Briand, barred from the Atlanta Speedway Jaures is preparing to attack the new ministry when its membership is announced. He wished to question Premier Briand in the chamber as to why Mons. Vivani, former minister of labor resigned but as Vivani's resignation was handed in together with the resignations of the balance of the 'ministry, interpellation was blocked.

The premier has undertaken one of the most gigantic tasks which has been offered in French public life since the days of Napoleon. He has been instructed by President Fallaires to select a cabinet which will please all factions.

Furious indignation was expressed against Mons. Briand today by his political enemies who accused him of breach of honor in resigning the balance of the cabinet, the other members being under the impression, ap- Wholesale Smuggling Going on at parently, that Briand would also step out of office. From one source today came the accusation that the premier's new cabinet would consist of blacklegs.

Today M. Briand found himself the absolute dictator of France, empowered to select such persons for the cabinet as appealed to him as being fit, but with a task facing aim that was staggering in its magnitude.

The air was filled with rumors today. Many names were mentioned and it was conceded that M. Miller-(Continued on Page Five.)
