THE WEATHER.

For Raleigh and Vicinity: Fair tonight and Saturday; slightly colder tonight, followed by slowly rising temperature on Saturday.

For North Carolina: Fair tonight and Saturday; rising temperature in the interior Saturday; brisk west winds diminishing.

Weather Conditions.

The disturbance off Hatteras yesterday morning moved slowly northward and has increased to a storm of marked intensity. Brisk to high winds are reported from Hatteras northward with rain along the coast which has been very heavy. In New York City, snow was falling in Washington at the time of the morning observation. Over interior districts westward to the Mississippi river the weather has been generally clear with early morning temperatures ranging from 20 in the northern portion of the lake region to 40 at Mobile. The northwestern disturbance now extends from North Dakota to Texas, attended by cloudy weather. It is being followed by high pressure over the northern Rocky mountain region.

The weather will continue fair in this vicinity tonight and Saturday. It will be somewhat colder tonight, followed Saturday by slowly rising temperature. L. A. DENSON, Section Director.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Riggan Died This Morning.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Riggan, of 213 E. Hargett street, died this morning about 1 o'clock.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence this afternoon at 4 o'clock and the interment will be in the city cemetery.

A Regular Tom Boy

was Susie—climbing trees and fences, jumping ditches, whittling, always getting scratches, cuts, sprains, bruises, bumps, burns, or scalds. But laws! Her mother just applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and cured her quick. Heals everything healable—Boils, Ulcers, Eczema, Old Sores, Corns or Piles. Try it. 25c. at all druggists.

The Rev. Gouverneur F. Mosher, missionary at Wu Shih, China, will deliver an address at the church of the Good Shepherd next Sunday night. The people of Raleigh will be interested to hear Mr. Mosher, as he is a co-worker with Miss Annie Chesire who went out from this church in 1899. Mr. Mosher will also address the united auxiliaries of the city in the Church of the Good Shepherd next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to hear this interesting visitor to our city.

POLICE COURT.

The silence that has pervaded the police court since Wednesday was broken this morning when two cases appeared on the police blotter, one for being drunk and the other a larceny case.

William Lewis, white, who has gotten the habit of appearing before this court every few weeks upon the same charge, drunk, came up again this morning. The best illustration of faithfulness is exhibited in his wife's devotion to him. Upon every occasion she appears before the judge's desk and breaks down in a flood of tears, while pleas of every description are poured out to his honor. This morning she plead as never before, and when a road service stared her in the face she went down. She alone saved William this time, and her pitiable condition caused the judge to let him off one more time with the payment of the cost, $2.75.

Isaac Taylor, colored, could not stand the temptation of taking some of the "filthy lucre", and had taken into his own possession the sum of $95, the property of Mr. E. G. Beddingfield, who lives near Neuse. Mr. Beddingfield went over to the Merchants National Bank yesterday and got a check for $90 cashed and then went to Hunter & Dunn's store. While there one of his hands asked him for some change. When he ran his hand into his pocket and pulled out the change, in some means he dropped his purse. Not noticing it he went down to the office to pay a bill and there found his purse gone. Returning to the front of the store he told of his loss and searched everybody. Taylor, objected to opening his purse, but finally yielded. The purse was then opened and the money found inside was the same as Mr. Beddingfield had lost, the same number of tens, fives, and ones as he had, but it was in the negro's purse. Later Mr. Wynne found Mr. Beddingfield's purse up-stairs among some bagging. Chief Stell stated that Taylor admitted to him that he took the money out of Mr. Beddingfield's purse and put it in his, and that he hid the purse up-stairs in the bagging. Upon his own confession he was bound over to January term of superior court under a $200 bond.

IT WAS A FALSE ALARM.

"Billy" Boylan Was Reported As Having a Hat On Yesterday.

Late yesterday afternoon The Times' office phone bell began to furiously ring, and one of the boys, thinking that something serious was going on, nearly broke his neck getting to the receiver, and here is what he caught coming over the wire: "Is that The Times' office?" sweetly inquired a feminine voice. "Yes"; what's the trouble?" was the response.

"Billy" Boylan is out this afternoon wearing a coat and a hat—a hat," came back over the wire.

That was a paralyzer for The Times' man, and after a few gasps, during which he tried to realize the awful news he rushed out into the street, to see this unusual exhibition. After a search "Billy" was found, wearing a coat, but minus the chapeau. No, sir, that hat adorning Billy's head is a sight yet to be seen.

When told about it, Col. Jack Duncan merely snorted and said that he "loved Billy's topknot would soon require a shelter," but when it was announced later that such was not the case, the Colonel grunted in despair. Billy just won't wear a hat, it seems.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Mr. A. A. Jernigan Bound Over to Superior Court.

Mr. A. A. Jernigan, of Knightdale, was tried before Justice J. R. Upchurch yesterday afternoon on the charge of embezzlement, E. Dunningburg being the prosecutor. It was alleged that the defendant disposed of a consignment of near-beer or cider for which he failed to make the proper remittance. He was bound to court in the sum of $200 which he gave.

Football Game Tomorrow.

On Saturday, Nov. 5, the Raleigh fans will witness one of the best football games of the season, when the strong Donaldson football team will play the Raleigh high school football team. Both teams are working hard and hope to win. The Donaldson boys have a good team and are playing good games. The Raleigh boys have a good team also and those who saw the Greensboro-Raleigh game will remember how the Raleigh boys play. They are in fine condition, and Prof. Jackson of the Raleigh high school, who is coaching the boys, is responsible for the excellent condition of the team. The largest crowd of the season is expected to attend the game. The game will be called promptly at 4 p. m., on the A. & M. Athletic field.

Snowdrift Hogless Lard

is as "pure as the drifting snow" which first touches the mountain crest. Its success compares to an avalanche sweeping down from the mountain top, driving all imitations and substitutes before it.

SNOWDRIFT is always U. S. Inspected and Passed. Avoid counterfeiters as you would counterfeit money. Snowdrift is healthful and pure, made from refined cotton seed oil, and also stearine to give desired consistency and is universally known as "the standard American shortening". It is sold by all dealers in touch with the highest grades, and used in the leading hotels, cafes and restaurants throughout the United States and Canada.

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT THE FIT OF AN OVERCOAT?

Some people regard the Overcoat merely as an "overall" garment, without putting much stress on the fit. It is the first thing about a man to be seen, and why shouldn't it conform to the individual's physique?

It can and will, provided it is made for that individual.

Our Custom Tailoring has all the ear-marks (except the price) of the Merchant man, and we feel sure that we could please you, and fit you, too. Prices from $15.00 up.

That Overcoat must come. You can't afford to wait until all have been picked over—and we don't believe that you can afford to buy other than a Kuppenheimer garment. There is more extra value in these garments than you'd find in most others. If you want an Overcoat that will meet every need, buy a button-high-and-low-collar Kuppenheimer.
