HARVEST TIME.

(Written for The Times.) O, de harves' fies' am ripe, may honey, ripe wid golden grain, An' de banjo an' de fiddle am tuned fo' de dance—Now's de time—fergit yo' tolin'—set yo' heart free agaln—now's de happy time, honey, better take yo' chance.

De harves' bells am ringin' o'er de hills not fer awy.

An' I hears de merry knockn' ob de happy dancers' feet—Here, take mah arm, mah honey, let's dance too an' be gay—To de golden harves' music to soft an' so sweet!

afternoon at her home on North Blount street, Miss Willa Norris announced to a number of friends her engagement to Mr. James McKimmon.
The marriage will take place November second.

Those present were: Misses Mary Hull and Margaret McKimmon, Miss Anna McKimmon, Miss Loula Mc-Donald, Miss Emma Dewry, Miss Ruby Norris, Miss Katherine Wharton, Miss Margaret Lee, Mrs. W. N.
Holt, Miss Eliza Knox, and Miss Louise Wright.

ALMOST A WRECK.

A Wreck Narrowly Averted on the Southern, Near Morrisville Yesterday.

Yesterday Southern passenger train which is due here at 12:30 o'clock, was delayed over four hours by the breaking of a driving wheel. The accident occurred a few miles from Morrisville.

One of the big drivers broke loose and flew out, but was held by the connecting rod until the train could be brought to a standstill. Fortunately the wheel went clear of the cross-ties, which prevented the tearing up of the track.

CREEL-PUTNEY.

Surprise Marriage Last Night at Home of Mrs. Taylor.

Many of the friends of Mr. Thomas Braxton Creel and Miss Bessie Ellen Putney will be surprised to learn of their marriage which took place last night at 9 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. R. M. Taylor, corner of Person and Martin streets. The ceremony was performed by Mr. W. H. Sawyer, Justice of the peace in the presence of only a few friends who had been let into the secret.

Mr. Creel holds a position with the Henry T. Hicks uptown drug store. He was former traveling agent for The Times and has made many friends Evening Times and has made many friends throughout the state.

The bride is a popular young woman of this city. Both have the best wishes of many friends.

Grace Fitch Conger, sister of Vera Fitch, the beautiful girl who shot herself in New York's fashionable Hotel Astor recently, and whose repeated details of relationship for some time thwarted the police in their attempt to clear up the attempted suicide mystery. Below Dr. Carl Perin, a mystic, with whom Mrs. Conger is associated. When Vera Fitch was reported to Mrs. Conger as lying at the point of death, and a complete identification was desired, Mrs. Conger, in order to conceal what she considered the disgrace, laughed and joked about the matter in a way to entirely throw the police off the scent for a time.
The sisters are daughters of the late General Henry Fitch, U. S. A. and a cousin of the late Clyde Fitch, the playwright.

Business Meeting of League.

The regular business meeting of the Edenton street Epworth League will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the league room.

It is earnestly desired that all members be present as business of importance will be transacted.

Engagement Announced.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Suzanne Crow to Mr.
Robert Anderson Brown will be of special interest to many friends.

The wedding will take place at the home of the bride-elect on North Halifax street, September 11.

Miss Crow is the daughter of Mrs.
Clinton C. Crow and is a young woman of unusual personal charm, who has won many friends by her lovable disposition.

Mr. Brown who holds a position in the Citizens National Bank, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Brown and is one of Raleigh's most promising young men. No cards will be issued.

Opening of Schools

phia, going later to France to continue her studies.

Miss Louise Hill, of Lexington, who comes as an assistant, is the other alumnae addition to the teaching force. She was here as a student from 1905 to 1907, when she graduated with credit. Since that time she has been at home teaching music and in the graded schools of Lexington.

Miss Anna C. Buxton, of Winston-Salem, N. C., who takes Miss Tower's place in the English work, is an alumnae addition to the faculty. She is the daughter of Hon. J. C. Buxton, of Winston-Salem, and was a St.
Mary's girl in 1902-03. After leaving St. Mary's she entered Bryn Mawr and remained there three years, up to the beginning of her senior year.
Since leaving college she has been living at home and teaching in the Winston schools. She is very popular in Winston and her friends believe will be equally popular at St.
Mary's.

Mrs. Lavinia Gretter, the new mar-tron, lives in Henderson, N. C.

Meridith College.

Meridith College will reopen this year on September 14th with brilliant prospects, 225 boarding students being expected at the opening.

Although there has been no new building during the summer nor any special improvement, yet the college is in splendid condition to receive the large number of students who will arrive in a little over a week.

Among the members of the faculty there have been some changes. Miss Alice Whittier Meserve, professor of Latin, will be back at the college this year after a year's study in Chicago University.

Mr. Wade R. Brown, dean of the music school, together with Mrs.
Brown, will spend the winter studying in London and Berlin, having been granted a year's leave of absence. During his absence the music department will be under the direction of Prof. Gustav Hagedorn, professor of violin, who returns from a year's study in Europe. Miss Hagedorn, who as Miss Elizabeth Burt, was one of the most popular members of the music faculty, will resume her work after her year abroad with her husband.

Dr. L. E. M. Freeman, of South Carolina, comes to Meridith this year and will have charge of the department of Bible and philosophy.

Miss Gertrude Royster, of this city, who for five years has been assistant in the department of physical training, will this year become director of the department.

Friends of the college will be glad to know that Mrs. Ershaw will return and have charge of the clubs.

Peace Institute.

At Peace Institute this summer a great number of improvements have been made, new buildings erected and much inside improvements.
A new boiler house and well equipped steam laundry has already been completed. The new studio for both the music and art departments, as well as the laboratories is now in course of erection and will be completed by November first.

An improvement that will be greatly appreciated by the students is the large outdoor gymnasium, which is being arranged from one of the outer courts.

On the inside work has also been going on so that it will be almost new Peace Institute to the students.

Mr. Paulsen, a Norwegian, and an honor graduate of the Royal Conservatory at Leipzig, will be professor of violin.

The new lady principal, Mrs. J. E.
Booker, comes to Peace after several years as lady principal of the state Normal School of Virginia. She is the wife of the celebrated evangelist, Rev. J. E. Booker.

President Stockard, in speaking of the prospects of Peace this year, said that practically every space had been engaged. They expect to take care of more girls than ever before.

The opening will take place at 10 o'clock Thursday, September 15.

Mr. W. B. Hunter has returned from New York where he purchased the fall and winter stock for the Hunter Bros. Brewer Co.

Mr. T. P. Jerman returned today from Carthage.
