A DRASTIC STEP TAKEN BY PORTUGAL

Follows Spain In Move Against Certain of the Catholic Orders TO BE EXPELLED

Tension Between Portugal and the Vatican Reaches a Climax—Premier Souza Orders Inquiry Into the Religious Orders—Particular Attention to be Given to the Foreign Orders and the Members to be Expelled—These Came in From France and the Philippines—News Came as a Shock to the People and Disorders Result.

(By Cable to The Times)
Lisbon, Aug. 30—The long continued tension between Portugal and the Vatican came to a climax today when Premier Souza, following the plan adopted by Premier Canalejas in Spain, ordered a rigorous inquiry into the religious orders.

Particular attention is to be given according to the premier's orders, to orders of foreign priests and friars which are not established according to the laws of the country. The members of these orders are to be expelled.

It is said that Portugal, like Spain, was the refuge of thousands of monks and nuns when the religious organizations were driven from France and when the United States acquired the Philippines.

The premier took this move after a long conference with king Manuel and the government leaders.

The edict came as a shock to Lisbon, no such drastic step having been anticipated.

When the news spread, crowds gathered. Extra troops were detailed to police duty or ordered in readiness for action. In several sections of the city, especially those of the working classes, disorders became imminent and there were many minor fights.

In one quarter a mob paraded, shouting "down with Souza."

The first clash between Portugal and Rome came when the government censured the action of the archbishop of Braga in suppressing a Franciscan newspaper without submitting his order to the government for approval.

On July 12 a decree was issued nullifying the archbishops act, and a bitter struggle within the country began to call radical forces aligning with the government against the clericals.

The Vatican raised difficulties about filling the place of the late Senator Martins D'Antas, ambassador to the Vatican, and on August 20 Portugal protested against the "objectionable attitude" of Mgr. Toant, the papal nuncio at Lisbon.

The government also took over the registry of births, deaths and marriages. (Continued on Page Five.)

Not a building in the town escaped damage and a majority were destroyed according to the dispatches.

MOB AFTER NEGROES

Troops Called Out to Prevent Lynching

Martial Law Declared at Huntington and Three Companies of Troops Ordered Out—Clash With Mob of 4,000.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 30—Martial law was today declared here and three companies of troops ordered out to protect Thomas Waynard and Charles Clayburn, colored, from a mob determined to lynch them.

In a clash between the troops and the mob of 4,000 a score of persons were injured, some seriously, and 50 persons were arrested. The militiamen charged into the heart of the crowd, which fought back with clubs and missiles before being cowed for the time being.

The calling out of the troops followed a desperate attempt on the part of the local authorities to restore order. Sheriff Harshbarger, surrounded by a force of regular and special deputies, mounted the steps of the jail in an attempt to reason with the mob. He had spoken but a moment, appealing to them to disperse, when the leaders rushed forward and dragged him from his position, carrying him away.

All night long the throng remained about the jail, and the fire of a dozen bonfires made the spectacle more sinister.

Occasionally parties led sorties against the jail, but for the most part it was a waiting game till the sky began to lighten.

The arrival of the troops, brought here on special trains, brought matters to a climax.

With bayonets fixed, the soldiers tramped through the town to the jail, while jeering crowds lined the streets, at times showering them with missiles.

The main force was concentrated about the prison, but a strong police force was detailed to cover the rest of the town. All loiters in the outlying districts were arrested.

This morning after the clash in which the troops charged, an appeal for reinforcements was taken under consideration.

Wayne is charged with the murder of Mrs. John Alliff, near Quinnimont, and Clayburn is alleged to have murdered her husband near here last Saturday.

Mrs. Alliff was killed while she and her husband, who had been married but a few hours, were going to their home. The bridegroom was beaten unconscious and the bride's body was recovered from a brook by the road, where the attack occurred, near Quinnimont.

A mob gathered before the door of the jail in which Wayne and Clayburn were confined and battered down the doors last night.

A force of police and deputy sheriffs which had been on guard charged the crowd and finally drove it back from the immediate vicinity of the jail. Sheriff Harshbarger tried to calm the mob, urging it to let justice take its course and pledging his word that the negroes would meet with the extreme penalty for their crime.

For a while it seemed as though the sheriff's efforts would be successful, but fresh recruits kept joining the ranks of the mob until shortly before daylight its frenzy again broke bounds and another charge was made on the jail, driving the police and deputies back into it.

The sheriff then made an appeal for troops and two companies of state militia were hurried to the scene. They charged the mob and drove it from the jail after wounding several men with their bayonets and arresting 57.

Men from the outlying sections kept pouring into the town during the forenoon and the spirit of the mob grew more desperate as the day advanced. Shortly before noon word was passed to the troops to be ready to repulse any attack on the jail and fears grew that there would be more bloodshed before night.

Pellagra in Washington.
(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Washington, Aug. 30—Assailing its victim's mind until it robbed her of her reason, pellagra, that dread malady which for several years has been a menace in the south, last night claimed its first victim in the District of Columbia in the person of Mrs. A. Sallie Graham, 55 years old, of Warrenton, Va.

The granddaughters of Charles Dickens, the great English novelist, for whose benefit a world-wide movement has been launched by Dickens publishers, readers and lovers, in the expectation that $100,000 at least may be subscribed to insure these descendants of the famous genius a competency throughout their lives. It is said they are living in Great Britain in absolute poverty, while there are 24,000,000 of Dickens novels in existence today. The method of securing the contribution is the issuance of Dickens Testimonial Stamp, which may be placed in all volumes of Dickens extant. At a stipulated sum per stamp as a sort of a royalty the $100,000 could easily be raised. Thomas Hardy, Andrew Lang and others have taken up the scheme on the initiative of the Strand Magazine.

A WHOLESALE RAID

Officers Make Haul, and Capture Bunch of Tigers

Seven Captured Yesterday Afternoon and One This Morning—Yesterday's Bunch Now Out on Bail—All in Business Here.

For some time past it was a known fact that a bunch of blind tigers were doing a hand-office business, but just how to get at them with the proper evidence was another question. However, yesterday the police authorities hit the fellows hard and when they stopped, they had rounded up just seven. This is considered to be one of the biggest raids ever made at one time in the city. Lewis and Galoway, two secret service men, who have been secretly at work here for some time, though no one knows of their presence. And it was upon the evidence worked up by these two men that the raid was made. The men arrested were Hubert T. Edwards, J. B. Bissett, J. H. Critcher, W. B. Matthews, all white, and Frank Houston, Joe Mills, Duncan Haywood, colored. They are all in business here and were captured at their places of business.

J. B. Bissett runs a grocery store on East Martin street, across from Moore Square. This is the second time he has been up, he being dismissed the first time.

Hubert Edwards runs a store on Wilmington street, and this is his second offense. The first time he was arrested he ran a place of business on Exchange street, and his case is now pending in the superior court, having appeared from the police court.

W. G. Matthews appears to have a government license.

Frank Houston has a tailorshop on Wilmington street. He was the dance master of the Palm Garden when it was running.

Duncan Haywood seems to have no place of business.

Joe Mills runs a restaurant on East Martin street and is a general loafing place for drinking negroes. Eyes have been on this place for some time. The wholesale haul happened yesterday afternoon and proved a big sensation.

This Morning's Raid.
Upon sufficient evidence, Policeman Pope went up over the Merchant & Farmer's Bank and found George Campbell in room No. 14. The officer had the information needed and placed Campbell under arrest. He is now in jail.

FIRST BALE OF NEW COTTON IN ANSON

(Special to The Times.)
Wadesboro, Aug. 30—The first bale of cotton of this year's crop was sold at Morven yesterday afternoon for 16 cents. The cotton came from the farm of Press Ratliff and was bought by T. V. Hardison. The bale weighed 517 pounds. Last year Mr. Ratliff marketed the first bale on August 12 and in the year 1908 he brought in the first bale August 12. Throughout the county the crop is at least two weeks late and the continued dry and windy weather is causing much uneasiness among the farmers. The prospect just at this time is for a fair crop in this county but rain is badly needed.

Cholera Causes Panic in Berlin.
Berlin, Aug. 30—The discovery of four new cases of cholera at Spandau and two in Berlin and the death of a suspect in Berlin have thrown the city into panic. Spandau, which is ten miles away, is being deserted.

FIRES UNDER CONTROL

Tahoe National Forest Fire Did But Little Damage.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Washington, Aug. 30—Fires on the Tahoe National forest in California are under control. The actual damage and the actual area burned are slight, according to a report made by Forester Olmsted, in charge of that reserve to the forest service today.

It is pointed out in the report that although the damage is slight the threatened damage was enormous and for this reason the rangers and troops were forced to undergo many hardships to check the flames. United States troopers rendered valuable assistance and worked with enthusiasm and effectiveness. Mr. Olmsted praises them in his report.

Acting Chief Forester Potter today conferred with the acting secretary of agriculture upon the subject of the forest service footing the bills for the medical treatment of the several hundred men who have been injured in the work of fighting the fires. It is considered likely that the regulations governing the service will be amended so as to provide for the care of forest service employees injured in the line of duty. The present regulations provide only for the furnishing of medicine and other medical supplies.

STATE LAWS TROUBLESOME

Cause More Trouble to the Railroads Than Interstate Commerce Commission.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Chicago, Aug. 30—That the various state laws are hampering the railroads more than the restrictions placed upon them by the interstate commerce commission was the declaration of President Ripley, of the Santa Fe, who resumed the stand in the rate hearing before Special Examiner Browne today. He admitted that the ratio of expense for the railroads in moving freight was less than five years ago, because of the great volume of freight handled.

Vice-president Nicholson, of the Santa Fe will take the stand later in the day.

GAMBLERS ROUNDED UP

Officers Captured Six Gamblers Early Sunday Morning

Officers Make a Raid on a Gambling Joint Over in East Raleigh and Found Seven Negroes Playing the Game of "Skin".

A nice, quiet little game of "skin" the favorite game of the colored gambler, was abruptly terminated Sunday morning about two o'clock by Officers Byrum, Wyatt, McGee and Roberts, as a result of which seven negroes are under arrest.

The officers had received word that every Saturday night a crowd would gather in a little house in an alley off Davis street and below Smith street, for the purpose of gambling.

Last Saturday night the officers named above went on a hunt for the gamblers. Sure enough there were six men in the house and one standing guard. William McKnight, Rufin Taylor, John Hoover, Lum Locklear, Louis Wall, and Will Snow were arrested and lodged in jail, but Pitman, the alleged "guard," made his escape.

Yesterday the cases against McKnight, Taylor and Locklear were tried before Judge H. H. Roberts. Will Snow, one of the defendants, became a state's witness, and told all about the affair. He said they were playing the game of "skin," the stakes ranging from five cents to $1.

After hearing the testimony Judge Roberts reserved his decision until the others can be tried.

THE FARMERS CONVENTION IN SESSION

The North Carolina Farmers Gather From All Parts of the State SOME GOOD ADDRESSES

Fine Gathering of North Carolina Farmers—Interesting Discussions, in Which Many Take Part—Mr. French Stirs Up Newspapers For Not Aiding the Farmers—Big Discussion Over Shredded Corn—Mr. Shaw Explained Home-canning—Mr. Robinson Spoke on Farm Machinery.

The North Carolina Farmers' Convention met at A. & M. College this morning and in spite of the bad weather there was a good attendance. There were about 135 present when the meeting was called to order, and the delay of both the Seaboard and Southern trains prevented the arrival of many until in the afternoon.

The meeting was considerably livened by a discussion which was started by Mr. A. L. French, who declared that the press of the state was not treating the farmers like the lawyers and doctors were treated. He said when a young man began to practice law all the local papers gave him a big boost, but when a young farmer started in his work, not a line was said about it. This brought on a lively discussion, and finally Mr. French exempted the big papers of the state and the papers of Mecklenburg county.

Another incident was the emphatic statement of Dr. A. S. Wheeler, manager of the Biltmore farm, when he said that shredded corn was not fit for cattle, and was not "worth a d—", even for beds.

Meeting Called to Order.
When President Thomas W. Blount called the convention to order at promptly 11 o'clock, and there were over one hundred of the very best farmers from all over the state from Craven to Buncombe. Mr. T. B. Parker acted as secretary.

Major Graham's Speech.
Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention:
To me has been assigned the duty of "greeting you upon your assembling in our city. It is a pleasure to the Agricultural Department and the A. & M. College authorities to have you with us. We hope your stay with us will be pleasant and your deliberations interesting and profitable to the cause of agriculture.

In former times to greet meant to bewitch with woe, lamentation, or mourning—perhaps it was pleasure realized or anticipated that occasioned these manifestations, for we are told that Jacob lifted up his voice and kept those in Babel kissing him, and there are those in these days who express their realization of pleasure by tears. However this may be, in the very recent past farmers' conventions or other of their meetings were to be great extant occasions of weeping and

GEN. ESTRADA TO BE RECOGNIZED

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Washington, Aug. 30—Unofficial announcement was made at the state department today to the effect that General Juan J. Estrada leader of the de facto government of Nicaragua, will be recognized by this purpose of diplomatic relations. Up to this time Estrada has only been regarded as head of a faction. Recently, however, in response to a commercial inquiry as to which Nicaraguan consul should be recognized to authenticate bills of lading, the state department answered that as it was a matter governed by the democratic laws of the country the proper consul he the only one representing the Estrada government.

First Assistant Secretary of State Wilson resumed his desk this morning at the department after having spent several days with Secretary Knox at Valley Forge. It is thought that Mr. Knox and Mr. Wilson discussed the situation in Nicaragua with the view of recognizing Estrada as president as soon as conditions warrant.
