Rain and Snow in That State Helps the Democrats

HEAVY VOTE IN CITY

Snow and Rain Falling in New York—Bad Weather, a Damper on the Hopes of the Republicans—Leaders on Both Sides Maintained Their Claims—Betting Favorable to Dix in the Early Hours of Voting—Many Women at Polls.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
New York, Nov. 8.—The spellbinders took their raw throats into seclusion today and turned the active work of election duty over to the party ranks with the result that a record vote in ratio to the small registration was brought out despite bad weather. With snow falling during the early hours, at intervals changing to a raw, disagreeable rain, the various organizations saw that they had their work cut out for them and rallied with the result that heavy balloting marked the early hours. The bad weather was a slight damper on the hopes of the republicans and the democrats rejoiced accordingly.

As reports came to republican headquarters from up-state points showing that the weather there was even worse than in New York city, the republican gloom deepened though the workers redoubled their efforts to cut down the majority which was expected for John A. Dix in New York City. Republicans, democrats, independent leaguers and socialists were at the polls before they opened at 6 a. m. Though the gubernatorial contest between Dix and Henry L. Stimson, the republican candidate is the big issue with Col. Theodore Roosevelt and his doctrine of new nationalism looming big behind Stimson, nevertheless the utmost efforts were made to bring out a big vote for the congressional candidates, the democrats hoping in this state to be able to turn former republican majorities into democratic gains.

SEARCH FOR BELLE ELMORE CONTINUES

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Chicago, Nov. 8.—Search for Belle Elmore, for whose murder Dr. Harvey Hawley Crippen is under sentence to be hanged November 23, and who was reported to be alive and in hiding near Chicago, centered today near Hammond, Ind.

A mysterious note left in the Virginia Hotel here, mysterious telephone calls, and the appearance recently in Hammond of a pretty woman who closely resembled Belle Elmore, have spurred the police to extraordinary efforts to locate the singer.

Meantime, a report gained currency among sporting men that the story of Belle Elmore's being alive and in Chicago, was a "frame-up" for theatrical purposes. The names of Attorney Robert E. Cantwell and Jack Curley, the wrestling promoter, were mentioned in connection with the alleged scheme which is said to be nothing more than an impersonation by an English actress.

Both these men admitted being interested with F. T. Tobin, an attorney in Philadelphia, in the production of Belle Elmore.

Cantwell said he believed Tobin would actually produce Belle Elmore and save the life of Dr. Crippen.

Vote in Anson.

(Special to The Times.)
Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 8.—The morning vote in Anson county is heavy. Fully one-half of the vote was cast by noon. The republicans are especially active and are making determined effort to increase their vote. Parker, republican candidate for congress, is running ahead of his ticket. Democratic leaders still hopeful of an increased democratic majority in the county.

HARMON A FAVORITE

Little Harding Money in Sight

Both Democrats and Republicans Claim Ohio—Socialists Causing Both Parties Worry.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—While the democrats and republicans are both claiming the election of their state and the congressional tickets, as well as the legislature, which is to elect a successor to Senator Dick, what the socialists would do in the election today was cause of worry to the leaders in both the old parties. It is a foregone conclusion that they will cast an enormous vote, but the campaign managers of the old parties cannot determine from which side the bulk of the socialist vote will come.

Governor Harmon, the democratic nominee, has the better in the betting, little Harding money being in sight. The democrats also expect to land sixteen or seventeen congressmen against the eight they now have. Local conditions, more than the tariff, are shaping the votes. The democratic press at the last moment was full of editorials, claiming that the real issue is graft and not an endorsement of President Taft and his administration.

The vote was uniformly heavy, according to early reports, all over the state. The weather was cool, cloudy and threatening.

Harmon Majority Growing.

(Cincinnati, O., Nov. 8.—In a late edition this afternoon, the Times-Star, a newspaper owned by Charles P. Taft, states that Governor Harmon will carry Hamilton county by a larger vote than he had two years ago. The Times-Star concedes the election of Prosecutor Hunt on the local democratic ticket.

THOUGHT IT A JOKE.

Arrested in San Francisco For Murder in Cleveland.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—Earl S. Pender, wanted in Cleveland, for the murder of Mrs. Walter Rayner, on September 18, was arrested early today and placed in the city prison, where he finally admitted his identity. Two minutes after Pender had been brought into the office of the captain of detectives, he dropped into a chair, crossed his legs, rubbed his hands and remarked smilingly: "Well, you have got me. I might as well tell the whole story, so here goes."

Pender, according to his own story, was in company with William Van Gelder, now under arrest in Cleveland on the night of September 18, when they agreed to hold up some one in the suburbs of the city. In attempting to stop a wagon several shots were fired and Mrs. Rayner, who was riding in the vehicle, was shot to death. Van Gelder was arrested and Pender fled. Pender says Van Gelder fired the fatal shot. When he was taken into custody Pender was on the point of leaving for Europe on a sailing vessel. Since the 18th of September he says he has been beating his way across the continent.

Pender seemed to think it was a huge joke when he was taken to the city prison.

BIG VICTORY IN FRANKLIN.

Democrats Are the Whole Thing in That County.

(Special to The Times.)
Louisburg, Nov. 8.—At noon it looks like the democratic majority in this county would reach 1,500. Very few republican votes are being cast. Cooley is running behind the republican ticket and will not get over 350 votes.

In Franklin county, at Youngsville up to noon not a single republican vote had been cast.

Third District Safe.

(Special to The Times.)
New Bern, N. C., Nov. 8.—A complete democratic victory in the third district is assured. Republicans have lost interest. There is much interest manifested in this city.

Bank Robbed.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Marysville, Kas., Nov. 8.—The State Bank of Beattie, fourteen miles east of here, was robbed of $3,000 by a gang of five men early today. Citizens exchanged shots with the robbers in a running fight and it is thought one of the bandits was hit. A posse quickly started on the trail of the outlaws.

Mrs. Lydia Lipkowska, the beautiful Russian singer, who is at present stopping in Boston, Miss. Lydia, who is a native of Russia, is a daughter of a nobleman who she contemplated entering into marriage with the royal blood of Russia, asserted that dukes were not "worth a thing." "What has a duke but his title?" said Mrs. Lydia, "and what good are titles in these progressive days? I would rather marry an American than a prince any time," she concluded with enthusiasm.

WORKINGMEN STRIKE FOR THE ELECTION

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 8.—Thousands of laboring men throughout the anthracite region of Pennsylvania today obeyed the strike order of the State Federation of Labor to quit work and vote for the candidates favorable to union labor and labor interests. Working men took a greater interest in the election in the hard coal mining belt today than ever before. A storm of wind with furious snow raged during the day.

BELGIANS CLAMOR AT PARLIAMENT

(By Cable to The Times.)
Brussels, Nov. 8.—With the hall surrounded by soldiers and mobs of socialists clamoring in the streets and attempting to storm the colon of troops and break into the building, the Belgian parliament was formerly opened today by King Albert.

The royal procession to parliament hall was guarded by lines of soldiers who held back the noisy crowd of socialists. An attempt was made to persuade King Albert to delegate the opening of the body to some one else for fear of assassination but he refused. The socialists demand a dissolution of the parliament.

TAYLOR A SACRIFICE

Democrats Sacrificing Him to Save Legislature

Sen. W. Hooper, Republican, is Assured of Victory in Tennessee—Fight Has Been a Bitter One.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8.—The early voting today indicated that the republican democrats were sacrificing United States Senator Robert Taylor, the democratic candidate for governor, to save the legislative field. As a result of this the republicans and fusionists claimed the election of Captain Gen. W. Hooper by a plurality of 12,000 to 20,000. The weather was cool and clear and favorable for a big vote. The voting in east Tennessee was particularly heavy.

Republican leaders based their opinions upon the result of the judicial elections in August when the republicans made gains. A conservative independent, particularly in central Tennessee, have become republican since the withdrawal of Governor Patterson for re-election, and the democratic looked to this to help them out.

Western Tennessee, formerly strongly democratic, is holding its independent lines strongly republican. The betting today favored Captain Hooper, the odds being 2 to 1 in his favor.

The issues in Tennessee are practically all local but they have been a bitter one. The legislative fight and the gubernatorial struggle were the chief issues of the struggle.

Shake Up in Yale Football Team.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 8.—The promised shake-up in the Yale football team has come with a vengeance and with it a breaking of traditions concerning about the Yale-Princeton game Saturday.

This information was made this morning and with it was conveyed the information that Bomester who has been out of the game all season with a bad ankle, would be able to play. His return will add much strength to the eleven.

Walter Camp is now in complete charge, having deposed Ted Cox, the All-American player and the star captain of last season. Up until this year Yale has always observed as routine a trip to New York the night before the game and the balance of the journey thence to Princeton in a private car. Walter Camp decided today that the men were not sufficiently advanced to get this holiday. The men will leave Thursday going direct to a point near Princeton where practice can be indulged in on Friday and Saturday morning they will scrimmage on the Princeton grounds to get accustomed to them. Camp said today that, with very hard work, Yale may win Saturday, but the prospects are not bright.

DEMOCRATS CLAIM WILSON'S ELECTION

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—Under adverse weather conditions New Jersey is today declaring whether the college professor should enter politics, Woodrow Wilson, former president of Princeton University, being the democratic nominee. Democratic leaders maintained their claims that Prof. Wilson would defeat his opponent, Vician Lewis, by from 13,000 to 25,000. The early voting today was light.

The republican central committee, which has waged its fight on Prof. Wilson on labor issues, claimed the election by 12,000.

A heavy vote was cast early by commuters whose work takes them to New York and other points outside the state. There was little disorder.

Princess Hartzfeld-Wildenburg, the widow of Prince Francis Edmond Joseph Hartzfeld-Wildenburg, who recently died in London, The Princess was the daughter of a poor grocery clerk of Sacramento, California who lost his life in the famous Sacramento flood when she was but a year old. The destitute condition of the family aroused the pity of the late Col. G. P. Harrington, a western millionaire, and he adopted the little girl. She was kept in ignorance of her parentage until she was fourteen years old.

STEDMAN VICTORY ASSURED IN THE 5TH

(Special to The Times.)
Greensboro, Nov. 8.—From voting returns received at noon from every precinct in Greensboro, High Point and the mill village precincts the same news comes, that former doubtful voters are voting the straight democratic ticket, republicans scratching their heads for Stedman. The biggest vote ever polled up to that time showing that high tariff and protection prevent the people state and national shores.

SHOOTING AFFAIR NEAR WAKE FOREST

(Special to The Times.)
Wake Forest, Nov. 8.—In a shooting scrape at the home of Mr. O'Neal a farmer of this county two miles from this place this morning at eight o'clock, Lou Morris was shot twice by Mr. O'Neal, only one side of the case could be heard. Morris' friends claim that he was shot without provocation. That as he and O'Neal were talking, O'Neal picked up his brooch and shot and the shot taking effect in his side. As he ran O'Neal shot again the shot taking effect in his shoulder and Morris fell. Morris had been a hand on the farm of O'Neal for some time. It is supposed that there had been trouble between the men and that there is another side to the trouble. O'Neal is married and has a family while Morris is unmarried.

TROUBLE WITH NEGROES

Seize Election Precinct in Oklahoma

Negroes Maddened Because They Were Not Allowed to Vote—Make Trouble—State Militia Ready to Act.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 8.—In the morning the negroes in Oklahoma seized the election of the state and congressional officers, the negroes threatening to vote in spite of the "grandfather clause" and at many places are preparing to use force to get what they consider their rights. At Muskogee, Sapulpa and several other places the negroes have been secretly buying arms and ammunition and the whites are preparing to suppress any outbreaks. At Muskogee the morning negroes were congregating in their section of the town but as yet there has been no trouble. Troops are held ready to act. Upon orders of Governor Haskell, state militiamen are held in readiness to be sent to Guthrie, Muskogee or any other point where they are needed. Governor Haskell has received reports from Guthrie to order out the troops there but he believes the reports of the trouble with the negroes are greatly magnified and will not order out the troops until it is absolutely necessary. The Guthrie people say they would feel much safer if troops were on hand to check any outbreaks. One company of soldiers has been ordered mobilized here in case they should be needed.

Negroes Seize Precinct.

Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 8.—Trouble broke out between negroes and whites at Fessay Creek in Wagoner county, today, and the negroes seized the polling place, throwing the white officers out. Fessay Creek is four miles from Coweta, the nearest white town, and is in the heart of a big negro settlement.

A runner was despatched by the election officers to Coweta asking for help. Two automobiles loaded with fifteen white men armed with shotguns and Winchester, started immediately for the scene. Officers will follow. These white men will attempt to put the election officers back in control and disarm the negroes, nearly all of whom carry arms. It is expected that with the white arrival at Fessay Creek shooting will begin. The negroes have commenced to offer affidavits of their qualifications to vote at Coweta, but none has been allowed to vote on them yet. The negroes are silent but have not made any demonstration as yet.

WOMEN AT POLLS.

Women Watchers at Polls to See That Voting is Regular and Legal.

New York, Nov. 8.—Miss Madge Ingersoll, daughter of the late Robert G. Ingersoll, was one of the army of women watchers who took their first lesson in practical politics today by going through the regular formula of election duties. Miss Ingersoll chose a polling place in the twelfth assembly district, the home district of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. She lipped slightly, the result of being thrown from her horse recently, as she walked about the polling place as watcher.

"If I can't vote myself I can at least see that who can do not violate the privilege," said she determinedly. "I was here before the doors were opened at 6 o'clock and I will be here when they close."

Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, president of the Equity League and one of the suffragist leaders in New York, spent the day going from voting place to voting place. She had many conversations with voters, judges, watchers and policemen.

The suspicious voting places in the Bowery districts were thoroughly patrolled by women wearing huge inscriptions on baldrics, such as "We can't vote but can watch."

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, who, with Mrs. Clarence Mackay furnished most of the money for the equipment of women watchers at the polling places, spent the greater part of the morning at the headquarters of her wing of the suffragists in the Hotel Normandie. The telephone jangled continuously with reports from women in various parts of the city asking instructions what they should do in the case of detected illegal voting.

Miss Cook, one of the ardent followers of the cause, was at 11 Bowery. She was well equipped with police credentials with her photograph attached, a police identification card, election credentials from the suffragist league and from both republican and democratic parties. It required a small satchel to carry her paraphernalia.

Schooner On Fire.

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 8.—A schooner was reported on fire in Bridgeport harbor early today. Boats were sent to her assistance.

WAKE FOR DEMOCRACY

Indications at 12 O'clock Today Point to a Big Democratic Victory

A LIGHT VOTE CAST

It Looks As Though the Regular Democratic Ticket Headed by Sikes Will Sweep the City—The Vote Cast Up Until Noon Was Light—The "Straights" Not Making Much of a Showing—The Republicans and "Straight" Democrats Have Been Out-voted So Far—The Weather Ideal—A Regular Sunday Calm Prevails Around the Various Voting Places.

Raleigh is doing her duty by democracy today, and judging by the vote cast this morning the regular democratic ticket, headed by Dr. E. W. Sikes, will be elected by a big majority. The "straight democrats" are not making much of a showing so far, and unless the late vote helps them they will hardly count in the city. In only two precincts in the city proper have they made any kind of a showing, these being the second division of the first and the first division of the third.

At noon the vote in the second division of the second ward 140 votes had been cast and of these there were five republicans and ten split tickets, giving the democrats a lead of about 123.

The first division of the second ward stood, approximately, democrats, 100; republicans, 10; split, 15.

The first division of the third, with nearly 100 vote cast, the three tickets were running neck and neck, not being five votes difference between the leader and the tailender.

In the second division of the third only 34 votes had been cast, these being divided: Republicans, 19; democrats, 12; straight, 3.

The first division of the fourth with 70 votes cast, it was claimed that the democrats had about 50 of these and the balance about evenly divided between the republicans and the "straights".

SAVANNAH READY FOR BIG RACES

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Savannah, Nov. 8.—With the grand prix only four days away, the last contingent of racers that will compete in it and the light car races arrived today from Atlanta.

From now on the grand prix course will be covered daily in practice dashes from the various camps.

The oil has permeated the roads and with nearly a hundred flagmen stationed on the course during practice hours fast workouts will be made.

Savannah is now the mecca of the automobile contingent, who are arriving on every steamboat and train and every effort is being made to have the influx which is fast swelling into a multitude.

The steamship Columbus arrived from New York this morning with cups which will be contested for in the races.

This afternoon a novel parade will be conducted. The thirty-nine racing cars, followed by four or five hundred local machines will be run through the city's principal thoroughfares.

Coach At Yale.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Chicago, Nov. 8.—Orville Overall who declares next season will be the best year of his career as a slab artist, may fill the position of coach at Yale, one of the jobs offered Johnny Evers and turned down by the crack second baseman.

Bishops Can't Remove Priests.

(By Cable to The Times.)
Rome, Nov. 8.—Roman Catholic bishops are now deprived of the authority to remove priests in their dioceses. This is one of the results, it was learned today, of the new codification of the church laws. The task has just been completed after seven years of work.

ELECTION RETURNS

Following its usual custom, The Raleigh Daily Times will keep open house tonight, and full and complete election returns from the county, state, and nation will be given. Besides having a full service from Wake County and the State of North Carolina, The Times' Private Leased Wire, which connects directly with Washington, Philadelphia, New York, and Boston, will give all the national returns as fast as they are issued from headquarters.
