

ADDRESS OF DUDLEY

Urges Importance of Right Living Upon Students

President of Colored A. & M. Makes Great Address in Which he Abhors Granville Crime—Urges His Students to Do Their Part in Bringing Criminals to Justice—Negro Criminals Have Affected Race.

(Special to The Times.)

Greensboro, Dec. 24—In addressing the student body of the North Carolina A. & M. College for negroes in this city, Dr. Jas. B. Dudley, president of this institution said that he and the faculty and the better element of the race regretted the terrible crime committed near Oxford this week. He told the students that their education was to control their passions and uncompromisingly stand for an ideal citizenship. He in part, said: "We deeply regret the fact that North Carolina has been disgraced by such a crime being committed within her borders. We are proud of our state, because under such provocations law triumphs and the criminal is summarily and legally punished."

Showing the students the necessity of contributing their part for the maintenance of a good government, he urged upon every student the duty of doing his part in the interest of his race in bringing criminals especially criminals of the character that committed the atrocious crime in Granville county this week, to justice. He especially emphasized that negro criminals who have affected his race so much by their criminal activities should receive no encouragement actively or passively from us, his people.

At the meeting of the executive committee of the college that met this week in Guilford Hotel, this city, president Dudley made a report that was highly recommended by the committee. The report showed that every department of the college was taxed rather heavily. The committee decided to ask for another dormitory, an agricultural building and better maintenance, as the growth of the school has gone beyond its present capacity.

Yesterday the regular North Carolina Day's program was creditably carried out by the students as suggested by the superintendent of education for North Carolina.

GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Booked for Next Week—Numerous Prizes to be Given.

(Special to The Times.)

Pinehurst, N. C., Dec. 24—The seventh annual holiday week golf tournament booked for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the coming week, sets the Pinehurst golf season in full swing, immediately preceding as it does the eighth annual midwinter contest and the advertising mens meeting, scheduled for January 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th; the biggest week, without question, in American golf. Thus early the entry list for the midwinter tips the hundred mark and it promises to climb much higher, special trains bringing delegations from New York, Philadelphia, Washington and other points.

Six divisions of sixteen each are provided for in the midwinter with special additional divisions for those who fail to qualify under the Pinehurst system in which the entries are divided into six classes and the best sixteen scores in each class qualify. The rules permit a player failing to qualify in his division to drop one division only while those who outrank the scores in their class are advanced to higher divisions. This system inaugurated in 1907, has been thoroughly tested here and is attracting national attention. The trophies include a gold medal for the best qualification score and the presidents, governors, secretaries, treasurers, captains, and club cups for the division winners-up and the consolation division winners as well as sterling cups for the division winners in the match play rounds of the overflow field.

William C. Freeman, chairman of the advertising men's tournament, announces that the prizes will be "numerous, valuable and suitable, and there will be as many divisions as there are people to play." His associates are W. W. Mamlock, of New York; Willis R. Roberts, of Philadelphia; R. N. Purvis, of Boston, and Edgar M. Hoopers, of Wilmington. In the annual holiday week tournament booked for the week to come, three divisions are provided for with trophies for Division runners-up and consolation division winners, in addition to a cup for the best qualification score. Robert Hunter, the intercollegiate champion, his cousin, Paul Hunter, of Midlothian, and Parker W. Whittemore, of the Brookline Country Club, are prominent entries for this tournament.

BIG AVIATION MEET.

New World's Records Are Expected to be Made.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 24—With the famous aviators of France, England and America competing, new world's records are expected to be set in the aviation meet opening here at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The efforts of the American and English aviators will be directed particularly to smashing the records recently set by Frenchmen in their own country. They will have to reckon, however, with Hubert Latham, the skillful Frenchman, who makes flying a pastime and is ready to defend his country's honors.

Ideal flying weather prevailed and crowds gathered about the hangars his morning curious to see the aeroplanes, especially the Antonette monoplane of Latham.

This meet will help to settle the rivalry between the two rival American built machines—the Curtiss and the Wright.

While the altitude record is within sight of the American biplanes it was feared that the powerful monoplanes of Latham and Radley would continue to hold the distance and speed records from America.

The meet will continue until January 3 and Latham has promised to celebrate Christmas with a spectacular flight over Dominguez field. However, on January 2, which is tournament day in Pasadena, there will be no flying. In a way the tournament is a renewal of the battle between the American biplane and the foreign monoplane which was fought out to a degree in the international tournament held at New York.

Radley, the English aviator who flies a Bleriot monoplane, was confident this morning that he would set a new world's mark, although he did not know whether it would be for speed, duration or altitude.

"I feel like a new champion," said he. "I don't know what I am going to do, but I know I am going to do it."

"Conditions here seem to be just about right," declared Glenn H. Curtiss, who won the international aviation trophy for America in Reuclins, France, in 1909. "I predict," he continued, "that some records are going to be set on this meeting. This should set a new epoch in aviation in America."

Roy Knabenschue, the young Ohio birdman, who is a representative of the Wrights, is enthusiastic over the prospects of beating some of the established aviation figures.

"We have instructions to brave all kinds of weather in an effort to set new world's marks and demonstrate the great power of the Wright biplanes," said he this morning, as he ran his eyes over the horizon and gauged the strength of the breeze.

"The wind will not interfere with us, for we have instructions to run away with this meeting if we can."

Hubert Latham, who is not boastful, merely said he would do his best and hoped his Antonette monoplane would serve him as well as it has in the past.

"This meeting will be a great one," declared the French aviator.

Why Is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown people as for Children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The standard for 30 years. 50c.

Mrs. Charles Hamilton Paine, widow of the Boston copper millionaire who is now the Duchess of Choiseul-Praslin, according to a report from Paris. The marriage occurred within the last few weeks. It is not known whether it was performed in London or in Switzerland. In fact, it might not have been revealed for a long time had it not become necessary for Mrs. Paine to sign some papers in connection with her suit against the bogus "Comte" D'Aulny de Gatinay for having sold her $200,000 worth of bogus old masters. When she signed these papers at Tours she wrote her name, "Mary de Choiseul-Praslin." The Duke de Choiseul has been in London recently, but Mrs. Paine has maintained an elaborate establishment at Saint Moritz, in Switzerland, where the Duke was a frequent visitor. The death of Mrs. Paine's husband, only about a year ago, is believed to have been the cause of the secrecy maintained concerning the marriage. The Duke de Choiseul has been a friend of Mrs. Paine ever since she came to Paris after becoming weary of her social career in Boston. He has never missed one of the noted receptions of the charming American, and has, it is said, achieved even the approval of Mrs. Paine's three daughters. The marriage places Mrs. Paine with the other three American Duchesses of France, the Duchess of Rochefoucauld, the Duchess of Chantness and the Duchess of Talleyrand, who were, respectively, Mathie Mitchell, Theodora Shonts and Anna Gould. The ancient chateau de Choiseul is now in the possession of a rich sugar refiner, but perhaps the Boston copper millions will restore it to the ancient family. The Duke has four brothers, one sister—and plenty of debts.

PINEHURST SOCIALS.

Spirit of the Holidays Invades the Village—Hop Night at Holly Inn—Hotel Arrivals.

(Special to The Times.)

Pinehurst, N. C., Dec. 24—The spirit of the holidays pervades the village. Informal social affairs in keeping with the season rounding out perfect days devoted to recreation in the open air. Tonight's Christmas Eve hop at the Holly Inn was enjoyed by the entire colony and many of the cottagers entertained Christmas trees sparkling with lights and tinsel within cottages and hotel, adding life and gaiety to the scene, for in this land of holly and mistletoe, it has new meaning. The fox hunters have made much of ideal ways, many women among those who follow the hounds, and shooting continues at its best.

Chinese reports say that ex-President Liang-Ten-yen of Wai-wu-pu (the imperial foreign office) proposes to join an American capitalist and to open a Chinese-American commercial bank.

His capital will be in Chinese taels (about $50,000) and the headquarters will be established at Tientsin, with branches at all the ports.

OVERTAXED

Hundreds of Raleigh Readers Know What it Means.

The kidneys are overtaxed: Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, dizziness, headache. Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Raleigh citizen tells here the way to keep the kidneys well. Joseph E. Pool, 323 S. Person St., Raleigh, N. C., says: "The public endorsement I gave Doan's Kidney Pills almost three years ago was correct in every particular. I cannot speak too strongly of this remedy in view of what it has done for me. It is the best preparation to be had for lame and weak back and I would not be without a supply on hand. I have procured Doan's Kidney Pills from the Bobbitt-Wynno Drug Co., and have taken them whenever my back or kidneys have bothered me. Relief has always followed in a short time and at the present I am in good health. I have often recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to my friends."
