

BIG DAY AT TRINITY

Inauguration of Dr. Few Next Week

Will Be Marked By a Brilliant Assemblage of Scholars—Leading Address By President Judson, of Chicago University.

(Special to The Times)

Durham, Oct. 31—With the inauguration of President Few barely ten days off everything is now in readiness for what promises to be the most brilliant assemblage of scholars that has been brought together in the south in many years.

Various functions will mark the memorable day. A luncheon to the delegates, guests and trustees will be given in the Washington Duke building, west wing, at 1 o'clock, at which James H. Kirkland, Ph. D., chancellor of Vanderbilt University, will preside.

Arrangements have been made with the officials of the Southern Railway to operate, for the benefit of the delegates, a special train from Greensboro, which will arrive in Durham at 8:55 Wednesday morning, and another one from Durham to Greensboro, which will leave Durham at 11:30 at night after the Duke reception.

The inauguration brings to the south a delegation of educators which in point of academic distinction and connection with the leading colleges and universities of the country has seldom been equalled in southern educational annals.

Henri St. Yves, the wonderful little French runner, who came over to this country last year and galloped away with two $10,000 races, and who has now sent in his entry for the twenty mile race to be held in Madison Square Garden, N. Y., November 4. As a team mate St. Yves will have the crack-a-jack ten miler, Pierre Larque, who established an enviable reputation while running for an amateur in the Irish-American, A. C. of New York. These two runners will represent France.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

Death of Mrs. Carpenter. (Special to The Times.) Wadesboro, N. C., Oct. 31—Mrs. Martha J. Carpenter died at the home of her son, Dr. S. B. Carpenter, of Cedar Hill, Friday. She was in her 89th year and has been an invalid for about eight years. She has suffered two strokes of paralysis but death was due to old age. The funeral service was conducted at the Concord Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

English Paper on American Plan. (By Cable to The Times.) London, Oct. 31—The first edition of the Evening Times, the new paper run upon the American plan, made its appearance today. It is copiously illustrated, even down to the editorials. The Times now approaches the American standard of journalism nearer than any other English paper.

Fire in Deaf and Dumb Institution. (By Leased Wire to The Times.) San Francisco, Oct. 31—Fire in a dormitory adjoining the main building of the state deaf and dumb asylum at Berkeley resulted in a total loss to the building and caused a stampede among the inmates of the institution. That there were no fatalities is due to the fact that inmates of the building were in the dining room of the main building at the time. The fire was confined to the dormitory though for a time the entire plant was threatened.

The best plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on over the affected parts is superior to a plaster and costs only one-tenth as much. For sale by all dealers.
