

THE WEATHER
For Raleigh and vicinity:
Fair tonight, increasing cloudiness Tuesday.
For North Carolina: Fair tonight, increasing cloudiness, with probably showers in east.

The Evening Times

LAST EDITION

ESTABLISHED 1876.

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1910.

PRICE 5 CENTS

Double the Number of Paid Subscribers in the City of Raleigh of Any Other Newspaper.

ATHLETICS CAPTURE THE FIRST GAME OF WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Mack's Crew Take the Lead In Second Inning and Win Out 4 to 1

OVERALL KNOCKED OUT

Frenzied Crowd of Baseball Fans That Watched First Game of World's Series—As Time for Game to Begin Nearer, Betting Became Brisk and Odds Took Sudden Change to 7 to 5, With Athletics the Favorites—Cubs Ruled for Long Money Before—Every Dollar Offered on Cubs Taken by Members of Philadelphia Stock Exchange.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 17.—It was a frenzied crowd of baseball fans that watched the first game of the world's series between the Cubs and Athletics here this afternoon. Twenty thousand howling fans were at the Shibe Park when the Cubs came on the field for practice at 12:55. They had been flocking in from the time that the gates were opened at 11 a. m., and their early applause was for the Athletics during their morning practice. But a mighty cheer went up as Manager Chance, of the Chicago team, walked through the gate, arm in arm with Orvie Overall, who had been chosen to twirl for the Cubs. At the same time the 9,000 reserved seats began to fill up. The bleachers were already crowded and 3,000 fans flanked the field.

The National Commission ruling that spectators may get no closer than 235 feet of the home plate gave all a magnificent view of the park. As the moment neared for hostilities, betting became very brisk and all of a sudden, the odds changed to 7 to 5, with Athletics favorite. This was an unexpected shift, for all along the Cubs had ruled for the long money. Hundreds of gamblers from Boston, Pittsburg, New York, Chicago, and even from St. Louis, made open books in the grandstand, and outside the park. A big delegation from the Philadelphia stock exchange on the upper stand took every dollar offered on the Cubs.

The umpires were distributed as follows:

Connolly behind the bat, Hank O'Day at first base, Rigger in right and Sheridan in left. The regular ground rules of two bases in the crowd prevailed.

Just as the battle was about to begin Frank Chance ordered a moving picture man off the field, and the order was countermanded by President Johnson, of the American League. A conference was called and Chance had his way, refusing to let the game go on unless the picture was moved alongside the home stretch.

Correct Batting Order.
Chicago—Sheekered, I. F.; Schulte, R. I.; Hoffman, C. F.; Chance, 1b.
(Continued on Page Five.)

PRESIDENT TAFT'S VACATION IS OVER

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Boston, Mass., Oct. 17.—President Taft's vacation days are over. Three thousand children lined the streets of Beverly and waved flags in farewell to the nation's executive today. In a short parade through Beverly the presidential party were guarded by a detail of boy scouts.

President Taft motored to Boston and with Mrs. Taft, Miss Helen Taft, Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin, Jr., and Captain Archibald Butt left on a special train shortly after noon for Washington. The women in the party are to spend a week in shopping in New York.

It is believed in Beverly that President Taft will next year occupy the Peabody House on Corning street, Beverly. The house occupied this year is to be torn down by the owner, Mrs. H. D. Evans to make room for Italian gardens. The Peabody House has an estate of sixty acres which will give the president an excellent opportunity to have a private golf course.

VICTIM OF UNDERTOW

Dixon's Leading Man Drowned at Wrightsville Beach

Was So Far Out That Efforts to Rescue Him Were in Vain—Four Men Struggled With Him As Long As Possible, But Life-line Reached Them a Second Too Late.

(Special to The Times.)

Wilmington, Oct. 17.—Robert Barton Pahr, leading man in Thomas Dixon's play, "The Sins of the Fathers", was drowned yesterday afternoon at Wrightsville Beach while in surf bathing. Heroic efforts were made to save the young actor, but in vain.

Mr. Pahr was a good swimmer, but ventured out a trifle too far, and was caught by a mighty undertow. Several members of the troupe, among whom was the author, Thomas Dixon, were at the beach when the sad accident happened. Pahr was such a long way from shore that it had caused considerable comment before he was seen to give a signal for help. Pahr suddenly stretched his arms far above his head and his companions realized instantly that he was in danger. Several men started towards him, but he was so far out that he sank several times before they could reach him. When help did reach him he was unconscious and made no effort whatever to help himself. For what seemed a great time, but what was really only a few moments, four men struggled with him, trying to bring him ashore. The undertow, however, was so strong that no headway could be made. Finally a line was sent out to the struggling rescuers, but just before the man, who was to make the effort to bring the drowning man to shore, started on his trip, the man holding Pahr released his hold and he sank to rise no more. Almost exhausted themselves the four men then made their way back to shore.

The drowned man took the part of Tom Norton, the son, in "The Sins of the Fathers". Mr. Dixon stated that he, himself, would take that part until a new man could be secured and prepared for the part.

The troupe left this morning for Fayetteville, where the play will be presented tonight.

Body Not Recovered.
Wilmington, Oct. 17.—Up to this afternoon no trace of the body of Robert Barton Pahr, the young actor, drowned off Wrightsville Beach yesterday, has been found. The beach was patrolled all last night and the water scoured today, but the body could not be found. It has probably been swept to sea and if thrown on the shore later will likely be below this beach.

Round Trip Flight From Paris to Brussels.
(By Cable to The Times.)

Paris, Oct. 17.—Henry Wynmaiden, the Dutch aviator, arrived at Issy, the aviation field here, today, having completed a round-trip to Brussels and return in his aeroplane, winning prizes totalling $35,000.

The flight to Brussels from this city was made yesterday by Wynmaiden and Legagneux, a Frenchman.

Hoffstot Must Stand Trial.
(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Washington, Oct. 17.—The United States supreme court today handed down a decision that Frank N. Hoffstot, president of the Pressed Steel Car Company, must return to Pennsylvania from New York for trial upon charges against him resulting from the Pittsburg graft scandal.

Twelve Perish at Sea.
(By Cable to The Times.)

Rio de Janeiro, Oct. 17.—Twelve of the crew of the freight steamer Portmarnock have perished in the wreck of the vessel on the rocks off Cape Frio. The Portmarnock sailed from San Lorenzo, Argentina, on October 5 for Leth, Scotland.

No, Cordelia, a statistician isn't merely a figure-head.

WELLMAN HAS GOTTEN OUT OF HEARING

Nothing Has Been Heard of the Aircraft Since Sunday Noon

ALL WELL AT THAT TIME

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Simsconset, Mass., Oct. 17.—All records for continuous flight in a dirigible balloon have been broken by

(Special to The Times.)

Walter Wellman in the airship America, in which he and a crew of five men are attempting to fly to Europe. The former record of 27 hours was held by Count Zeppelin.

The Atlantic ocean in the vicinity of the Northeast coast is being combed by wireless today in fear that the balloon which sailed from Atlantic City at 8:03 Saturday morning, has been disabled in the electrical storm which was reported raging off Cape Sable.

The news of the electric storm caused grave alarm to those waiting for news at this point and led to redoubled efforts to get in touch with the party, while the promise was made that a government tug would be sent at once to rescue the expedition if this was deemed necessary.

Through the night and early hours today wireless stations, along the north Atlantic coast continually queried, attempting to get in touch with the America or with some steamship which knew the whereabouts and condition of the balloon. It was believed today that the fire wireless report from Wellman would come from a steamship, if the leader of the expedition continued in his determination to keep toward Europe.

Trans-Atlantic liners were all asked for news from the balloon and outgoing ships, equipped with wireless, were asked to make every effort to communicate with the balloon and relay the message to wireless points along the coast.

The last definite word from Wellman upon which to base a belief as to the whereabouts of the balloon up to an early hour today was received at this point by wireless at 12:45 o'clock p. m. Sunday. It was believed that the airship had just passed

(Continued on Page Five.)

DESPERATE EFFORT TO CATCH ANARCHISTS
(By Cable to The Times.)
Paris, Oct. 17.—Ninety-three persons have been arrested by the police, who are trying to get the ringleaders of the gigantic anarchistic conspiracy which has resulted in a continuous explosion of bombs. An infernal machine was exploded in front of the residence of the editor of the newspaper Patrie, on the Boulevard Pereire at 1:30 a. m. today and shortly before this another bomb had been found near the August Viaduct.

Some of the strikers who are still refusing to return to work, despite the granting of the major portion of their demands, by the railroads, have been reinforced by the lawless elements and are endangering passenger traffic on lines running out of Paris. Fish plates were torn up from the lines from this city to Marseilles and a Marseilles express had a narrow escape.

If there is anything new to say about a man it is always at his funeral.

The top photograph shows Walter Wellman, (on the left) and Mr. Vaniman, engineers of the America. The scene on the left is an exterior view of the shed which houses the America and below the airship is seen leaving the shed.

The scene on the left is an exterior view of the shed which houses the America and below the airship is seen leaving the shed.

A DAY OF RUNAWAYS

Mr. I. M. Deaton Seriously Injured Yesterday Afternoon

Mr. Moser's Carriage Wrecked—Mr. Carver Painfully Injured—Mr. J. M. Deaton Still Unconscious—Two Strangers Thrown From a Buggy.

Yesterday afternoon was one of serious runaways, one of which is likely to prove fatal. Mr. I. M. Deaton was seriously injured, Mr. Henry Carver painfully hurt, the family of Mr. M. A. Moser had a narrow escape and two strangers were hurled from a buggy.

Mr. Deaton.
Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, Mr. I. M. Deaton, of the revenue department and Mr. Bob Jones were driving along Hillsboro street, when the horse became frightened and ran away, wrenching a wheel off the buggy. Mr. Jones was first thrown from the vehicle, and a moment later Mr. Deaton was hurled out, landing on his back, between the car tracks, the back of his head striking with great force. When bystanders rushed up, Mr. Deaton was unconscious, and it was seen that he was in a serious condition. Medical aid was summoned and he was removed to his home on West Jones street. All night long the doctors worked with him but he had not regained consciousness this morning and his condition is considered critical. Mr. Jones was not injured.

Mr. Carver Injured.
Late yesterday afternoon while out driving, Mr. Henry Carver was thrown from his buggy and suffered a sprained leg. His injuries, while painful enough to keep him in house for several days, are not serious.

Mr. Moser's Escape.
Mr. M. A. Moser and family had a narrow escape while driving along Hillsboro street yesterday afternoon, about the same time that Mr. Deaton was injured.

Mr. Moser had shoved up his carriage to inquire about Mr. Deaton's accident, when a negro driving a heavy

CORNERS JURY VIEWS REMAINS OF KETCHEL

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 17.—Coroner A. H. Nichols and his jury of six men today viewed the remains of Stanley Ketchel, middleweight champion of the world who was shot by Walter Ripley alias Hertz, at the ranch of R. P. Dickerson, near Conkay during a quarrel Saturday morning.

The inquest will be held tomorrow at 9:30 a. m.

The body of the former champion is lying at the Elks Club room here and this morning scores of men and women viewed the body.

Telegrams and letters are pouring in upon Mr. Dickerson, expressing the greatest grief over the unfortunate shooting. Bob Fitzsimmons, John L. Sullivan, Jim Corbett, Billy Papke, Jack Johnson and numerous other fighters and friends of Ketchel have expressed their grief and paid high tributes to Ketchel's memory.

GREAT FAIR WILL BE FORMALLY OPENED AT NOON BY GOV. KITCHIN

CIRCUS GETS IN BAD Dastardly Assault on a Well Known Attorney

Assaulters Fined $50 and Costs and Circus Owner Sued for $2,000 Damages—Put up Cash Bond and Left—Trouble Over Half Ticket.

(Special to The Times.)

Wadesboro, Oct. 17.—Haag's circus was in this town last week and John W. Gullidge, one of Wadesboro's best known attorneys, took Mrs. Gullidge and his little daughter, Margie, to the show. He told the ticket seller to give him two whole tickets, and a half ticket, designating at the time the child he wished the half ticket for.

When he started into the tent the woman who was taking up tickets, who is said to be the wife of Mr. Ernest Haag, owner of the show, told Mr. Gullidge that Margie could not go into the show on that ticket and took hold of the arm of the child. Mr. Gullidge explained to the woman that the ticket seller had sold him the ticket for his daughter, at the same time taking hold of the child and pulling her away from the woman. She followed them into the animal tent, taking hold of Margie's arm and pulling her back two or three times.

Finally Mrs. Haag went to her brother, H. Hubbard, who is an employe of the circus, and said something to him, after which Hubbard, accompanied by another employe of the circus, F. Jones by name, approached Mr. Gullidge, and Hubbard, as soon as he came up, and before Mr. Gullidge realized what he was up to, struck him in the face. Jones then took a hand and held Mr. Gullidge while Hubbard struck him in the face a number of times. One or two of the blows were painful, but none of them were at all serious.

The affair created a great commotion, and Hubbard and Jones attempted to escape in the confusion, but they were held up by Messrs. T. A. Gatewood and Howard Carper until they were taken in charge by policemen who came up almost at once.

The men were brought up town and carried before Mayor Boggan, who fined them $50 each and the cost. They paid the fines and were released.

Later Mr. Gullidge started a civil action against Mr. Haag, owner of the circus, for $2,000 damages on account of the assault committed upon him by his employes. Attachment papers for the circus were issued and placed in the hands of Sheriff Martin. Mr. Haag, when he found there was nothing else to do, put up a cash bond of $2,000, and the affair was over until it comes up for trial in the Superior court.

ANOTHER ROCKEFELLER GIFT.
Conditioned Upon the Usual Stipulation of Raising a Great Amount.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Cleveland, Oct. 17.—Conditioned upon raising $750,000 more, John D. Rockefeller has offered to give $250,000 toward a permanent endowment to the medical department of the Western Reserve University. Another $250,000 has been pledged by H. H. Hanna, and 14 months are allowed in which to raise the additional $500,000.

It is understood that this is the first large sum ever offered by Mr. Rockefeller as a straight endowment of any medical institution.

Saw General Washington.
(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Washington, Oct. 17.—After 124 years of the ups and downs of life, Ann Walker, negress, a former slave, is dead. She came to Washington in 1800, saw the first president, and was known as the oldest resident when many old residents of today were babies. She was 12 years old when she saw General Washington, and her memory retained his features until her death.

Parade Will Form In Front of Courthouse and Lead the Way

EVERYTHING IS READY

Tomorrow at 12:00 O'clock the Greatest Fair Ever Held Will Be Formally Opened—Parade Will Be Formed on Fayetteville Street at 10:00 O'clock—Opening Address Will Be Made by Governor Kitchin. Thousands of People Already in the City—Yesterday Was a Busy Day at the Fair Grounds—Everything in Readiness—Program For Tomorrow.

(Special to The Times.)

Tomorrow's Program.
8:00 a. m.—Fair grounds open.
10:00 a. m.—Parade forms in front of courthouse.
12:00—Opening address at fair grounds by Governor Kitchin.

Tuesday's Races.

2:29 Trot $300
2:19 Trot 300
2:13 Pace 400

2:20 Trot.

Essie M., entered by Jones & Brown, Augusta, Ga.

Bruner G., by L. H. Campbell, Georgia.

Nominee, by Geo. M. Harden, Raleigh, Va.

Black Streak, by E. C. Leach, Norfolk, Va.

Florida, by G. W. Haight, Laurel, Md.

Red Cal, by S. Walton, Falls Mills, Va.

Jack McGrath, by S. Walton, Falls Mills, Va.

Red Prodigal, by S. Walton, Falls Mills, Va.

Edgehill Pirate, by Edgehill Stock Farm, South Carolina.

Peturist, by Joe Staton, Richmond, Va.

2:10 Trot.

Jno. W., entered by Jones & Brown, Augusta, Ga.

Astro Bell, by Geo. M. Harden, Raleigh.

Alexander P., by G. W. Haight, Laurel, Ind.

Red Maggie, by S. Walton, Falls Mills, Va.

Chieftan, by West View Farm, Winston.

Aurelia, by Edgehill Stock Farm, South Carolina.

Sir Thomas Lipton, by Herman Tyson, Newark, Del.

Wat Leyburn, by H. Cannon, Florence, S. C.

Running Brook, by W. E. Doyle, Lynchburg, Va.

Bertie Gallant, by C. B. Tansey, Chattanooga, Tenn.

2:13 Pace.

Bessie Gentry, entered by H. Cannon, Florence, S. C.

Alto Clark, by Edgehill Stock Farm, South Carolina.

Little Joe, by Joe Hanna, Roanoke, Va.

Giles Mebane, by J. R. Thomas, Greensboro.

The great state fair, semi-centennial

(Continued on Page Six.)

MRS. JULIA WARD HOWE, GRAND OLD WOMAN, DEAD

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Newport, R. I., Oct. 17.—Julia Ward Howe, America's "grand old woman," died today.

Mrs. Howe, the venerable author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was stricken with a severe cold on Wednesday last and her health had steadily declined until Dr. Christopher F. Barker of Newport, the family physician, advised the family that because of her great age, 91 years, there was practically no hope for her recovery.

For several weeks her health has been failing, and her friends and relatives realized that she could not recover. Her end was peaceful, as her life had been. During the morning she spoke a few words and said it was her one hope to have humanly emancipated from evil. Then she lapsed into unconsciousness.