PARTY HAS KEPT ALL OF ITS PLEDG

President Taft Gives His Administration a Clean Bill of Health

THE BEST TARIFF LAW

Mr. Taft Seems Perfectly Satisfied With the Achievements of His Party—Gives Interview to John Callan O'Loughlin in Which He Stands Squarely With the Conservatives—Says Party Has Fulfilled All Pledges—The Present Tariff the Best the Country Has Ever Had—The Regulars and Not the Insurgents the Ones Who Are Doing Things.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Chicago, Aug. 6.—The Chicago Tribune today prints the views of President Taft on the republican party's conduct, the tariff and other questions, John Callan O'Loughlin, friend of Theodore Roosevelt, having secured an interview with Mr. Taft at Beverly.

Though not directly quoted, it is made plain that Mr. Taft believes the Payne-Aldrich tariff the best ever passed and holds that the G. O. P. has kept faith with the voters. He gives the insurgents no credit for accomplishments. The president is not quoted, owing to the rule which applies to interviews with presidents of the United States, but his position is made perfectly clear.

In brief, Mr. Taft believes:
The republican party is the party of execution.

The "regulars" and not the "insurgents" are the ones who accomplished the progress.

The party has fulfilled all pledges. It has been efficient and effective in administration.

It has enacted wise and progressive legislation in the interests of the people.

The present tariff is the best the United States ever had.

Under the circumstances it is meet that the people of the United States should give the party formal indorsement by continuing it in power.

According to Taft, the people have

BUFFALO BANK SHORT ON CASH

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 6.—The doors of the European-American Bank at 187 Greenwich street were not opened this morning. The state banking department took charge of the institution. The bank, with a paid up capital of $100,000, was founded in 1906.

The European-American Bank changed ownership a few months ago. Vice President Mann when asked today about the suspension, said:
"We were long on loans and short on cash when we took hold here. The present management made a hard struggle to straighten things out, and had in view a plan which would have worked out admirably if we had been able to continue forty-eight hours longer."

"As to the assets and liabilities, I shall make a complete statement later. There is nothing serious about the suspension. It was mostly a case of being unable to call in loans. The depositors will not lose a cent. We will be able to pay dollar for dollar."

The European-American Bank was organized in March, 1907. It had a capital of $100,000 and a book surplus at the time of its last published statement on June 30th of only $20,000. Its deposits amounted to $261,000.

ORDER AGAINST STRIKE

Drastic Injunction Against Labor Union

Most Drastic Injunction Ever Issued Against a Labor Union, Forbidding It to Continue a Strike and Prohibiting Payment of Strike Benefits.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Boston, Mass., Aug. 6.—The most drastic injunction ever granted against a labor union, forbidding it to continue with a strike and prohibiting the payment of strike benefits has been issued by Judge Hitchcock in the equity session of the superior court. It was granted to the firm of Folsom & Sunergram. Seven other firms today petitioned the court for similar orders, directed against Photograph Engravers Union No. 3 of Boston.

Labor leaders here today denounced the injunction and declared that as a precedent it threatened the life of unions in America. It is believed that a bitter fight will be made to have it declared unconstitutional.

The injunction is against George F. Lewis and others. The essential part of it reads:

"That an injunction issue pendente lite to remain in force until the further order of this court or some justice thereof restraining the respondents, George F. Lewis, John Maguire, Louis Kohlmetz and all the officers and members of the 'Photo-Engravers Union No. 3 of Boston I. P. E. U.' and each and every of them, their agents and servants from interfering with the plaintiff's business, by obstructing, annoying or interfering with any person or persons who are now or who may hereafter be in their employment or desirous of entering the same, or any others, while entering or leaving the plaintiff's premises or while proceeding to and from, or by intimidating by threats, gestures, language, conduct or otherwise any person or persons who are now or may hereafter be in the employment of the plaintiff or who may be desirous of entering the same; or by continuing or proceeding with the strike already called against the plaintiff; or by paying to any one any money, property or other consideration to induce any person to leave or refrain from entering the employment of the plaintiff or by imposing any fine, punishment or discipline upon any person for entering or continuing such employment.

The position taken by the court in the decision is that a strike to be legal must be based upon some complaint of the employees themselves regarding the terms and conditions of their own employment and that a strike instituted by a general body of men where there is no trouble with respect to individual employers, called merely for the purpose of compelling employers to sign an agreement with a labor union against their will is illegal. The union by order of the court has been enjoined from paying strike benefits. All of the new cases have been referred to a master for a hearing on Monday. The firms which have asked for injunctions similar to the one granted the firm of Folsom & Sunergram are the Sparrell Print Company, F. O. Clark Engraving Company, Hub Engraving Company, Robinson Engraving Company, Dunbar Engraving Company.

LIVES OF AMERICANS IN HONDURAS MENACED

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
San Pedro, Honduras, Aug. 6.—The lives of scores of American residents of Honduras, especially in San Pedro and Puerto Cortes, are menaced today by the revolutionary movement against President Davilla, led by ex-President Bonilla. Davilla, according to semi-official reports current here, has asked Washington for permission to search the homes of Americans for arms. If this permission is granted bloodshed will inevitably follow, for the Americans are roused and ready to prevent any encroachment on what they believe their rights.

There is much criticism of the state department's attitude toward Central American affairs, particularly with reference to the situation here. Nearly every American here has a rifle or shotgun and most have pistols. It is almost certain that there were Davilla men to enter their homes, the dislike of the lower officials for Americans would lead to arrests on this pretense.

It is believed Davilla's attitude is due to the report that some American abductees, fugitives from justice, living in the remote towns have become involved in the Bonilla cause.

Edith Hall Orthwein, the authoress of Kansas City, who after finishing her book "Love in the Weaving," was driven to a sanitarium with nervous prostration. The book is said to have "Three Weeks" beaten a mile. Mrs. Orthwein recently explained that her book was no three weeks—it was a generation.

Godley Dived in Shallow Water and Was Killed

Gunboats to Visit Washington—Delegates Elected for the Inland Waterway Convention—Preparing for the Farmers Barbecue—Beaufort Primaries.

(Special to The Times.)
Washington, N. C., Aug. 6.—Eather Godley, a young white man of this city, was killed Thursday evening near Mackey's Ferry while in swimming. It seems that Godley had gone on a picnic with a party and with several other young men had gone swimming. In diving from a considerable height Godley misjudged the depth of the water, which was only about three feet where he dived, and struck the bottom head first with great force, breaking his neck and causing almost instant death. Godley was about twenty-one years of age, a young man of good character and had many friends in this city. The body was brought to the city today and taken to Chocoma for interment.

It is understood that the United

LENEVE WOMAN GETS OFFER TO GO ON STAGE

Quebec, Aug. 6.—"Why cannot the world forget me and let me forget?" Ethel Clare LeNeve, held with Dr. H. H. Crippen in connection with the murder in London of Belle Elmore, sobbed this to the police matron guarding her today when she was handed a telegram containing an offer to go on the stage. The young woman has not been allowed to see newspapers and the extent of the public's interest in the case was unknown to her till suddenly revealed by the dispatch.

Though the girl is almost destitute, she crumpled up the message, which contained an offer of $1,000 a week for her appearance in a melodrama founded on the Crippen case. The offer came from a New York theatrical agent.

Deeply shaken by the revelation the imprisoned girl broke down.

"How can I think of such things at this time? How can people expect me to heed such proposals. Do they think I have no heart?" she demanded.

She was calmed with difficulty.

Dr. Crippen today learned, through conversation with trustees confined near him, of the strain in the relations between the Canadian authorities and Inspector Dew, who is looked upon here now as having assumed more power than was his share.

Crippen expressed gratification that the Dominion police had given him cablegrams directed to him, whereas Dew had withheld them. Otherwise it appeared to make little difference to him in whose custody he was.

THE MINISTRY WINS

First Victory in Contest With Vatican

Clericals Abandon Proposed Demonstration at San Sebastian—Situation Critical, However.

(By Cable to The Times.)
Madrid, Aug. 6.—Through the abandonment of the proposed demonstrations at San Sebastian tomorrow by the clericals, the ministry is today conceded the first victory in the contest between Spain and the Vatican. In spite of the change in the Catholic plans, however, the orders preparing for the despatch of troops to centers of disturbance have not been countermanded, although the force detailed to Bilbao and San Sebastian is not as heavy now as was at first planned.

The situation throughout the country is critical, however, and it is believed that Premier Canalejas has grave fears of disorder. Such is the construction put upon the governments continuance of preparations for maintaining order by arms. Senator Ruiz Valarino, minister of justice, today directed the work, ordered by Canalejas, of taking legal steps against the fanatics who have sent insulting letters to the premier and other members of the cabinet.

Government Cautious.

San Sebastian, Aug. 6.—Although clerical papers are doing their utmost to advise all Catholics that the demonstrations planned for Sunday have been called off by the leaders, large bodies of the devout continued to enter San Sebastian today. It is now feared that the movement has got beyond the leaders, and that trouble will come in any event. The government has not relaxed its precautions.

Senor Don Jose Maria De Orquiza, leader of the Catholic forces here, has addressed a personal appeal to his followers, urging peace.

Celebrated Nintieth Birthday.

(By Cable to The Times.)

BRITISH SUBMARINE BOAT ACCIDENT

(By Cable to The Times.)
Portsmouth, Eng., Aug. 6.—Two officers and four seamen were seriously or fatally hurt today when an explosion occurred upon submarine boat A1. It was declared that the vessel was perhaps irreparably damaged. A defective boiler tube was said to be the cause.

Coming on top of the recent Russian and French submarine disasters, the accident created unusual excitement.

"After investigation it was semi-officially announced that the explosion was due to an accident to the petrol supply. The craft was filled with gases which rendered the rescue work exceedingly difficult. So great was the pressure of gases, that one seaman was blown through the conning tower.

When she was first commissioned the A1 was sunk off Portsmouth, all on board perishing.

She is a sister ship of A8, on which fifteen men were killed off Portsmouth in 1908.

Held Their Monthly Meeting Last Night

Mayor Wynne Doubted the Legality of Called Meeting—Chief Stell's Monthly Report Shows 180 Arrests for Various Offenses—Dog Catcher Makes First Report—People Living Around Moore Square Complain of Noise at Night in the Park.

The Board of Aldermen held their regular monthly meeting last night with Mayor J. S. Wynne presiding.

After the reading of the minutes of the last regular meeting and of the called meeting held August 1st at 12 o'clock, the discussion came up as to the legality of the called meeting. Mayor Wynne stated that he did not think it was a legal meeting as he did not think it was called according to the charter, as the charter provides that when a special meeting is called the call must be signed by a quorum and served on all the aldermen. This was not done, but Alderman Johnson, who called the meeting, said he had the advice of the city attorney.

COLONEL GREEN OF CUMBERLAND DEAD

(Special to The Times.)
Fayetteville, Aug. 6.—Col. Wharton J. Green died at 4:00 o'clock this morning at his country home, "Tokay." While he had not been well for several days his death was quite sudden.

Colonel Green was born at St. Mark's, Fla., February 28, 1831. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Esther Ellery, of Boston, who died June 15, 1883. Three children by his first marriage survive him, Miss Carrie Green, Mrs. Pembroke Jones, of New York, Mrs. George B. Elliott, of Wilmington. His second wife, who survives him, was Mrs. Adelle Burr Davis, widow of Vice-president Davis, who, after the death of President Arthur was the first lady of the land.

Colonel Green was a remarkable man of scholarly attainments and marked ability. He numbered among his friends during his life time such men as Jefferson Davis, Calhoun, Wade Hampton, J. E. B. Stewart, Gen. Albert Sidney Johnson, William McKinley, and many others equally as well known.

Colonel Green was an old Confederate soldier. At the outbreak of the war he entered as a high private in the Warren Guards. Later he organized a regiment, of which he was made colonel. His war record was very brilliant. Colonel Green was elected to congress about 1882, serving two terms in the house of representatives, where, in April, 1883, he inaugurated the Pure Food movement of nation wide proportions.

HAVING HOT FIGHT

Republicans Meet in County Convention

The County Republican Convention Badly Divided Over Seating of Delegates—Thomas Settle Spoke at Opening.

The republican county convention was called to order today with Chairman Barrow presiding. In calling the meeting to order he declared in a five minute speech that the voters would place Wake county and the state in the republican column this fall at the regular election. About three hundred and fifty people, several of whom were negroes, were present, and heard Chairman Barrow introduce Mr. Thomas E. Settle, of Asheville, who spoke.

Settle's Speech.

Mr. Settle began by saying that such meetings as this are needed to burnish up the enthusiasm of the voters. "This government," he declared, "is one in which the machinery is worked by the political parties." He said he had no sympathy with the man who would sit in the club room, or anywhere, and drink over his mint julep, would say great things, but would not put his shoulder to the wheel of his individual party machine and affiliate with the party that expresses his views. He declared he had always been a republican, had done no more strenuous work than during that campaign against that demagogic-democratic doctrine of negro rule. With the crowd yelling, he cried out, "What does the democratic party stand for, anyway?" "No living man knows, God only knows, and He will not tell it."

Mr. Settle referred to the recent fight in the fifth congressional district, and very stirringly spoke of the little sheet of paper on which was written the platform. The republican party stands for protective tariff, while the democrats stand for a not at the Allen-Manning fight and declared back of it all was the fight for party control between Governor Kitchin and Senator Simmons.

The insurgent movement of the west came in for a parting sling, saying that democratic papers are playing big headlines over it, but they did not have sense enough to know that the policies wanted by the insurgents were against the south, referring to tariff on coal, lumber, etc.

Mr. Settle wanted to know why the democrats were so afraid of Butler and howling over his return to state politics. He said Butler had once made the state democratic executive committee under the leadership of Manly bow before him, and, of course, they are now afraid of him. Several newspaper clippings were read by Mr. Settle in support of Marlon Butler.

Mr. Willis G. Briggs interrupted the speaker to say he had always been a republican.

He closed by making a great plea for the open door policy—to invite everybody to come in and vote the republican ticket. It was a speech full of republicanism and slings at the democratic party and papers.

At the conclusion of Mr. Settle's speech the convention was called to order. Mr. Barrow, the chairman, presided, while Chas. D. Wiles was

PRESIDENT MONTT THE GUEST OF TAFT

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Beverly, Mass., Aug. 6.—President Montt, of Chile, and his party were guests at luncheon today of President Taft at his summer home at Burgess Point here. The president of Chile, his wife and official party came here at noon from Boston.

President Taft and Captain Butt, his military aide, met them at the Taft private landing, where they were brought ashore in the launch of the Mayflower. The greetings between the presidents of the two American republics was very cordial and unaffected.

Because of the limited capacity of the president's summer cottage here several members of President Montt's party had their luncheon aboard the Mayflower.

SEN. CURTIS DENIES THE GORE CHARGE

Denies Any Connection Whatever With the Indian Land Contract

AS VIEWED IN BEVERLY

Today Closes the Investigation at Muskogee—Goes Next to McAllister—Curtis and McGuire to Testify—Beverly Pleased With the Developments of the Last Few Days—Believe That Testimony Shows That Sherman Had Nothing to Do With It.

AS VIEWED IN BEVERLY

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 6.—Today marked the close of the session of the special congressional investigating commission, probing the bribery charges of Senator Gore at Muskogee. On Monday the committee will meet at McAllister for a two or three days session, when they will go to Sulphur, Okla. The delegation will probably remain in the state for another week. Congressman Bird C. McGuire arrived in the city late last night and will testify today.

Senator Charles Curtis, of Kansas, just before he boarded the train at Topeka to come here to testify, said: "I shall tell the commission that President Taft sent for Vice-president Sherman and myself in order to discuss this Indian matter, and as a result of that conference, and acting on the advice of Mr. Sherman and myself, the president said he would not open the rolls nor would he further consider the matter of placing his approval on the contracts."

Senator Curtis, of Kansas, was the first witness before the committee this morning. He began his testimony at 9:00 o'clock and denied any connection whatever with the Indian contracts.

A sensation was caused when Senator Curtis testified that Vice-president Sherman disapproved of the contracts whereby an attorney's fee of $2,000,000 was to be allowed in the sale of the Indian lands. Senator Curtis also said that he as well as the vice-president, disapproved of the contracts.

MAYOR BOUSEMAN KILLED HIMSELF

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Ridgeway, Va., Aug. 6.—A sensation has been created in this section of the state over the report of Private Detective Joseph Funk, who has been engaged in working out the assassination case in which Mayor H. A. Bouseman was blown to his death by dynamite.

The detective's report to the Ridgeway town council is that Bouseman caused his own death when he endeavored to injure himself with dynamite, in order to collect accident insurance, policies to the amount of $6,000 and thus save himself and family from financial ruin, which, it has been discovered since the tragedy, he was facing.

Detective Funk followed innumerable clues, to find a cold trail at the end, and his report has been accepted by the council and by the majority of people in the community. This was especially true when the financial condition of Bouseman was learned. He owed $2,500 and to meet this had only $70 to his credit at the bank, and no other resources. Peculiar and despondent actions of Bouseman previous to the explosion are also recalled.

The detective believes that Bouseman held the stick of dynamite between his feet or lower legs while he ignited the fuse with his burning cigar, as he lay on the lawn. A paper bag found wrapped about some dynamite in bushes near the mayor's home Tuesday, following the explosion, was identified as one he got at a store the day of his death.
