to Plate—McCormick Spiked Continues to Catch—Clemens' Fielding Sensational—Kelly Makes One-hand Catch—Evans for Goldboro Takes Long Fly Off Fence With Bare Hand.

Sixteen innings without a score is merely a concrete story of one of the hardest fought games ever seen in this city. Twelve hundred enthusiastic fans saw a game replete with sensational and breath-taking plays. When told on the street that Lothrop would be in the box, the crowd was anxious to see the great pitcher work, and no one was disappointed. It was a battle royal between two giant twirlers. Webb, for Goldboro, held the Birds at his mercy, twirling one of the greatest games ever witnessed here. With danger threatening, Lothrop would prove his mastery of the game, by fanning the batsmen or making them pop into the air. He had almost perfect control, passing only one man, while five walking tickets were issued by Webb and two batters were hit by Webb. At several stages of the game a run was cut off by lightning work of each team. Goldboro was dangerously near the plate, when Evans on second Crockett hit to deep right but Bell made the best throw ever seen here, when he threw to McCormick, catching Evans about a foot from the home plate. Clemens' fielding was fast and brilliant. Bell's right made two difficult runs, catching drives that would have gone to the "red gut." Evans for Goldboro made a catch in left field that brought the grandstand to its feet, when he ran to the fence and caught a long fly in his bare hand. Not a single stolen base was made on McCormick. Bell said to Kelly's credit that his team was badly crippled up, yet played the most sensational ball ever seen here. Hobbs at first was good. Keating's work at short was as fast as the league cares to see. Simmons and Bigbie did star work. While the only two errors credited to our team, were made by Simmons, yet they were very difficult chances and were made in his efforts to cut off hits. The first one when he stopped a drive right on the third bag with his bare hand and hurriedly threw to first, throwing little wild. Second, was on his hard run toward the pitcher's box after a fast grounder, he struck the ball with his glove but could not pick it up, allowing the runner to get safely on first. However, neither counted anything against us and his work throughout the entire game made up for both. Kelly, who took Turner's place in the ninth, made a beautiful running one hand catch. The entire Goldboro team played fast ball, and worked like a piece of machinery, the battery work of course being the star performers. McCormick was badly spiked in the seventh inning when Evans tried to slide to the plate on Crockett's hit to right. He was carried off the field by the players and the cut dressed. He exhibited one of the greatest pieces of pluck and nerve when he returned and caught the remainder of the game, standing at times almost on one foot. But Mack is a wonderful man and the greatest catcher in the league.

Lothrop, after pitching such great ball, hit a hard drive over the right fielder's head for three bases in the eighth inning but the other necessary hit to score him could not be gotten off Webb. The first, fourth, seventh and ninth innings began like Goldboro would win but Lothrop would not yield to them. The fourth and seventh were saved by Bell. Webb saved two time by lighting double plays. He showed signs of weakening in the seventh when he passed the first two batters but a double play prevented a score. Clemens deserves great credit for his fielding. He made hard chances look easy by his great speed, and one drive he pulled down just left of center was a piece of magnificent work. The sixteenth began a little dangerous as Fulton singled, Webb fanned and then Gates hit to Keating who threw to Bigbie, and he, to first, executing a pretty double, narrowed down to the

KLING
Johnny Kling, the Chicago Cub catcher and expert pool player. While Kling has not been showing his usual good form with the stick on the diamond, he has been doing good work with a cue on the cushions. He recently defeated Thomas Houston in a match in New York by a score of 125 to 118 in twenty-two innings. Kling's highest run was 33, while Houston went him one better.

Rocky Mount Defeats Wilson. (Special to The Times.) Rocky Mount, June 23—With two down in the eighth and score against the Crew, Craigan hit a hard drive that scored Thorpe and Gillespie and won the game. It was a poor exhibition of the national sport. Clapp had the misfortune to get hit in the eye and had to retire. Stein played a fast fielding game going to the fence in the fourth inning and getting C. McGehan's hard drive. Dick Patten, of Washington, witnessed the game. Tabulated Score. Wilson. AB. R. H. P. O. Scoreless. Well, we did not lose. Oh, you cannot beat Lothrop. Who could ask for anything better? Now—wasn't that a game worth seeing? Fans! Did you get your money's worth? McCormick's work was great. He is in a class by himself. Such nerve-racking exhibitions seldom occur in one life time. Lothrop and Webb—the two great pitchers were pitted against each other, and neither would allow the opposing team to score. They are the idols of their respective teams. The Giant's say the only hits they got off Brooks' delivery were hard, terrific drives to the catcher's mit. Same old story, that fellow is a great twirler. The Goldboro Argus dopster says: "Let's clip the wings of those Red Birds this week." Sorry, but we cannot alight for you to catch hold of us. Our wings are strong now and we are flying some.

JACK JOHNSON HAS ARRIVED IN RENO. (By TAD.) Reno, Nev., June 24—Jack Johnson blew into town this morning, looking fit to clean up the earth. He was met at the station by a howling mob, not as enthusiastic, by any means as the one which greeted Jeffries on his arrival, but they gave the champion a good noisy reception and his famous golden smile spread from ear to ear. He was called upon to make a speech, and, believe me, Jack is there with the chin goods. He doffed his Panama and jumped upon an express track. "Well, her I am, boys. I'm here to fight Mr. Jeffries, and I hope the best man wins," piped in L. Artha. "I expect to win but realize that I have a tough job of my hands. There will be no foul work. Neither Mr. Jeffries or myself have ever done any foul fighting and I am sure neither will in this battle." The manner in which Johnson spoke of Jeffries made a hit with the crowd, and as he climbed into an automobile and was whisked away to Rick's resort, where he will put in his finishing touches, the mob gave him great cheers. Johnson broke camp in San Francisco last night, leaving here on the 9 o'clock train. He had chartered a special car earlier in the day and the entire party at the Seal Rock house with him came along. Al Kaufman, George Cottone, and Dave Mills were the sporting partners to accompany him. Jack figures these three men will give him all the work he needs. Johnson said that he would rest up this morning, as he was naturally a bit sore from the long ride from Frisco.
