OLD BOOKS.
 Oh, well-beloved and familiar friends, A hundred joys have laughed and gone their way;
 A hundred loves have reached unlovely ends,
 And yet you stay.
 With you no whit of comradeship abates—
 I turn to you of warmth and welcome sure; I, who have said farewell to many mates,
 Yet you endure.
 Dear gossips of my heart who compensate For days of dreariness, for nights of pain,
 Life shall not find me wholly desolate While you remain.
 Beside the flame of hearth and candlelight Still shall your lives be mine to have and hold,
 Friends, who shall watch with me that living night
 When I am old.
 —Theodora Garrison.

SURPRISE MARRIAGE.
 Miss Louise Dughi and Mr. Herbert Gerow Married This Morning at Catholic Rectory.
 A surprise marriage was celebrated this morning at 9 o'clock at the rectory of the Sacred Heart Catholic church when Miss Louise Elizabeth Dughi and Mr. Herbert Willow Gerow, of New York, were united in marriage by Rev. Father Griffin.
 The marriage, which was a surprise affair, was witnessed by only a few of the most intimate friends of the young couple, who were the only ones who had been let into the affair.
 The news of the marriage will be a general surprise to the many acquaintances of the popular young couple.

Miss Dughi is the daughter of Mr.
 A. Dughi, one of Raleigh's most enterprising citizens. She is a charming and popular young woman who has won many friends in this city and elsewhere by her many charms of character. The groom is a popular employee of the Norfolk and Southern Railroad, who enjoys the esteem of all with whom he comes in contact.
 The happy couple will leave tonight for Norfolk, where they will spend their honeymoon at the beach.
 They will return to the city in the fall and will make their home here.

SEPARATED ON HONEYMOON.
 Young Husband is Left Behind at Selma While Bride Comes on to Raleigh.
 A sad affair happened a few days ago, a young bride and groom were separated while returning from their honeymoon and while the separation only lasted a few hours yet it had all the aspects of a real tragedy—at least to those most intimately concerned.
 The wedding bride came on to Raleigh, while the groom was left counting the crosses to Selma.

 Unwilling to continue on to Durham without her rightful protector the unhappy bride stopped in Raleigh and began at once to get the wires hot from here to Selma to discover if possible what had happened to her husband of a few weeks.
 The cause of all the trouble was a freight wreck near Selma. The young man, as men have a habit of doing left the train and his bride, and incidentally his coat and ticket, pocket book etc. on the train and went out to investigate the wreck.
 While engaged in viewing the scene of the disaster the passenger train began to move off. The young man made a dash to swing on but stumped his toe and fell beside the road while the train rolled swiftly away taking with it his bride, his coat and his money.
 And the poor little bride was naturally frantic until the news came that her husband was safe and sound and was industriously counting the crosses to Selma, none the worse for the accident, only a little witted and disheveled perhaps.
 And then there was a joyful and happy meeting when the night train brought the lost one back again and the reunited couple continued on their way to Durham—it is hoped without any more separations.

 the self-conceit he has on tap.

WOMEN ARE INTERESTED IN ESTABLISHING LOWER DEATH RATE AMONG THEIR SEX.
 It has recently been discovered that many women who believe they are suffering with diseases peculiar to their sex have nothing else, but kidney trouble or the results of kidney and bladder diseases. Thousands of women suffer from kidney trouble and never know it. When the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they often cause the other organs to become diseased, and you become nervous, irritable, and often despondent.
 When in ill health you may suffer with bearing-down feelings, backache, and loss of ambition. Many thousands of nervous, irritable and broken down women have restored their health and strength with Hood's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They make sick kidneys well. Free sample and booklet will be sent by the Hoodine Corporation, Boston, Mass. Enclose stamp to pay postage.

GOVERNOR SANDERS ELECTED TO SENATE

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
 Baton Rouge, La., July 5—Jared Young Sanders, governor of Louisiana, was elected to the United States senate by the state legislature at noon to succeed Camuel Douglas Mc-Enery, who died suddenly last week.
 Senator Sanders is the son of a Confederate veteran who was a Louisiana planter. The elder man died when the new senator was but twelve years old—in the year that a great flood swept away the family fortune.
 The eldest of eight children, young Sanders took up the task of aiding his mother. He became a clerk in a country store and then turned printers devil in the office of a weekly newspaper at Franklin, La., where he learned to set type. At twenty-one he became an editor and took up the study of law. Three years later in 1893, he entered Tulane University law school. Upon graduating he began to practice at Franklin. He was in the beginning associated with ex-Governor Foster, of Louisiana, and others, but eventually branched out alone.
 He was elected to the legislature in 1892, remaining there twelve years, four of which were spent as speaker of the house.
 He was elected lieutenant governor in 1904 and governor in 1908.
 In November, 1907, Donelson Caffery, son of the late United States Senator Caffery placarded New Orleans with posters denouncing Sanders and later demanded that Sanders fight a duel with him. Sanders refused and friends eventually smoothed the matter over. This incident was a part of the campaign that made Sanders governor.

MARRIED IN LONDON.

Miss Deacon of Boston Marries Russian in London.
 (By Cable to The Times) London, July 5—The international romance of Dorothy Deacon, of Boston, and Prince Antoine Radziwill, of Russia, culminated today in their wedding at St. Mary's Catholic church in Cadogan street, in the fashionable West-end. Father O'Kelly officiated.
 The princess is one of the three beautiful daughters of Mrs. Baldwin, who was Mrs. Edward Parker Deacon. The prince has $20,000,000 in his own right, and the marriage is therefore without the tinge of fortune hunting that usually mars an international wedding.
 The wedding was brilliant, the church being thronged with the leaders of British society and prominent Americans in London.
 The full choir of the church rendered the nuptial mass. The bride was given away by Lord Guy De Ruthyn. Miss Gladys Deacon attended as bridesmaid and the best man was the bridegroom's uncle.
 The bride wore a white point de Paris lace dress, with white satin bands, and a straw hat with ostrich plumes. She carried Madonna lilies.
 The honeymoon will be spent in an automobile tour in France.
 The wedding had been previously scheduled for June 22 but although friends and the necessary attendants were on hand no bride or bridegroom appeared. The utmost secrecy surrounded the postponement as nobody seemed willing to advance an explanation for the postponement.
 It was said, however, that the Prince's family, which had been violently opposed to the match, had made a last frantic appeal to the bridegroom-to-be to accede to their wishes and had asked a postponement until they could send a friend to see him.
 All appeals failed to dissuade the prince, however, and the wedding date was again fixed. The princess, like her sister Gladys, is very beautiful. The prince is twenty-four years old. He has an income of $1-000,000 a year and is heir to the estates of his father, Prince Georgi, who is a serene highness and owns great stretches of land in Russian Poland.

POOR WHEAT CROP.
 Harvest is on in Nebraska and the Yield and Quality Poor.
 (By Leased Wire to The Times)
 Omaha, Neb., July 5—The wheat harvest in Nebraska is on today and the first samples of the grain received here this morning are very poor in quality. The yield is small and will not run more than 60 per cent of the normal crop. The poor quality is due to the kernels having been shriveled by the hot, dry weather.
 Corn is making great strides, but is yet from two to three weeks behind normal. Rain has fallen in all sections of the state in the past week and corn is thriving everywhere.
 Oats are poor, both in quality and quantity.
 The other fellow's cloud seldom looks dark to us.
 Would a towel trust be able to wipe out all competition?
