

EULOGY BY W. B. JONES

Delivered at Elks Memorial Service Sunday Afternoon

Beautiful Tribute to the Memory of the Late Ludlow Birdsong Delivered by Hon. William B. Jones at the Grand Theatre Sunday Afternoon.

Ladies and Gentlemen and Brother Elks: Again it becomes our painful duty to meet in this hall after the lapse of but one short year and with tear-dimmed eyes to note the vacant chairs which the dark and heavy hand of death has cast around us. The admittance of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death which has come to the members of our fraternity have been frequent and impressive, but my limited time will not permit me to speak if I could express through words the loyal traits of character of those who have been called to the mystic Great Beyond prior to our last meeting, those who we loved and who loved us with tenderness and who were faithful unto us even unto death. They have left us temporarily but when the great day of rejoicing shall come, when the hearts of all shall be known, when those who with us were but aspirants, struggling and suffering mortals, those who shared our joy and pain and who have watched us wistfully battling through life, will meet with us, we shall understand and there will be no sighing or parting there. Though the light of life may be dimmed and the shadows of twilight falling, the deeds of a good man may be an impress that will pulsate through all eternity. It is with peculiar admiration and with deep thought that I may but live to attain those splendid traits of character and ideals to uplift my fellow-man to better Christian endeavor in this life that were always and ever present in S. Ludlow Birdsong, of whom it is my privilege to speak. Born in Wake county on the 16th day of August, 1884, he lived with us as one of us, always present and agreeable in his manner, accommodating and unselfish in every walk of life. In the very bloom of his young manhood he was afflicted with a sickness which proved the forerunner of an incurable disease. He struggled bravely against it, but his friends saw the dark angel hovering over him and our Great Creator in His omnipotent power and wisdom sent the angel of death and took him from our midst on the 5th day of March, 1910. As a man soldier he bore his suffering bravely and with the faith of a little child he went to meet his God. He was a man of singular simplicity and purity of character in whose eyes the light of kindness always shown full of sympathy for the sorrowful and those afflicted with trouble.

To you, brother Elks, I would say, let us emulate his virtues and inculcate his habits and instill into our minds the example of his useful life.

NEW PUBLIC BUILDING.

Washington Gets Nice Building—Plans and Drawings Completed—New Board of County Commissioners.

(Special to The Times.)

Washington, N. C., Dec. 7.—Hon. John H. Small, of this city, has recently received a communication from the treasury department, stating that the working drawings for Washington's public building were about completed and that if no unforeseen delays occur the drawings and specifications should be completed in time to permit the department to advertise for bids in the coming spring. The assistant secretary also stated that a tentative copy of the floor plan had been sent to the postmaster here, in order to give him an opportunity to make any changes that he may consider relevant, and when his report had been made and the floor plan returned, his statement would consider careful consideration in the further development of the drawings.

The December term of Beaufort county superior court convened in the county court house this city yesterday morning for a three weeks term. His Honor, Judge Adams, of Asheville, is presiding. The first two weeks of the term will be taken up in the trial of civil cases and the last week will be devoted to the criminal docket.

The new board of county commissioners, composed of Messrs. Fred Von Eberstein, W. W. Hooker, S. F. Freeman, O. B. Wynn and W. F. Gaylor, were inducted into office at the court house yesterday afternoon. Mr. F. H. Von Eberstein was elected chairman of the board and Major W. C. Rodman county attorney. The newly elected county officers also presented their bonds to the commissioners and were sworn into office at the same time. They are George E. Ricks, sheriff; E. R. Nixon, treasurer; Gilbert Rumley, register of deeds; and Geo. A. Paul, clerk of court.

The Washington Lodge, No. 822 Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, held their annual memorial exercises in their hall Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A very delightful musical program was one of the features of the occasion. Rev. Robt. V. Hope, of the Christian church, delivered the annual address, which was a masterpiece and well received by his audience. The eulogies delivered by Major W. C. Rodman as to the life of the late F. G. Paul and Mr. A. D. McLean on the life of the late Mr. W. P. Baughman were both ably delivered and marked by their beauty and diction. A large audience was present.

Saved From Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, laryngitis, asthma, croup, hemorrhage, all bronchial troubles, it has no equal. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by King-Crowell Drug Co.

WADESBORO NEWS.

Special Train Carrying Road Officials Pass—Death of Mrs. Fannie Stephenson at Age of Sixty-five—Wife of Late Rev. R. N. T. Stephenson, Beloved Methodist Minister.

(Special to The Times.)

Wadesboro, N. C., Dec. 7.—A special train passed through here yesterday over the Southbound carrying President L. E. Johnson, of the Norfolk and Western; Men. Maher, of the N. & W. and A. C. L., respectively. Mr. O'Neal, of the A. C. L., will also be with the party, which will include the officials of the Southbound. The special train left here for Florence.

Mrs. Fannie Stephenson died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Bricker, of Polkton, Tuesday morning. She was sixty-five years of age and had been unwell for sometime. Besides Mrs. Bricker, one other daughter, Mrs. C. B. Covington, of Chesterfield, survives her. One brother, Mr. Wilton Conbis, and her brother-in-law were with her when she died. One other brother and sister survive her. The deceased was the wife of the late Rev. R. N. T. Stephenson, a beloved Methodist minister of the county. He was formerly pastor of the Morven circuit and lived in the town of Morven. Mrs. Stephenson was an ideal minister's wife and in many ways helped her husband in the noble work for which he gave his life. As a friend and neighbor she was true in every respect. The interment will be at Morven, the funeral service conducted by Rev. J. J. Barker.

Banks on Sure Thing Now.

"I'll never be without Dr. King's New Life Pills Again," writes A. Schingeeck, 647 Elm St., Buffalo, N. Y. "They cured me of chronic constipation when all others failed." Unequaled for Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache, Chills, Malaria and Debility. 25c at King-Crowell Drug Co.

REGULATES ANY STOMACH.

No Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Five Minutes After Taking a Little Diapepsin.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bit of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out-of-order Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS.

Nash County Has New Force Now in Office—Superior Court in Session, Judge Peebles Presiding—Farmers Union Held Interesting Meeting.

(Special to The Times.)

Nashville, N. C., Dec. 7.—The various officers of the county were inducted into office yesterday. The only change in the officers of Nash county, the officers who have offices at the county seat, is that of treasurer. Mr. J. D. Winstead is succeeded by Mr. S. S. Gay. Messrs. A. T. Strickland and R. C. Glover, county commissioners, are succeeded by Messrs. J. W. Kemp and W. H. Glover. J. H. Short will take charge of the county home January 1. Mr. I. W. Strickland has been in charge of the home for the past eight years. All the officers gave their bonds yesterday.

The new board of county commissioners held its first meeting yesterday. Only routine business was attended to yesterday. One matter of interest to the public is in regard to the retiring treasurer, Mr. J. D. Winstead. Mr. Winstead has contended that he was entitled to a commission on the money received from the sale of produce on the county home farm. The commissioners have contended otherwise. Yesterday on retiring from office Mr. Winstead refused to turn over certain money in his hands until he was paid the commissions, amounting to something over $200, commissions accumulated in past seven years. The county commissioners ordered the county attorney to bring suit against retiring treasurer. It seems now the differences of the commissioners and the retiring treasurer will have to be settled by the courts.

The superior court for the trial of civil cases convened this morning. Judge R. B. Peebles is presiding. There are a number of cases on the docket and all of the attorneys of the county and others are present at the court.

The Nash County Farmers' Union held an interesting meeting here Saturday. All of the local unions were represented, and a number of questions of interest and importance to the farmers were discussed. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Gray King; Vice President, J. J. Joyner; Secretary, C. F. Ellen; Doorkeeper, J. W. Braswell; Conductor, amthw Strickland. Another meeting will be held in January.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Bolls, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at King-Crowell Drug Co.

People who are ashamed of a good appetite have lots of other things in their lives they could be more ashamed of, but they aren't.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. H. W. L. Hall, of Waco, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me. For sale by all dealers."

The girl of the period can make an impression better than she can make pieces.
