

The Evening Times

ESTABLISHED 1876.

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1910.

Double the Number of Paid Subscribers in the City of Raleigh of Any Other Newspaper. to be furnished for the comfort of the teachers. This suite includes two GAY years hence, as the case may be. The custom is a wise one. I think it will BOSTON MAKING READY AFFAIRS IN very fact alone makes a one-class poli-AN IMPORTANT FUNCTION TIME GERMANY large reception halls, ,to be hung with pictures and decorated with bay plants; two writing rooms, furnished 'Many North Carolinians Will azines; two large quiet rest rooms, Attend N. E. A. at Boston with sixty-three couches, and two dressing rooms, into one of which a

".Hon. J. Y. Joyner is the Second furnished by the generosity of busi-Southern Man to Hold Presidency of the Association-Convention Will Open July 4-Gov. Kitchin Will Speak.

North Carolinians are especially interested in the meeting of the National Educaton Association at Boston this year. The gathering appeals strongly to southern teachers, because the south for the first time in a quarter of a century and for only the second time in the history of the Na-

North Carolina in its whole history has received distinctive recognition

in the election of Hon. J. Y. Joyner,

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, as president of the associa-

Inquiries from various sections of the state, from those not in any way ceedingly low rate and the attract-age of this opportunity to visit Boston. Side trips from Boston and stop-over privileges with the railroad and steamship companies have been

it is impossible to conceive of a

The first general session of the

the nature of a patriotic rally appro-

is not afforded.

many to go who wish to take advant- $33.50.

tion.

ness houses, who have agreed to lend rug, furniture, plants and other equipment. "The principal entertainment offer-

service of hot and cold water has been to play from 4 to 7 p. m.

in this state. The rates from inter-ed by the executive committee is under the direction of Mrs. S. J. Mixter of the hospitality committee. This is (By Cable to The Times.) to be a reception on July 6 to all the Paris, June 25-We are now in the members of the National Education

He duty, which we doubt they are. The following are the rates for the round trip from a few central points

I have just received an advance copy with writing tablets, desks and mag- Now In the Midst of Social of a new book of poems for plays by Miss Matilda Barney. Miss Barney and her sister, Miss Laura Clifford Barney, of Washington, are both well known in the literary world as in the artistic and excusive social set of Many Thousands Now in Paris From Paris.

event many duels.

One of the plays in the book before Everywhere-Season of 1910 Will me deals with the Greek poetess Go Out in a Blaze of Glory Because Sappha, who lived, as we all know, five hundred years before the Chrisof Three Remarkable Functionsof Three Remarkable Functions— tian era. Another play is laid in Avingnon in France at the time it was ruled by the Popes. Miss Barney has written some very beautiful verses most of which has been inspired by a sojourn in Venice.

Madame Lucis Felix Fraure Goyau is one of the leading feminists in France. The only daughter of the late France, her life to philanthropy and literature Madame Goyan latest book treats of

She insists they are the The season of 1910 will go out in a mysterious offsprings of a minor order blaze of glory by reason of three re- of divinities. In this book we learn of divinities. In this book we learn markable functions. The first has al- all about the origin of the dryads, hobgobilns and questions of the day; the vote reform and the Schoneback trial at Allenstein, This Prussion vote reform is politically "the most curious thing that ever happened." Before the so-called reform not one Prussian out of fifty could have explained the working of it, now, not one in five hundred can tell, what it s all about. Prussia divides its voters into three

Military Tragedy.

In Last Few Weeks

(By Heinrich T. Reinnert.)

Robert W. Chandler and his bride, the former Lina Cavalieri, the famous opera singer, known as the most beautiful woman in the world. The marriage recently took place in Paris and was a surprise to all but the few intimate friends of the couple. After the ceremony the bride and groom proceeded to the bride's house, where the servants were instructed to tell all callers, except a privileged few that Mr. and Mrs. Chanler had gone to the country.

tical movement an injustice. Socially, no German could imagine his classes merged into one. More than that, no one would care to have it so. For-I'm about to say something seemingly paradoxical-the very fact of its existence tears down class bar-tiers and tend towards a friendly in-Many Things Have Happened tercourse between all. Human nature is alike everywhere, the certain classes will always care to mix with certain classes only. In a The Russian Vote Reform-Voters Are Divided Into Three Classes But country, where plainly deliniated class-es exist, where to the contrary all claim They Want a Change so That All to be of one class and equal, certain Can Vote Alike—Last Scene in elecents will, by force erect some sort of a barrier for them selves. In order to keep the other fellow at a proper distance, the better placed man will be somewhat haughty to the inferior.

In Germany, such a thing is unknown Berlin, 25-They live fast in Germany. because unnecessary. Everybody knowing his place, there is not only no What has not all happened in the last reason why one should fear to mix with few weeks; matters of international imthe other but on the contrary the better portance, Colonel Roosevelt's visit, King placed can afford to be condescending to the lower placed, which is not exact-Edward's death, Halley comet and a of of things of minor importance. They all seem almost forgotten, while on we have got so far. And that is the hears discussions on every side the two time to come.

> tary drama of Allenstein. The curtain At 80'clock on the morning followhas been down a long time, fully a ing the consecration services comcouple of years, but the story is still mence. Twelve crosses are marked fresh in every German mind: fresh, too. on the walls of the church, with lightno doubt, in the minds of a good many people outside Germany. To make the final scene now being enacted better bishop knocks three times with his understood, it will, perhaps, be good to pastoral staff at the main entrance, review its predecessors.

On the day after Xmas 1907 Major von Schoenebeck was found murdered in the bedroom of his quarters at Allenstein in northern Glory shall come in." Prussia. Major von Schoenebeck was a man not only respected by the citigarrison. He has no known enemies and there seemed no clue as to his murder. hree days later he was burried and behind his coffin in walked his comrades. One of the first amongst them was Hauptmann von Goehen, the best friend of the deceased. After the burial-service this man was arrested, almost at the side of the grave, for the murder of the Major. he World, especially Germany, stood aghast. Such a horrible deed was not known in the annals of German military history. A colonel has assassinated his superior, his Major. When on Goeben denied the deed some people believed him, For Goeben was not the man to kill a friend in such a dastardly way. If so, people said, he had had anything against Schoenebeck, he would have killed him in open duel, for he was known to be a dead shot. Besides were not the two men the best of friends? And then Goeben was noted the Cathedral, and for the restorafor his bravery. He had been in many tion of the Heirarchy (29 Sept., wars, had fought against the English with the Boers for the pure love of morning of 29 of June, in the afterfighting, had a general reputation for dare devil courage. Surely such a man ould not have committed such a cowardly deed. And yet he had done it. It was the

Dedication of Cathednal

PRICE 5 CENTS.

one of the Most Important Functions of the Kind That Has Taken Place -Jews to Erect Monument to King Edward-Lauging in Correct Style.

By PHILLIP EVERETT.)

London, June 25-The consecration and solemn dedication of the Westminster Roman Catholic Cathedral is to be one of the most important functions of the kind that has taken place in this country. The long and ly the ideal, but at least the very best elaborate rite will be almost identical with the Pontificial of Egbert, Archreason, why even the most liberal peo- bishop of York (d.767). On June 27 ple in Germany hope that the "three the day preceding the consecrationsystem" will remain for a very long Archbishop Bourne, fasting, will solemnly "set apart" the relics of the The last scene of that terrible mili- saints to be used in the ceremony. ed candles before them. The Archsaying in Latin: "Lift up your gates, ye princes, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doers, and the King of

"Who is the King of Glory?" asks a deacon standing in the porch, and zens of the town, but beloved by his the archbishop answers: "The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord Mighty in Battle." Then the door is opened and the bishop enters with his assistants.

On the ash-strewn have he describes a cross composed of the Latin and Greek alphabet—a curious eremony symbolical of the Latin and Greek churches and the instruction in matters of faith imparted to the Catechumens.

There follows the consecration of the High Altar and side altars, the bishop walking three times round the interior while the walls are aspersed and blessed.

The relics are then borne in, placed in recesses, in the altar stones, anointed with holy oil and sealed up.

A solemn mass of thanksgiving of 1850), will be celebrated noon the Bishop of Birmingham will be celebrant at the Second Vespers of St. Peter and St. Paul.

nidst of the social whirl of 1916. In-Association on the grounds of the ternational society in Paris is made Harvard Medical School. Provision up of a few thousand people whose will be made for entertaining from names are printed in the "Gauleis" or ten to twelve thousand guests. The season are seen at all the great routs receiving line will include presidents tional Education Association and of colleges and other distinguished citizens. The Salem Cadet Band is though they were performing a pub-from teachers, indicate that the ex- $26.85; Greensboro, $26.00; Sanford, $27.30; Wilmington, $29.15; iveness of the program will induce New Bern, $35.00; Greenville The rates are the same by rail and by water, but those by water include the cost of stateroom and meals. The Lennox Hotel has been engagarranged, and they are so varied that ed for North Carolina headquarters. North Carolina teachers and visitors reasonably desired arrangement that will meet a cordial reception here at all times. The rates are reasonable and the hotel is near Copley Square, National Education Association will the great art and literary genter of be held on the afternoon of July Boston, near where the general Fourth, in the stadium of Harvard meeting of the association will be University. The exercises will be in held. Reservation of rooms in Boston Pullman and stateroom accommopriate to the day. President Tart, dations should be made as early as Governor W. W. Kitchin, of North possible. Full and detailed information in Carolina, and David Starr Jordan, regard to rates and accommodations President of Leland Stanford Junior may be obtained by referring to Su-University, will be the eminent speakperintendent W. S. Snipes, Winstoners. President Joyner will preside, Salem, N. C., state director, Proof course. gram bulletin will also be provided by In the prepapartion of the program

Whirl of 1910.

him. great care has been taken to secure The outlook for an exceedingly papers and addresses by the most large attendance from this state prominent leaders in the educational comes greatly as a compliment to work of this country. The permanent President Joyner, and as a significant secretary says that this seems to him appreciation to the National Educathe best program the association ha tion Association that a southern man yet had. The great general sessions has been given the place of honor as of the association will be held in the its president. evenings and the departmental meeting each morning. In the afternoon AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY. the visitors will have opportunity to visit the countless attractions of Bos-An Added Interest for American ton and vicinity, historical, educa-Tourists at the Old Church. tional and other kinds. When the association met at Bos (By Cable to The Times.) London, June 25-Every American ton a few days ago, the registered attendance was between thirty-four who comes to London visits Westand forty thousand. minster Abbey as a matter of course, mediate points are proportionate: ready taken place and was given by an wood nymphs, elfs, American lady. The first has already brownles. The fairies of Scan, taken place and was given by an the sleeping beauties of the middle Raleigh, $26.05; Charlotte, 28.00; Goldsboro, $26.65; Asheville, $31.35; connected with the schools, as well as Durham, $26.00; Winston-Salem, American lady the Countess de Rodellee ages as well as the celebrated fairies du Porzie. The Countess is a daughter of Shelly and Tennyson all reincarn- classes, a first, a second and a third the "Figure," and for a few weeks each president of the republic, she devotes and public gatherings. During these and the woman's movement. Her husbrief weeks these good folk take them- band. Monsieur Goyau is the editor selves very geriously indeed. It is as of the "Revue des deux Mondes." that fairles.

and this summer tourists from the The National Education Associa tion is everywhere recognized as the other side will find an added interest largest organization of teachers in in the ancient church.

This is the "Norman Undercroft" the world. This year its meeting -the only complete portion now repromises to equal in attendance any former meeting. The secretary of the maining of Edward the Confessor's association, Dr. Irwin Shepard, writes original building, and dates back that the demand for information has nearly one thousand years. This Unalready exceeded all records, and dercroft is a low vaulted chamber twenty thousand more copies of the which formed, in other days, the subprogram bulletin have been issued structure of the old dormitory of the monks. Preserved in the Undercrott intendent of public instruction of Ar- are the effigies in wood and wax of to a delighted gathering in the Salons than ever before. The state superkansas says that a delegation of not kings and queens from Edward III. :o less than two hundred will attend James I., which were carried at their funerals and placed upon their coffrom that state alone. fins in the Abbey. The citizens of Boston have con-

The figures in various stages of detributed handsomely for the entercay, are dressed in rich clothes worn tainment of visitors. On arrival at Boston the reception committee will by their living counterparts, and the give needed directions and other as- exhibition is the most curious, if not the most beautiful, to be seen in the sistance that may be desired.

STORY OF ROGER PALMER.

Saved His Life.

(By Cable to The Times.)

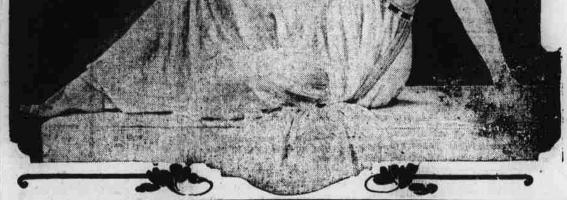

The following extracts from the Abbey precincts. Boston Transcript will give a good idea of the preparations being made for the entertainment of this great association:

"By using every room in the Museum building and improvising rooms where none exists the committee is London, June 25-A romantic story is told of Sir Roger Palmer, a enabled to give far better accommodations to the visiting teachers than Crimean veteran, whose death was Marles Engatelles, has just willed to could be provided for them when recently announced. Sir Roger was a our world famed National Library the they were here in 1903, with the lim-ited house arrangements available for the battle of Balaklava, famous for de Castellane. The Marshall was one are not lacking in gratitude. their use at that time. In this Mus- the charge of the "Six Hundred" cum building there is ample room for was fought.

nil hospitality purposes, as no con-vention meeting will be held there. going the rounds of the camp when had a rough and ready tongue like the One of the novel features will be the he found a sentry of his regiment, the fighting men of his day, and he was stretching of a huge canvas roof over 11th Hussars, asleep at his post. Althe entire courtyard in the centre of though he could have procured the ess has imposed the condition that these the building, and the construction of man's trial by court martial, which memories be unpublished for still an-a wooden floor on the ground. This would have meant a death sentence, other forty years. True Count Victor enclosure will be made into a restau-rant, large enough to comfortably Next day Palmer led his troop "into "alled died in 1863. Yet there are things sent about four hundred. A postof-the valley of death.' A Russian cav-incapacity, treason and other unmill fice, check room, lounging room, rest airy man was about to run his sword tary qualities) laid to the door room, writing room, reception room, through the lieutenant's body when a many of our oldest aristocracy, registration room and a large number trooper of the Hussars dashed up and would be very painful reading for their of other kinds of rooms are being clove the man's skull to the chin. It families indeed. fitted for their use. "A suite of rooms including the en-tire east wing of the second floor is as gratitude."

of the late General de Trobriend of theate under the magic of this brilliant | class. All have an equal right to vote near Karstairs in Brest she brought up o Paris a troupe of pretty Breten friends and intimates "Queen of the singers. These Britany girls in plcturesque native costume sang folk songs innl the countess. Caruso and Mary ary Cardinal.

Gardner was forgotten for the moment On this occasion the American Countess wore her famous blue diamond for the first time since a Russian diplomat was accused of stealing it. One of the other entertainments which is expected to make a great sensation, is to be a sparrow ball. The guests are to be dressed to represent sparrows and many ladies are pale with fear lest the costume be unbecoming. The third function, which is to close the brilliant season of 1910 is still a mystery, what it is to be or who is Sentry That He Had Befriended to be responsible for it has yet been unannounced. But Andre de Fouquieres is sure to know, and the first time I meet him I shall find out.

> A relative of mine, the Countess de of my most distinguished fighting ancestors, and a near relative of tha Castellane who commanded a frigate equally outspoken when wielding his pen. Hence it is well that the Count-

United States army. From the neigh- writer's pen. borhood of her magnificient Chateau Since the appearance of this book Madam Goyau is nicknamed by her Fairies." Among Madame Goyau's best known writings is a book on Card-Newman England's great liter-

> A perfect epidemic of what I might call statute-mania has recently broken out in France. Formerly erected statutes to our illustrious dead, but now we erecet statues to everybody.

For instance Mistril, the poet Provence, is still hole and hearty, and yet his statue has been set up in the publie square at Arles.

regardless of income

What is called social

a right to vote, but if every man's vote would carry equal strength, then the law-making body would consist to the very greatest part of social democrats.

The law-making would then, no doubt

democracy

Now there is a movement on foot at Aix les Bains to crect a statue to its patron Pierpont Morgan. One day the great financier discovered the main thoroughfare was not enough to permit his automobile and a pedestrian to pass at the same time. He immediately gave a cheque to have the street widened. Now as many as two pedestrians and Mr. Morgan's automobile can easily pass. The grateful inhabitauts have named a boulevard after

Morgan and they want to erect a staperceive they The Empress Eugene made Trouville

Mrs. Hughes Hallet made Dinard and certainly Mr. Morgfan may be said to have made Aix. We have statues of Washington and Franklin and Horace Why should not Wells the Dentist. pened. Aix have a statue of Pierpont Morgan?

The unpeakable Turk hangs out a has not come to pass. Not only that, zinc ag on the Island of Crete. The reason the ag is made of ginc is the cheme islanders would destroy any less heroic substance. The Cretans are Greeks. They always have been and they say always will be Greeks.

'You insist upon being Greeks?" say the great united powers of Europe eaving for their vacation, and there the matter rests. remain urks". It may be imagined the per-le are not pleased with this method government: We do not advance i (Continued on Page Ten.)

same old, always new story: cherchez a femmel! He was the lover of his superior's wife, and he had promised ier to kill her husband in order to set her free to marry him. his promise was especially dramatic. As Goeben day, July 6. the well-known Prof. confessed to Schrench-Notzing, who has spent several days in the prisoner's for reason of observation. Mrs. Schoenebeck had and kept his oath. He pleaded not for their electors, which again vote for guilty afterwards, because he still betheir candidates. So far they are equal. lieved in the woman. But when it But the classes are divided according to income. For instance: a certain district pays 100,000 marks in income when he saw, that he had been played taxes: which the first class very likely with, he confessed and committed suihas paid in one half, the second class cide.

three-tenths and the third class two-The woman was taken to an insane tenths. Consequently, says the state, asylum, incurable. Several of her peo- Guards, while the march of the Italthe first class has the right to elect ple had died in such an institution, ian troops will be accompanied by Inone half of the electors allowed this She was, no doubt, insane by heredity, dian music, district, the second three-tenths and But Goeben, too, was by no means the third two-tenths, This two-tenths, however, normal. A man of almost 40, he had never loved a woman before. When he likely represents a hundred times the fell into the clutches of this one, he amount of population of the first class, became her absolute slave.

Mrs. Schoenebeck had to be set free To the American, that will seem just, as cured. Being still a brunette beauty In Germany, the things look somewhat different., America has, to all intents she married again, and now she and purposes, no social-democracy, beto stand trial for assisting at the cause she does not need it. There is murder of her first husband.

neither room nor call for such a party. Everybody in discussing the case, ask why? "The case was almost dead, almost forgotten. Why did it have to America, is actually either an anarchbe dug up again with all its horrible istic movement, not worthy to be taken into consideration, or a labor movedetails. To bring a criminal to justice? Everybody is convinced that the woment. Here, in Germany it is a very man was not in her right mind. Is not strong political party.. Every man has so today! "At any rate, it's finished now!"

SCHOOL FOR SALESPEOPLE.

become so detrimental to to the middle Berlin, June 25-Deportment and and upper classes and their interests would be so very much neglected, that diplomacy are now being taught to the thing would become an injustice. salesmen and saleswomen in the Ber-And so, what had to happen, has haplin stores. The association of shop-In spite of all demonstrations keepers has founded a school where and noise, the radical change in the employees may learn just how to bevoting clamored for by the third class have in dealing with customers. The the government has worked out a talk nicely and agreeably, how to worse than ever called the retalk nicely and agreeably, ,how to form. As I said before hardly anybody bow gracefully, how to treat ill-tema Germany, except the people, whose pered customers, how to conduct an business it is, can make head or tail of animated conversation without undue t, and I shall not trouble you with the details. Meanwhile the law-makers are familiarity, and so forth.

The expenses of the school are borne by the shopkeepers, who are The three classes of Prussial of Germany! They will exist for a very, very long time to come. Not only poll-tically. They exist socially, and this King George has formally approved of the Royal Naval and Military Tournament which opens at Olympia on Monday and is to last till Wednes-

The chief feature of the program will be "Britannia's Muster," which will be one of the most striking specmade him swear, while standing under tacles ever witnessed at these tourthe Crhistmas-tree, and while the hus- naments. Between four and five hand had gone into the adjoining room hundred men will take part in the to fetch some wine, to commit that series of tableaux, which will illusmurder that same night. He swore trate the military characteristic of the various parts of the Empire.

The troops representing the four was proved to him, that she had a great Dominions-Canada, South number of other lovers beside hlm. Africa, Australia, and New Zealandwill be played into the arena by the pipers of the Scotch Guards and the drum and fife band of the Grenadier

One of the characteristics of the London East End Jew is gratitude. Rightly or wrongly, the Jews of East Then the almost impossible happened. London, as a body, have adopted the idea that King Edward was especially sympathetically disposed towards them and their kindred beyond the seas, and as a token of their gratitude for this sympathy the erection of a memorial to him is being mooted.

> The English of today, of all races, are far more practical than were their ancestors of half a century ago. At that time such a memorial could have taken but one form, that of a statue; Now, however, the suggestion is that the proposed memorial should be of a utilitarian nature, and an endeavour is being made to connect it with the Jewish hospital movement, by this means it is hoped to make the latter fashionable and consequently a success. It is thought that a King Edward Memorial Hospital would attract support where a London Jewish Hospital would fail.

> A remarkable feat of great scientific importance for the development of the seroplane has been performed at the Aero Club's flying grounds at Sheppey. The biplane designed by Lieutenant J. W. Dunne, who was until rey cently attached to the military ] (Continued on Page Ten.)