SECRETARY DOYLE HERE

Secretary of Civil Service Commission Here Yesterday

Jno. Doyle, Secretary of Civil Service Commission at Washington, Visits This Part of the Country—New Advertising Manager—Booker T. Washington to Visit Durham—Convention of Colleges to Meet in Danville.

(Special to The Times.)

Durham, N. C., Sept. 29.—Mr. Jno. T. Doyle, secretary of the civil service commission at Washington, was here yesterday and took occasion to make some illuminating comments on the condition of the service in the south and the scarcity of young southern men in the service. He is traveling through this part of the country mainly to make clear to the postmasters and subordinate clerks the exact nature of the civil service laws in regard to campaign contributions by employes of the federal government. In his speech at the meeting of the postmasters in Winston a few days ago he stated that no man is allowed to enter a postoffice building for the purpose of soliciting campaign contributions, nor is a postmaster permitted to solicit funds from his clerks for campaign purposes. The whole purpose of the commission since its establishment twenty-seven years ago is to take that department out of politics.

"Another object of my visit to this part of the country," said Mr. Doyle, "is to look into the conditions that cause such a shortage of men in the service in the south. There are a number of reasons for this. The main one is that the young white democrats hesitate to go into the examinations, when the negro is allowed to come in also. Then many have not yet got over the old idea that a man must be a republican to work for the government. Of course the larger part of the offices and positions in the service are appointed as the result of competitive examinations. It is this idea that the commission has been trying to get the young man to see."

Speaking further on the point of southern representation in the civil service, he said that the higher paid positions that are open, such as engineers for the geological surveys, surveyors, engineers, etc., and most positions requiring expert mechanical training went to the higher trained New England and northern youth. The south as yet has not equalled the north in the development of the vocational college and mechanical school.

New Advertising Manager.
The Sun has secured a new advertising manager in the person of Mr. C. H. Loop, who has been connected in an advertising capacity with the Winston-Salem Sentinel. He is an advertising man of long practical experience. He has already moved to this city with his wife and takes up his duties with the evening paper at once.

Booker Washington to Visit Durham.
Booker T. Washington, the noted colored preacher and educator, is booked for an address here the latter part of next month, probably about the 28th. John Merrick and C. C. Spaulding, of this city, officials of the North Carolina Mutual and Provident Association and members of the local colored chautauqua, are behind the movement to bring Dr. Washington to this city. He is to

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Raleigh Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

Danger Signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

Danger Signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Raleigh proof: J. R. Upchurch, 205 S. Swain St., Raleigh, N. C., says:

"I do not hesitate to speak highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, as there is no doubt in my mind as to their being a reliable remedy for kidney trouble. My kidneys were disordered for a long time and the secretions caused me considerable annoyance by their irregularity in passage. I also had frequent, dull pains across my loins. Upon learning of Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box from the Bobbitt-Wynne Drug Co. They regulated the passages of the kidney secretions and disposed of the back-ache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

General C. R. Brayton, the "blind boss" of Rhode Island, who died recently. For forty years he was a dictator or at least a strong adviser in the affairs of the Republican party in "Little Rhode." His death has caused many politicians to declare that Democratic success may now be looked for. His death has caused a number of prominent Republicans to call upon United States Senator Aldrich to withdraw his resignation from the upper house and remain in politics to fill the gap.

make a tour of the state and has definitely promised to come to Durham. Arrangements are being made by the colored people to provide room for the large crowd that will turn out to hear the president of Tuskegee, and an effort will be made by them to secure the Academy of Music, reserving the ground floor for the white people and the two galleries for the colored.

Convention of Colleges.
A convention has been called by a committee from several Virginia and North Carolina colleges, for a meeting of representatives of the colleges of Virginia and North Carolina to be held in Danville, Va., on October 7, to consider questions relating to the athletic interests of the institutions of these two states. The call states that "it is believed that such an association would be of great benefit in developing good feeling between the colleges in affording an opportunity at the conventions for the friendly discussion and adjustment of matters of general interest, and in stimulating the development of the highest ideals of sportsmanship. It is further believed that it will aid greatly in developing minor sports, such as baseball, basket ball, track athletics and tennis."

The convention will meet in Danville, Va., at the Hotel Burton, and Prof. R. L. Flowers and Frank C. Brown will attend as the representatives of Trinity. The following colleges have been invited to send delegates: Georgetown University, University of Virginia, Washington and Lee University, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Virginia Military Institute, University of North Carolina, N. C. A. & M. College, Wake Forest College, Trinity College, Davidson College, Guilford College, Elon College, Atlantic Christian College, Hampden-Sydney College, William and Mary College, Richmond College, Emory and Henry College, Eastern College.

PREACHER A SUICIDE.

Worried Over Condition of His Wife,
Who is Insane, He Ended His Life.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Chicago, Sept. 29.—Rev. Arthur W. Little, one of the most prominent and popular Episcopal clergymen in the United States, rector of what is probably the richest Episcopal parish in America and the recipient of distinguished honors from Oxford University, is dead at his home in Evanston today, a suicide, his brilliant mind having given way under the weight of a great grief which had been a burden on his heart for five years. Dr. Little was rector of St. Marks church, Evanston. His body was found shortly after 6 o'clock last night on a couch in his study on the third floor of the rectory at 1501 Ridge avenue. In his right hand Dr. Little held a new revolver. The fatal bullet wound was in his temple.

The life of this distinguished divine had been most sad for years. His wife, whom he married eighteen years ago, whom he loved devotedly and who was of great assistance to him in his work, pastoral as well as literary, became mentally unbalanced five years ago.

Dr. Little refused to have her adjudged insane and kept her in private sanitariums. Lately she has been in the Penoyer Institution at Kenosha, Wis. She escaped from there Thursday. Sunday he received a letter from her in Milwaukee. The letter somewhat incoherent, told him she was out of funds.

H. S. Staymaker, one of the parish wardens and his daughter, Miss Letetia, make their home at the rectory. Dr. Little sent Miss Staymaker to Milwaukee to seek Mrs. Little. Miss Staymaker accomplished her mission and placed Mrs. Little in a private sanitarium Tuesday. Yesterday she reached home about 5:30 o'clock, and seeing neither her father nor Dr. Little, began the preparation of dinner. Her father came in a few minutes. He advised her to see if Dr. Little was not in his study. She went to the study and found the clergyman dead.

Dr. Little was a native of Brooklyn, N. Y. He was educated at the general Theological Seminary of New York and received his degree of doctor of divinity from Oxford. He was fifty-three years old and came to St. Marks in Evanston twenty-two years ago.

WEAK, SICK PALEFACES

Will Be Interested in This Suggestion From the Pen of a South Carolina Lady.

Gramling, S. C.—"I was so weak," writes Mrs. Lida Walden, of this place, "when I began taking Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I do all the sewing, cooking, washing and general housework, for my family of nine, and have not been in bed a day."

"I was almost a skeleton, but now I weigh 160 pounds, and am still gaining. I think Cardui the greatest remedy for women on earth."

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, and tired, worn-out expressions, need a tonic. Cardui is the ideal tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame.

Being a vegetable medicine, containing no minerals or habit-forming drugs of any kind, Cardui acts in a natural way, and is perfectly harmless and safe for young and old.

In the past 50 years over a million ladies have been benefited by this standard woman's remedy. Why not you?
Please try Cardui.
