

ding was kept secret. dollars was raised toward a home for Mr. Puckett. Walter Stanbury and Frank Love passed class as deacons. 'lass of eight was ordained by the bishop.

Question 22 called: Are all prouchblameless in their lives and official administrations? It is one of the most interesting questions of the conference, all passing, reports made. The hanquet of Trinity Alumni will be held tonight in the Kramer building.

(Continued on Page Two.)

(By Cable to The Times.)

London, Dec. 2-Cheered by more than 100 naval officers of the visiting American squadron, Lord Mayor Strong ton also.

today proclaimed the union of England and America against the world. This declaration was made at a luncheon at Guild Hall tendered the visiting American officers by the city States navy, proposed by the lord mayor himself.

He said:

honeymoon. Afterwards the bride "If dishonor ever threatens the union returned to the seminary. jack or destruction throughout the nation a voice will come across the seasfrom America crying: 'Halt, woodman spare that tree. It sheltered me in the none of them knew that she and past and I will protect it now." Sanders were married. A burst of applause followed this ringing declaration but the lord mayor. holding up his hand for silence, continued:

We welcome our guests as allies in Two Lenoir Men Bound to Superio the amenities of good citizenship. They are our friends."

The insurance department has Lord Mayor Strong presided at the caused Richard Shoemaker and Luth-The hall was brilliant with Inncheon. intertwined English and American er Bowman, of Lenoir, to be bound to court in the sum of $600 to answer

York.

Rear Admiral Murdock of the third division of the United States warships responded to Lord Mayor Strong's speech, speaking most heartily of the cordiality shown the American tars in England

Ambassador Reld then proposed to toast to the Lord Mayor , which was drunk with enthusiasm.

Insurance Company Licensed.

The insurance department has licensed the Lumber Underwriters, of vessel and pulled her off the bar. She New York City, to do business in was compelled to return to New North Carolina.

Romantic as any medieval adventure is the story of how the rich girl and the poor man met, fell in love at first sight, and, finally, were quietly wedded on October 29. pointment.

Miss Malone is rich in her own right. Sanders is a Baltimorean. He learned how to run an automobile while in his native city and was employed by Mrs. Lyda Malone, the girl's mother.

Girls at the seminary say that Miss

Malone kept her secret well, and

CHARGED WITH HOUSEBURNING.

Court.

Sanders went with the family to President Taft worked until three Fairmont, W. Va., while Miss Malone was attending the Mount Vernon o'clock this morning on his message, Seminary. It was during the sum- correcting the advance copies which mer holiday that the girl, returning were rushed from the government to her mother's home, met the hand- printing early this morning for the some chauffeur and became infatu- newspapers.

day

ated with him. Sanders fell in love Representative Calder, of New with her. When Miss Malone re- York, who has just returned from a turned to Mount Vernon Seminary trip to the Panama Canal, saw the Sanders resigned his position with president. He said he urged Mr.

possible.

Mrs. Malone and came to Washing- Taft to advocate the fortification of the canal. On October 29 Miss Malone and Official denial was made today of Sanders took a train to Baltimore. the report that J. P. Morgan and The wedding was performed at a other financiers have submitted to church where Sanders had made President Taft a draft of a federal and followed a toast to the United prior arrangements, and after a few corporation law. Secretary Norton calls upon mutual friends they left requested the press representatives the city and started north on their to make the denial as emphatic as a o'elock. Before the cabinet session began

President Taft greeted Archbisaop Ireland, and conferred with Judge Sanborn, of Minnesota, another supreme court possibility. It was stated officially, that while President Taft for the next ten days will have many judicial callers, it is not to be taken for granted that the president has determined upon any appointment to the supreme court bench or to the new commerce court.

Following the cabinet session President and Mrs. Taft went to Fort Myer, where they witnessed a drill

The Chinese Loan, New York, Dec. 2-The steamer Pekin, Dec. 2-New terms for the proposed loan of $50,000,000 to the Eretria, outward bound and heavily loaded, ran aground in the Ambrose Chinese government were put up to the Chinese today by Willard D. Straight. channel near Sandy Hook early today. The revenue cutter Mohawk who suggested that the loan be made an international affair and not a strictwas rushed to the assistance of the ly American enterprise. Mr. Straight arrived here Monday from New York but delayed the toan negotlations u til today.

Blenheim were researd from decay by Gummere would not be presented to the forture of Consuelo Vanderbilt the president and that Judge Gumthe present Duchess, enraged the mere was pledged to support the can-Duke, who said: "When Mr. George didacy of Judge Swayzey, of New did me the honor of staying at Blen-Jersey, for the supreme court apheim ,nearly three years ago, 1 cerolution have disappeared except it tainly did not expect that I should one or two remote places in Chilua Walter L. Fisher, of Chicago, a ever eventually become the target of hua. Senor Creel tells the ambassamember of the stock and bonds comhis insolent and unsavory invective. dor not to pay any attention to what mission, whose name is being consid-At that time I must have mistaken he termed "fantastic press reports. ered in connection with the supremehim for a gentleman, though I have Mr. Creel said the inauguration court, called at the white house tosince begun to think otherwise." peremonies vesterday were marked

> DISASTROUS FIRE OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN

(Special to The Times,r Wadeshoro, Dec. 2- Allie Hayward

a large planter, living near Mount Blead, suffered a most disastrons fitt sarly this metning. The total loss exheld. The meeting will probably re eeding $5,000 dollars, including three barns, tittee cribs, several out buildings, a large quantity of feed, several hundred bushels of cora, four bales of cotton, four mules and seven head of workmen injured in the course o their daty. There is also a possibil It is runnored that the fire was of ity that the governors will adopt :

ONLY 19 SHOPPING DAYS TILL

neendiary origin. It was discovered at broader course by recommending that congress enact a national law. A poll of the departing guests to day showed that the majority of the executives favor direct primaries for the election of United States sena

Census of Virginia Cities.

er of foreign affairs, in which the latter said all signs of the recent rev

GOVERNORS GO HOME.

Excentives Go Home.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 2-Governors with gratifying enthusiasm.

Christmas (By Leased Wire to The Times) Washington, Dec. 2-The follow ig census figures for the state of ing for the bandits. irginia were given out today: Alexandria, 15,892; Bristol, 6,247 Charlottesville, 6,765; Clifton Forge ,748; Danville, 19,020; Fredericks- vents were seized. burg, 5,874; Newport News, 20,205

> (By Leased Wire to The Times) Chicago, Dec. 2-Three children of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cupnerd was burned to death in a fire here today. een destroyed.

of appreciation of the work of the Barra, the Mexican ambassador here women teachers, particularly in the received a telegram this morning rom Enrique Creel, Mexican minis-primary grades. On motion of Miss Heath it was ordered that a message be wired to Miss Wetmore, president of the as- identified a pair of bicycle trunks as sociation, expressing regret at her

A resolution was adopted by a rising vote requesting that at least three primary teachers be appointed on the next board to select text books for the public schools of the state, Mr. R. D. W. Connor, secretary of the Teachers' Assembly, presented resolution adopted by the execulovernors Conference Has Ended and tive committee of the assembly at the meeting of November 30. This resolution provides for a union of the various teachers organizations. This who attended the national conference matter das discussed by Mrs. Garbade goodbye to this city today and started for their homes following ressen, Misses Doub, Sheets, Womble, Kirby, Arrington, Grainam, Royster, what many of them term the most important house of governors yes Jones, Tinnen and others. On motion of Miss Doub a committee was appointed to consider the sult in concerted action in at leas matter and report at tomorrow mornseveral states to enact uniform liabiling's meeting. ity laws for the compensation o

BRIGANDS CAPTURE NUNS.

Thirty Who Fled From Macao in Hands of Highbinders.

(By Cable to The Times.) Hong Kong, Dec. 2-Thirty nuns revolt of republicans against the been captured by Chinese brigands. The nuns, who are in flight to this one.

city, were carried into the mountains. A detachment of soldiers are search-

Great numbers of refugee monks are in this city following the uprising in which monastaries and con-

The nuns and monks here express much anxiety over the missing women and have asked the authorities the law.

to exert every endeavor to recover them at once if they are still alive.

The brigand band is known as a dangerous clique of highbinder caste.

Wendling was badly tangled up at one stage during his cross-examination by Prosecutor Huffaker, but in general did well by himself. He his. There were stains near the inability to be present at this meet- waisthand which City Chemist Dobbins had analyzed as human blood, "How long has it been since you temporarily eluded him.

(Continued on Page Five.)

TURPENTINE TRUST GETS HARD JOLT

Washington, Dec. 2--The first conviction carrying with it a jail sentence was obtained by the federal government under the Sherman anti-trust la wat Savannah, Ga., yes-terady afternoon, in the case against the American Naval Stores and the National Transportation & Terminal Company, known as the turpentine trust. The department of justice was notified of this today.

A sentence of three months in jail and a fine of $5,000 was imposed on Spencer B. Shorter, chairman of the board of directors of the "trust" and J. F. Meyers, vice-president, was sentenced to jail for three mouths and who fled from Macao following the fined $2,500. E. S. Nash, president, was fined $3,000. G. M. Boardman, Portuguese royal government, have a member of the board, $2,000, and Carl Moller, a board member, $5,-

Report of Marine Corps.

Washington, Dec. 2-The annual report of the United States marine corps shows that the corps includes 334 officers and 9,267 enlisted metr. During the fiscal year there were 3,- 939 enlistments and 4,970 men were discharged, retired, died, or deserted.

Fire In Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 2-Fire gutted the plant of the Pigeon-Thomas Iron Works at Second and The men, under command of a bold Adams street last night and damagleader, have long terrorized towns ed the Memphis Steam Laundry and The fire was under control at and carried away women, holding Baptist church, causing a total loss 11:30, after three buildings had them for ransom, in open defiance of by flames and water of nearly $200,- pa's Present 804: Winchester, 5,864.

Get Grand-

Petersburg, 24.127; Staunton, 10,-

Three Burned to Death.

Before You Forget It

eatile.

the charge of burning a chair factory. of local charities. Steamer Aground. (By Leased Wire to The Times.)

by the troopers given for the benefit