LAST

ESTABLISHED 1876.

RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1910.

PRICE & CERT

Double the Number of Paid Subscribers in the City of Raleigh of Any Other Newspaper.

SEN. ALDRICH RUN DOWN BY

Resting Easy But Owing to Advanced Age Complications May Follow

HURLED SEVERAL FEET

Senator Aldrich Had Started to Cross the Street When He Noticed a Car Moving Swiftly Down Upon Him-Realizing His Predicament, He Turned Suddenly, Only to be Confronted by Taxicab Which Had Turned Into Street-Apparently Dazed, He Stepped Forward Blindly and Automobile Struck Him-At His Son's Home.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

New York, Oct. 21.-With seven policemen on guard to turn away newspaper men, Nelson W. Aldrich. senior United States senator from Rhode Island, is believed to be lying in a critical condition at the home of his son, Winthrop Aidrich, 540 Park avenue, today. He was run down by an automobile last night at Sixtleth street and Madison avenue, and mystery was thrown about the case today the fact that all information as to the extent of his injuries was refused. One reporter was badly beaten when he sought information. An attache of the Aldrich home blackened his eye and otherwise insuled him.

That the senator had been badly was evidenced by the arrival in quick succession of three physicians at the home today. These physicians when seen upon leaving would make no statement.

At the time they left no report of the accident had been made to the spolice of the East Sixty-Seventh street is difficult of solution. He has not a station and no effort has been made pitcher on his staff on whom he may to find the driver of the machine that depend to hold down the Athletics ran the aged senator down while Cole is his one best bet. crossing the street in the dark.

reached this country only a few days ago from Europe where they had spent a vacation of several months.

Since his arrival here he has been er batters of the Athletics team exhis arrival stopping at an uptown hotel. As the aged senator attempted to cross Sixtieth street, a powerful machine turned Evidently bewildered by the unexpected appearance of the machine, the senator stood stock still in the middle of the street. Before the chauffeur could throw on his brakes the ear struck Senator Aldrich and hurled him several feet.

The chauffeur without stopping to ascertain the injuries of the senator. turned on his speed and disappeared in the darkness. A few minutes later, Senator Aldrich, his left eye discolored, his left cheek badly cut, his arm hanging limp at his side, and his black frock coat torn at the shoulder and covered with mud staggered into a grocery store nearby.

He appeared on the verge of collapse and asked for help, thinking he was in a drug store. When he found his mistake he insisted on going to his son's home unassisted.

Dr. Holbrook Curtiss, one of the attending physicians, after spending reveral hours at the bedside of the aged senator, made the bllowing statement today:

"Senator Aldrich is suffering more from shock than from his injuries. He was resting easy when I left. However, owing to the advanced age (Continued on Page Six.)

INDICATIONS THAT STORMS HAVE PASSED

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, Oct. 21.-The United States weather bureau this morning announced that the weather indications are that the storms, which have been prevalent along the southern have entirely passed and that fair and cooler weather should prevall for several days. With the exception of New England the storm in the eastern section of the country has practically settled. The only evidence this morning, of any actual unsettled weather, it said, is along the southeastern New England coast, although it is not expected to amount to much or to last more than six or seven hours. The o'clock this morning to be of a velocity of 48 miles an hour

In the middle west it is consideris looked for, particularly in the lake state publicly if he will support Pres- the storm they pressed their thanks

CRITICAL GAME TODAY

Cole Expected to Retrieve Fallen Fortunes of Cubs

ub Fans Downhearted-With Announcement That Bender Would Pitch for Athletics, All Betting, so Far as the Cub Fans Were Concerned, Came to a Sudden Halt.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Chicago, Oct. 21.-The rain, which had been falling intermittently all night, further depressed the almost nopeless Cub fans today, and while some still professed to believe the Cubs would win today's game beat Philadelphia to the world's pennant, many were outspoken in their belief that the Athletics would take the game today and win the banner in four straight. The Cub fans certainly were down hearted. The crowd around the ticket office at the park at daybreak was so small as to hardly look like a street corner conference between two or three men. There was none of the enthusiasm that marked the race for scats vesterday. With the announcement that Bender had been picked to pitch again today, practically all betting so far as the Cub fans was concerned, came to a sudden halt. All those who were not broke already, declared they did not want to risk hard earned money on a hoodooed team.

Cole was expected to be in the box for the Cubs today, in an effort to retrieve the fallen fortunes of Cubs. One victory, it is believed. would cheer up the players so they might have a chance of winning. The overwhelming defeats of the first three games, however, no matter what they say, have taken the sand out of them.

Today's game is a critical one-first because if it is won by the Cubs, it may only prolong the agony of final defeat; second because if lost, it will show one of the worst defeats ever known in a championship series. is not usual for world's championships to be won in four straight games. So, for this mason, the Cubs are going to put up the battle of their lives. The players feel that a "jinks" is on their trial, but they intend to beat it Chance is facing a problem, which

On the other hand, Mack will play Senator Aldrich, with his wife a trump card in Bender. All there is pect to go in and clean up all the hits in sight.

Mack is anxious to make it a win into the side street from Madison av- in four straight games and doesn't care about the box office receipts.

Game Postponed.

At 10:30 there was a mist over th city and similar conditions promised to obtain all day long. Apparently there was no chance for any sunlight for the game this afternoon

At a meeting of the National Base ball Commisioners with the four umpires this morning the fourth game in the world's championship series between the Chicago Cubs and the Philadelphia Athletics was postponed till grounds.

Should the Cubs win tomorrow and fifth game be necessary it will be played Sunday in Chicago.

PROMISES SENSATION

President of Defendant Company Asks to Have Books Audited For Alleged Misstatements.

(Special to The Times) Charlotte, Oct. 21-In the case of a supplemental proceeding has been filed by the president of the defendant company, the Southern Pants Company, asking that the receivers, the American Trust Company, be ordered by Judge Long, of civil court now sitting here, to have the books of the liquidated concern formally audited from May, 1908, to June, 1910. Mr. Miller states that mismanagement is charged by Greenleaf, and also that one of the officers, not the president, however, is charged with overdrawing his salary more than $3,000, and it is for these alleged statements, it is presumed, that Mr. Miller has asked for the auditing of the books by the trustees, through an auditor. This case promises to be quite a sensation when finally brought into court. Judge Long will consider the prayer imme-

Will He Support Taft? (By Leased Wire to The Times) Boston, Oct. 21-Frederick W. Peabody, a prominent' Boston lawyer, sent a communication to Theodore Roosevelt today asking him in his address opening Senator Lodge's ident Taft in 1912.

Walter Wellman, who with a crew of five left Atlantic City in the dirigible ballson America in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic ocean. Wellman and his hardy navigators were obliged to abandon the trip 375 miles off Norfolk, Va., after being in the air seventy hours. The boat was picked up by the steamship Trent of the Royal Mail Steamship Packet Co. bound for New York. Wellman says the failure of the expedition was due to leakage of gas and trouble with the engines. Below is J. Murray Simons, navigator and pilot of the Amer-

And Ship Is Guided Safely Into Port

Three Hundred Passengers Pray For

(By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, Oct. 21-After passing through the very heart of the Cuban nurricane, when waves were lashed mountain high and the wind blew nearly 100 miles an hour, and when passengers prayed for safety and sang hymns for deliverance, the arrived here today four days overdue, with a particular story of bravery on the part of Mrs. Rene Cooper, of Cal- hurling and tumbling upon each othcago. The vessel-carried 300 passengers.

When the storm was at its height last Friday and passengers were upon their knees praying for their lives, Mrs. Cooper braved the dangers of wind and sea and went among the steerage passengers singing hymns. She is an actress, possessing a beautiful voice and her tones arose above the lashing of the wind in the rigging and the roar of the seas.

The Comus first ran into the storm C. E. Greenleaf vs. Southern Pants on Wednesday of last week. Captain Company, now in a receiver's hands, C. P. Maxon, kept her on her way right into the vortex of the hurricane. The storm grew in volume, while it seemed to the passengers that the vessel would surely founder. The panic of fright spread among those on board, particularly in the steerage. The ship rocked in the trough of the waves until she was on her beam ends and it was certain death to venture on deck. So violently was the vessels tossed about that for a time the passengers had to cling to the stationary fixtures of their state ination?" came next. rooms to keep from being hurled against the walls.

It was during the terrible Friday that the momentary possibility of death caused religious fervor to be very friendly with him," said the spread through the ship. Men and witness. women knelt for hours and prayed that the vessel might be guided safely into port. The captain feared that some of the steerage passengers was gone. would go insane from fright and Mrs. Cooper volunteered to pacify them. As she sang hymn after hymn, men and women crouched about her, touching her hands and kissing the hem of her garments. They looked upon her as the angel of deliverance campaign at the arena tonight, to and when the ship was safely through upon her with tears of joy.

Cross-Examination of Crippen Most Terrific In Memory of English Barristers

CASE TOTTERING

Pitiable Figure of Dr. Crippen, Confused, Self-damaging, Cringing and Writhing Beneath Pittless Rain of Questions Features Sensational Trial-Crippen Changes Rapidly From Self-complacent and Dapper Prisoner Into an Object of Abject Pity-Court Attaches Declare That He Placed the Noose About His Own Neck.

(By Cable to The Times,)

London, Oct. 21-The pitiful figare of Dr. H. H. Crippen, confused self-damaging and cringing writhing beneath a pitiless rain of questions waite he slowly saw his case tottering before him, featured his sensational trial for the murder of his actress-wife, Belle Elmore Crippen, in Old Bailey court today,

Under the merciless cross-evanination of Prosecutor Richard Muir Crippen rapidly changed from the self-complacent and dapper prisoner into an object of abject pity.

Court, attaches ideclared that he had placed the noose about his own neck and the spectacle presented was one of the most pitiable in the annals of the famous old tribunal

Crippen admitted that he knew of no person who had seen or heard from his wife since February first nor did he know any one who had seen her leave his residence at 39 Hilldrop Crescent, North London Safety of Steamship Comus, as it alive. He admitted that his testimony Passes Through the Very Heart of concerning her leaving him to join the Cuban Hurricane—Thrilling another man in America was mere assumption.

It was the most terrific cross-examination within the memory of parristers, who looked on.

At times Solicitor Alfred Tobin tried to save his client from the avalanche of questions which rained upon him.

Like the accusing personification of justice, Prosecutor Muir stood disteamship Comus, from New Orleans, rectly before the prisoner hurling broadside after broadside at the diwith thrilling stories of escape and minutive prisoner. The questions came like the snapping of whipsers' heels until the amazement of those in the court room gave way to sympathy for the accused man.

"Do you know of any person who has seen Belle Elmore Crippen, or heard from ner since her disappearance?" was the first question shot at the prisoner after he had mounted the witness chair for the cross examination.

The witness faltered and looked startled.

"I do not," he replied. "How can you prove that your wife left your home alive or that sae ever left at all?" snapped Prosecutor

Muir. Crippen paled as he realized the damage to his case which these questions entailed.

"Answer my question," thundered Muir, shaking his finger at Crippen. "I cannot," replied the doctor.

"How do you know that Mrs. Crippen went to America to join Bruce Miller, as you stated on direct exam-Again Crippen hesitated and looked towards his counsel with appeal in "I only supposed so; she seemed to Crippen clutched the arms of hi chair. Perspiration stood out upon his pale forehead. All his assurance

The women craned their necks to see the prisoner and, as usual, wo- sition. men made up the bulk of the audience. Some of them had even brought opera glasses with them, the better to see the prisoner. As the cross-examination proceed ed the solemn hush deepened. Even Lord Chief Justice Alverston

(Continued on Page Two.)

Pantine Chase, who is to be Claude Graham-White, the English aviator, now in this country. Miss Chase, who is well known as an actress is familiarly called "Pretty Polly of the Pink Pajamas," a name she received when acting in Peter Pan. She has many times been reported engaged to prominent marriageable young men, but has quickly denied all rumors. At one time she was even reported to have been eagaged to her adopted father, James M. Barvic. the famous author. She will make her final appearance behind of Peter Pan, during the latter part of December, and will remain there until early spring, when she will retire from the stage to become Graham White's bride, ol. Joseph E. Pogue Unanimously Re-elected Secretary by a Rising Freasurer—Vice Presidents to be Named by Executive Committee.

Succeeds J. H. Currie as President of Fair Association

The North Carolina Agricultural ociety last night elected Col. E. F. McRae, of Robeson county, president of the State Fair Association to suceed Col. J. H. Currie, who declined o serve any longer. The meeting was called to order in he senate chamber by President Currie, who congratulated the society on zation, he excellent showing of the State Fair, how it had grown to the present proportions and discussed some of the dans for the future.

Secretary Pogue stated that at this time no detalled report could be made but assured the society that all obligallons would be met and that there could be a surplus. He spoke of the pressity for erecting more new oulldings following out the Idea in the new exposition hall that was erected this year which had made uch a hit. He said that yesterday's attendance was the largest in the hisory of the fair except Roosevelt Day and predicted that today and tomor row would be record breakers.

Colonel MacRae Elected.

Col. F. B. Arendell placed the name of Col. J. H. Currie before the meeting for reelection to the presidency but Col. Currie stated that he had êrved three years, and firmly declind reclection.

Col. Arendell then nominated Col. E. F. McRae, of Robeson county, which was seconded by Mr. Leo D. Heartt. The election of Col. McRae vas made unanimous by a rising vote. In accepting the position, Col. McRae pledged himself to do all in his power to further the interests of the fair and carry out the plans al-

In an excellent speech, Mr. Leo D. Heartt nominated Col. Joseph Pogue for reelection to the position of secretary. This received a number of econds and the election was made unanimous by a rising vote. Col. Pogue responded in a brief speech thanking the society for the honor stating that he had filled the position for 11 years and did not know how he could hold the office and it would be well for the society to be on he lookout for another man in case he should decide to relinquish the po-

Mr. S. G. Rotter was unanimously reelected treasurer.

It was suggested by Col. Pogue that the vice presidents should be men who would take an active part in the The rules were suspended and this matter was left to the executive ommittee to revise the list and see hat active men were secured.

TODAY'S ATTENDANCE AT THE STATE FAIR BROKE ALL RECORDS FOR FRIDAY

feature fairs and suggested that the fair of 1911 be known as the "Good Roads and Automobile Congress"

Col. Pogue favored a 30-day exposition and stated that there should be three or four new concrete build-ings erected, and the fair placed in such a position that the fakirs, bun hows, etc., could be eliminated. He also told of the difficulty in regulating the midway attractions. These sug gestions were referred to the executive ommittee for future action.

The society unanimously adopted a esolution thanking the press, railroads and all who had contributed to make this year's fair such a success. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

Col. McRae, the new president, ne of the state's leading farmers and business men and is liked by all. He married in Landon this spring to has always played an important part in the affairs of the state, and the society is to be congratulated upon its selection. Col. McRae has served in the state senate, the house of ren esentatives, a member of the State Agricultural Society, and has always lischarged his duties with great abil-

STRIKING SYMPATHIZERS.

Walk Out of Missouri Pacific Shops

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 21.- Two thousfive hundred boiler makers, tottlights in the London production blacksmiths, pipemen and members of trade allied with the machinists walked out on the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain system, the Gould ines, throughout the west at 10 clock this morning in sympathy with the striking machinists. In a statement issued this morning Generd Manager Sullivan of the Missouri Pacific sald: "There are no material differences xisting between the railway company nd the machinists except the ion of the reinstatement of the foreman who went out with the men The machinists' organigation insists upon their reinstatement to the positions they formerly held, which remest has been refused. "The right of the railway company to select its officers of whatever rank neluding foremen, is one which cannot be relinquished to a labor organ-Vote S. L. Rotter Re-elected ization while the company is held reponsible for the safety and elecione

The action of the other labor orcanizations to force the railway comsany into compliance with the mahinists' demand by threats of a sympathetic strike in violation of their contract agreements, entered into ince the machinists' strike was declared, cannot be permitted to influnce the company in its determination to maintain control of its business through its own offical organ

TAFT'S CABINET MEETS.

Takes Up Question of Appropriations and Economy.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Washington, Oct. 21President Taft and his cabinet took up the question of appropriations and economy today. Secretary of War Dickinson and Secretary of the Navy Meyer were the only absentees.

The president, it was announced today, has registered by affidavit in order to be eligible to vote in Cincinnati on election day.

W. E. S. Griswold, secretary of the Stock & Bond Commission, conferred with the president on the work of the commission, which is conducting an inquiry to determine how railroad stocks and bonds can be brought under the control of the federal gov-

This afternoon the presidentt ook horseback ride, golf being eliminated as his recreation until his sore

First Taste of Winter. (By Leased Wire to The Times)

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 21-Folowing a heavy rain storm Wednesday night, the entire panhandle and plains section of Texas got its first taste of winter. In Amarillo snow continued most of the night, a fall estimated at two inches, breaking October records for eighteen years. The forecast indicates freezing for today and tomorrow.

Newspaper Man Dies.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 21-Frank .. Wells, a former newspaper man and member of the Hawaiian commission, died here today.

After learning a profession many a youth discovers that he should have Col. Arendell advocated holding learned a trade.

The Officials Are Jubilant Over the Success of This Years Fair

BEST ORDER PREVAILED

esterday's Attendance Smashed All Records, Excepting the Year President Roosevelt Was Here-Today's Crowd Estimated at 12 000. Only One Arrest Has Been Made in the Grounds-Pickpockets Received a Set-back Because of Police Vigilance-There is No Doubt But That This Year's Fair Was the Best Ever Held in the State.

Tonight.

Grand Marshals' Ball at the Capial Club, beginning at 9:00 o'clock. "Polly of the Circus" at the Academy. Attractions at the Grand. Metropolitan, and Revelry.

The great state fair of 1910 has almost come to a close, and to say hat it has been a success is to express it mildly. The exhibits were the subject of most favorable comment, and were far superior to any past fair, both as to variety and quality. The attractions were good, even f some undesirable shows did slip in, but what was to be expected? The attendance exceeded the most optimistic expectations. Though it rained in torrents Wednesday, one of the big days, and the weather was threatening Thursday up until noon, the attendance for the week surpassed all previous fairs except Roosevelt year. The management is jubilant and it has a right to be. All obligations will be met and there will be a neat surplus with which to erect new buildings next year.

Today a Record-breaker.

Today dawned bright, and in the early forenoon the fair-bound cars were loaded to the running boards. By noon the grounds had the appearance of Thursday of other fairs and the crowd was estimated as high as 15,000. Everybody was in a folly good mood, but with more serious intent than yesterday. Today the various exhibits came in for close inspection and the frivilous side war only a slight diversion from the educational. The exposition halls were crowded. The hurry-scurry of yesterday was missing, for today the visitors wanted to see the exhibits. Yesterday they mingled with the crowd and thought only of amusement. The grounds opened at 8 o'clock, and every car brought its load, which spread everywhere. At 11 o'clock here was a parade of live stock around the race track, which was witnessed by thousands of people. It was a grand exhibition of horses and

Because of the postponement of Wednesday's races the races were called at noon today and were as fol-

2:24 Trot, purse $400 2:17 Pace, purse 300 2:15 Trot, purse 300 (Continued on Page Six.)

IN BETTER CONDITION

(By Leased Wire to The Times)

New York, Oct. 21.-Theodore Roosevelt, his throat in much better condition as the result of several lays' rest, left today for Boston. where he will speak for Schator Lodge. He left at 10 o'clock on the Bay State limited of the New York. New Haven and Hartford.

He will leave Boston tomorrow on a special train for New Hampshire, where he will make rear platform speeches in behalf of Robert Bass, he republican candidate for governor He will also make set speeches at oncord and Manchester. Saturday night he will return to Dyster Bay and on Monday he will begin a five day campaign throughout New York state. What most of us want is more friends and less need of them.